Reagan to abolish wage, price council

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Reagan announced Thursday he would abolish the Council on Wage and Price Stability and prohibit federal agencies from implementing new regulations for 60 days.

In an opening statement at his first news conference since taking office, the president said the Council on Wage and Price Stability, which administered the Carter administration's anti-inflation program, "has been totally ineffective in controlling inflation and has imposed unnecessary burdens on labor and business."

Announcing the freeze on pending federal regulations, the new president said the action would give his administration time "to start a new regulatory oversight process and also prevent certain last-minute regulatory decisions of the previous administration — the so-called 'midnight regulations' — from taking effect without proper review and approval."

Abolition of the Council on Wage and Price Stability would cut 120 persons from the federal payroll. Reagan said he would ask Congress to rescind its budget of $1.5 million.

Reagan also said his planned cuts in federal spending would "be made every place" and likely would be "bigger than anyone has ever attempted." He declined to be more specific.

The president indicated his continued commitment to seek a three-year, 30-percent cut in individual taxes. He backed away somewhat from earlier pledges that the cut take effect at the start of 1981. Reagan said the exact date was not as important as getting the principle of the tax plan in place.

"We've lived beyond our means and then financed our extravagance on the backs of the American people," Reagan said of his proposed spending cuts, scheduled to be detailed in mid-February.

Reagan said his administration "did not come here to be a caretaker government.... We think the time has come where there has to be a change of direction of this country and it's going to begin with reducing government spending."

In conjunction with his plan to cut spending and taxes, the president said he was ordering "key federal agencies to freeze pending regulations for 60 days."

News In Brief

Spanish premier and Cabinet resign

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Premier Adolfo Suarez resigned Thursday with his Cabinet, the government announced.

The 48-year-old premier also quit as head of his ruling center party. Both decisions are irrevocable, spokeswoman Rosa Posada said in announcing the premier's resignation. She said the premier quit for strictly personal reasons.

The premier's Cabinet resigned with him but will continue in caretaker status until the party names a new leader, and presumably a premier nominee, at a party convention scheduled next week.

The first democratically elected head of government since the 1936-1939 Civil War, Suarez came under increasing criticism within his own party in recent weeks after surviving a vote of confidence last September by 14 votes.

Israelis raid Lebanon base

SIDON, Lebanon (AP) — Israeli jets attacked Palestinian guerilla bases in southern Lebanon Thursday for the first time this year to avenge a Palestinian rocket attack on an Israeli border town.

In Jerusalem, an Israeli defense official cited U.S. President Reagan's statement that terrorism should be dealt with "swiftly and unequivocally."

The Israeli warplanes struck at targets across southern Lebanon hours after Lebanese-based Palestinians wounded seven Israelis in Kiryat Shmona with a barrage of Soviet-made Katyusha rockets.

Lebanese and Palestinian officials said four Palestinian guerrillas and 10 Lebanese villagers were killed by the air raids and 30 people were wounded.

The Israeli warplanes roared in from the Mediterranean Sea to hit targets near the port cities of Sidon and Tyre, the coastal town of Zaharani and the market town of Nabatiyah, about 12 miles inland.

U.S. Ambassador John Gunther Dean visited the town a few hours before the raid to present U.S. aid to a Lebanese nursing school but had returned to Beirut before the attack.

Fuel prices rise quickly

NEW YORK (AP) — Exxon Corp. and Shell Oil Co. boosted wholesale fuel prices 1 to 3 cents Thursday, but most other major refiners failed to match the moves in the wake of President Reagan's decision to lift price controls on petroleum.

"We're still trying to review the effects" of Reagan's early abolition of price and allocation regulations, said a spokesman for Standard Oil Co. of California, the nation's fourth-largest oil firm.

Exxon, the nation's largest oil company, said it increased prices 1.5 to 3 cents a gallon on wholesale home heating oil and diesel and jet fuel and hiked wholesale gasoline prices 2 to 3 cent a gallon. The price hikes varied in different parts of the country.

Shell increased home heating oil and diesel fuel prices 1 cent a gallon west of the Rockies and 3 cents a gallon elsewhere.

Meanwhile, No. 2 Mobil Corp. said it raised wholesale heating and diesel fuel prices 1 to 2 cents a gallon in sections of the East Wednesday.

Assistant town manager resigns

Tony Hooper, Chapel Hill's assistant town manager since 1979, has resigned from his post, effective Feb. 27. Hooper has accepted the job of town manager for New Bern. He came to Chapel Hill five years ago to be town finance director.

the campus but would be covering city streets that run through the campus, such as Cameron Avenue or Raleigh Road.

"I'm going to try to be as understanding as possible about the whole thing," Benson said. "I'm not totally in favor of outlawing voice control because some people really use it correctly. It's too bad that they have to use leashes even though they can control their dogs."

Benson said she was most pleased with the part of the new ordinance that allows the patrol to give civil citations to leash law offenders instead of having the police swear out criminal warrants, as had been required under the old ordinance.

Benson said she expected many dog owners to resist complying with the ordinance, and most of the people interviewed strongly confirmed that suspicion.

"Even if I do get the $20 fine, I'll still keep letting my dog loose," one dog owner said. "You just can't make big dogs stay on a leash, unless you can run them for a long time; I just don't have the time."

success of the modernization of agriculture, industry, national defense and education, he said.

Lack of scientific manpower and of capital accumulation, plus internal resistance, the inability of the party to control the people and the increasing size of the population are all obstacles to modernizing China, he said.

Deng hopes to modernize China by reversing the emphasis on heavy industry of past years, Chi said. Now agriculture and light industry will take precedence over heavy industry.

Deng also is rearranging China's power structure. "There is a firm commitment to transferring power down to lower echelons," Chi said.

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?"
 Psalms 2:1 and Acts 4:25

"BUT MOSES STOOD UP AND HELPED THEM!" — Exodus 2:17. One day Moses left his home, the palace of the King, and took a trip to the land of Midian. He left and traveled in great haste as if something was after him — and there was! Doubtless being very tired from his forced marches and hasty trip, he sat down to rest by a well in the land of Midian.

After a while seven young women, sisters came and began to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father's flock. "And the shepherds came and drove them away (doubtless to take the water for their own sheep and save themselves a good deal of work) but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock." This was one time these miserable wretches did not get by with their "dirty deed." — Wonder if I would not have been afraid to "stand up and help" for fear the shepherds would "gang up on me" and beat me up? Moses' courage and kindness paid off quickly and resulted in him getting a home, a job, and a wife!

"MISERABLE WRETCHES" and "DIRTY DEEDS" and kindred words come to mind when I hear and read of the hold-up man robbing a pedestrian, a parking meter, a bank of their money, or a woman of her virtue, etc., etc. Men, women, and now even children, made in the image of God Almighty who are so debased and fallen so low that they refuse to strive to work and live by "the sweat of their brow" as God commanded, but choose to go about preying on the fruits of men and women who fear God and seek with His help to pay their own way through life in judgment, in this category belong not only the gross criminals, but those preachers, teachers, politicians, and voters who tell us the government or somebody ought to support and guarantee every man an income to live on, regardless of his character, industry, or lack of either or both!

If you are a true Christian you ought to end and will be preaching by word and conduct such as: "GOD SHALL REWARD EVERY MAN ACCORDING TO HIS WORK — IF ANY MAN PROVIDE NOT FOR HIS OWN HE HATH DENIED THE FAITH, AND IS WORSE THAN AN INFIDEL — IF A MAN WON'T WORK, DON'T LET HIM EAT — GO LABOR ON, SPEND, AND BE SPENT, IT IS THE WAY THE MASTER WENT!" Our neglect and rejection of these truths is probably back of the action of the woman's son who "has went against God" as well as the cause of other sons and daughters and parents and Uncle Sam turning their back on God, thinking He is dead! Unless we turn from such folly there will be "hell to pay" — in fact we have already begun to pay!

"BUT MOSES STOOD UP AND HELPED THEM" — helped those who were being cheated out of the rightful fruits of their labor.
