By R.L. BYNUM

When N.C. State and North Carolina compete in any sport, a heated battle is bound to result, and swimming is no exception. But when the event is a swimming meet that throws together a pair of undefeated women's teams and two powerful men's squads, be prepared for all-out war.

State is perennially the dominating force in ACC men's swimming, having lost only once in conference competition since 1970. The Tar Heels beat State in Chapel Hill last season 58-55, breaking

The Wolfpack has continued its mastery

ference mark this year. When Carolina who feel like they're just as good as State. travels to Raleigh Saturday, expect to see a fired-up State team with revenge on its

On the other hand, the Tar Heels will be just as determined, as they aim to tie the Pack for the regular season ACC title. Carolina is 3-1 after being upset by Virginia two weeks ago.

Carolina's men had an open date last weekend, so they have had a while to think about the loss.

"It may have taught us a lesson," said junior Dave Hansen. "We were pretty lackadaisical because we were mentally not up for the meet."

Getting up for the State meet should be no problem for the 7-2 Tar Heels,

"We've beaten tough teams like South Carolina and Clemson; those were really big wins," said backstroker Eric Ericson. "I think we can handle State, They've lost a couple of guys since last year."

Despite the personnel losses, State has suffered just one dual-meet defeat this season, falling to Miami of Florida.

For the women, their meet might be even more competitive than the men's

The meet will boast the nation's best performers in seven events. For Carolina, Sue Walsh is tops in the 50- and 100-yard backstroke, while Carolina's 200-freestyle team has turned in the fastest time in the nation. State's time is second.

For the Wolfpack, Patty Waters is best in the 50- and 100-yard breaststroke, while Beth Learn is the nation's best in the 100-butterfly. In addition, State's 200-medley relay team has the nation's best time, with Carolina second.

"The women's meet will be one of the four or five best dual meets in the country this year," Coach Frank Comfort said. "It should come down to the last relay and every event will be crucial."

Carolina's women also will have revenge in mind as they try to avenge last season's one-point loss to State.

Walsh said combining that with the rivalry had psyched up the team. "I have never swum against State before," the freshman said. "But I think the rivalry may be more intense in swimming (than in other sports). Beating State isn't our main purpose in the season, but it is a big meet."

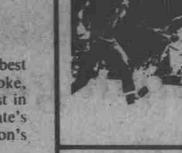

The women will be trying to guard against the kind of off meet that the men experienced at Virginia.

"It's like last year when the team had high hope of beating South Carolina and lost," Walsh said. "Frank (Comfort) keeps reminding us of that meet and telling us that the best team on paper doesn't always win."

The action begins at 1 p.m. with the women's meet, to be followed by the men's contest at 3:30 p.m.

P.O. BOX 405 DECATUR, GEORGIA 30031

1980 Beer Brewed by Miller Brewing Co., Milwaukee, Wis

Sports

Men's golf team goes to Florida

to open season

From staff reports

The North Carolina men's golf team opens its season with a five-man squad entered in the 21-team Gator Invitational today in Gainesville, Fla.

Leading Coach Devon Brouse's team in the 54-hole event will be senior Frank Fuhrer, an All-Atlantic Coast Conference and honorable mention All-America pick last year. The other starters will be juniors John Spelman, Mike West, David Whitfield and Dave Pesacov, a junior-college transfer from Palm Beach Junior College in Florida.

Among the competition in Gainesville will be ACC rivals Duke and N.C. State and national powers Ohio State, Florida State and host Florida. Carolina was successful in this tournament last year, finishing sixth out of 22 teams.

The Gator Invitational begins a 14event season for the Tar Heels which is highlighted by the Tar Heel Invitational and the ACC Tournament in April followed by the Chris Schenkel Intercollegiate in Statesboro, Ga.

The North Carolina wrestling team has back-to-back meets this weekend as it nears the completion of its regular season. The Tar Heels are at home against Virginia at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Carmichael Auditorium and then take on Appalachian State Sunday in

The Cavaliers gave Carolina a tough fight last year before losing 23-17 and UNC coach Bill Lam said the Tar Heels must take care not to take them too lightly.

UNC's Frank Fuhrer ... golfers open season

"Last year we were beating everyone soundly," Lam said, "but then we wrestled Virginia and we needed a win from our heavyweight to beat them. Our wrestlers remember that and won't let it happen again."

The varsity match against Virginia will be preceded by a Jayvee meet against Davidson at 6 p.m. in Carmichael.

All-Around competitors Karen Kaiser, Diana Cates, Michelle Robinson and Tiffany Terranova lead the Carolina gymnasts into the Jacksonville Invitational in Jacksonville, Ala., Saturday.

Coach Ken Ourso's squad goes into the meet at 4-1 losing only to Maryland by less than a point.

Men's indoor track hosts Duke and Western Carolina at 11 a.m. in the Tin Can. After that tri-meet the women's team takes on St. Augustine and William

GWT "MIND SPA" RALLY

You now have the opportunity to hear in person one of today's most moving speakers, one of history's finest salesmen, one of our time's most controversial figures.

MR. GLENN W. TURNER Along with MR. RICHARD MAILMAN, a blind man with vision will be presenting an exciting seminar dealing with today's issues DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE! II VEIGHAD DVINEY

IF you would like more out of life than you are currently receiving and would like to gain inner drive and motivation and increase your productiv-

Attend: GWT "MIND SPA RALLY" $40.00 seminar fee Feb. 19 1 p.m.-

7 p.m. Raleigh Memorial Auditorium

For Reservations call Charley Perkins (919) 876-5009

THE Daily Crossword by Louis Sabin

33 Field event

announce

35 Trapper's

36 Altar

15 Sharp blows 16 Within:	37 Look one's	4
pref.	at	ı
17 Ducks	39 Ехсер
19 Indigo	40 Of mu
20 Gin's	sound
partner 21 Area for	43 Certai
pass com-	46 Latin
pletion	South
23 Tree	48 ey
25 Play a	49 Rage
guiter	51 Egg o 52 Like a	į
26 Deliverer 29 is present	jumpi
20 to present	Jump	í
Yesterday's P	uzzle Solv	g
	NAME OF TAXABLE PARTY.	8
	30	į
PHILL CON		ļ
WHIELER		į
EMIDITED	AVE	ĺ

ACROSS 1 Have deep

5 Gravy: Sp. 10 Rush

14 Pinnacle

21 Area for pass com- pletion 23 Tree 25 Play a guitar 26 Deliverer 29 is present	track men 48 Latin or South 48 — eyed 49 Rage 51 Egg cells 52 Like a gun jumper
Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

			ER	S E
MODIE A WOODE GAO BU MODIE			ER	R 5
emoneo Can Po Anci	wa.	AV	ER	S E
	ina .	DA	MIT	E
AUG N
	DICIT
E BILIU				Lab.
13731-013
	SILIL	50		bil
ATTILLA	153152	OR		ALC: N
	FED		UN	Œ.
DORF	DIELA		AIL
Build find build now to the	BIRTE		VI	III
RED	SAN		AC	E

NO-HE the moltours

56	- ball	26	Corru
	Bearing . Texas		Solo
	Ranger		Plays
-	Request Villain's	1000	Gold :

67 Barbara and Anthony

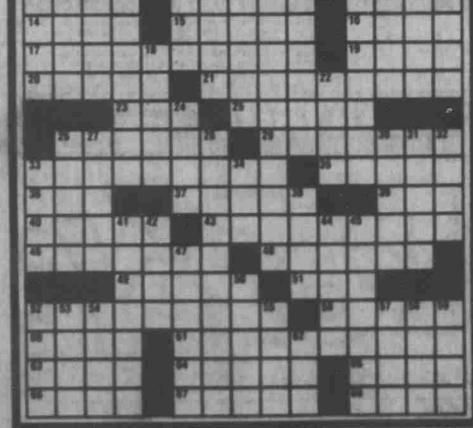

> 4 Come in for the starter 6 Ah woel

7 Great and 8 Fans 9 Classify 10 They tel 11 Karenina 12 Activate 13 Grail or See

18 Caesar's 22 Kookie 24 Extinct

34 Cut off 38 Broz 41 Arms cache 42 - D. (grad.

or Coe

© 1981 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

All Rights Reserved

Stuff Writer

State's 57-meet ACC win streak.

of ACC foes since then, with a 4-0 con-

"WHY DO THE HEATHEN RAGE?" Psalms 2:1 and Acts 4:25 There are places in the Bible where God says of some of His people they were worse than the heathen. Maybe blessed people whose God is the Lord?" What is your personal attitude and actions regarding God's Commandments and orders to man? God has condensed His orders and Commandments into what at times is called "The Ten Words." They were written "with the finger of God" on two tables of stones. God made Himself to be His own messenger to deliver them to mankind. Nearly four thousand years ago He came down from Heaven upon Mount Sinai, where several million men, women and children were gathered before the Mount. They beheld, and they heard as the mountain trembled and rocked with earthquake, cyclones, furious storms, all being enveloped in a great and terrible fire. When the noise and fury of the scene quieted, they heard the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire His Ten Words which He had written with His finger on two tables of stones, later given to Moses. God wrote, God that time is here now! Whose fault is it if we are not "that and children, and afterwards delivered the tables of stone Mother, father, preacher, teacher, priest, or whoever

spoke these words audibly to several million men, women takes upon himself the Name of God and calls himself a Christian: what is your attitude and actions towards the Commandments of the Almightly, the Ten Words? Do you respect them, observe them, teach them, and trust with all your heart the God who gave them?

Consider how generally it is true that God's gift to man of the Ten Words have been taken away. Are they in His Church being taught and lifted up, or being used for discipline? Have they been taken out of the home and family by neglect? The Government by law has taken them out of the public schools! Have they not been taken away so far as our sports and recreation life is concerned? What place has "Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy" therein? Has, "Thou shalt not covet anything that is thy neighbors" been lost and taken out of the labor unions' conduct? Surely the seventh Commandment, "Thou shalt not commit adultery" has been lost and rejected largely in our sex life! We might go on and on! It may be that the fruit of Sodom and Gomorrah is again ripe for harvesting for the fire of hell!

"Friends of God" need to go into action, stand up before God, and plead! Ten righteous souls in Sodom would have turned aside the fire and brimstone rained

Now comes Miller time.

from heaven!