

Tucker reappointed

Student Body President Scott Norberg reappointed Rochelle Tucker as student body treasurer Friday, subject to the approval of the Campus Governing Council. Tucker first took the job when Doug Shackelford resigned in September 1980. Norberg said Tucker's experience would be a great help to the council because all but one of the CGC members were new to the council. The treasurer's duties include acting as an adviser to CGC, serving as a member of the CGC Finance Committee and overseeing business transactions of the 29 student organizations funded by Student Government. Tucker said she decided to apply for treasurer again because she had worked with student organizations and gained experience in getting along with people.

She also said she had learned much about the different organizations on campus and their objectives through her work. Before working as student body treasurer, Tucker served as treasurer for the Black Student Movement. Tucker said she was excited about returning for the coming year. "I guess I must be a little insane, too." Norberg said he hoped to appoint an assistant treasurer Wednesday. The assistant treasurer will work day to day with Tucker to improve communication between Student Government and student organizations. Tucker's name will be brought before the CGC for approval after a resolution has been drafted by the Student Affairs Committee, Norberg said. — ELAINE McCLATCHEY

Heels

The Tar Heels simply could not muster the offensive strength needed to get back into the game, as everything they tried faltered in the face of the Hoosiers' defensive success. Joining Thomas in double figures for the game for Indiana were Randy Wittman with 16 points and Landon Turner with 12. Al Wood led Carolina with 18 points, and Sam Perkins added 11. Carolina's total of 50 was the lowest scored in a NCAA championship game since 1949. The first half was a tough physical battle that ended with the Hoosiers taking a 27-26 lead. Wittman gave them that lead on a jumper from the corner just before the buzzer. The half-time lead was Indiana's first since it had led 8-6 with more than 13 minutes left in the half. The Hoosiers opened the game very cold and did not score their first field goal, a tap-in by Steve Risley, until the 14:45 mark. Despite the Hoosiers' lack of offensive success in the game's opening moments, the Tar Heels only led 8-4 after Risley's basket. Indiana's man-to-man defense kept the game close while its offense sputtered. Carolina ran off eight straight points to open a 16-8 lead and kept the advantage until a Hoosier run of six evened the score at 20-20. The game stayed fairly even from then until halftime, Wittman's shot giving the Hoosiers the advantage as the half ended. Carolina outshot Indiana from the field in the first half, hitting 50 percent to only 37.9 percent for the Hoosiers. Carolina only made nine of 25 shots in the second half; however, Indiana hit 12 of 19. This year was the sixth time Smith had brought a UNC team to the Final Four and the third time the Tar Heels had made it to the final game since Smith has been coach. Carolina lost national championship games in 1977 and 1968, finished third in 1972 and finished fourth in 1967 and 1969. The Tar Heels ended an exceptional season at 29-3 and finished one game away from college basketball's biggest prize—in a year when Carolina had been picked to finish third in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The public is invited to take part in the discussion, which will be held in 300 New West.

News In Brief

Another child found dead

ATLANTA (AP) — The body of a child was discovered Monday afternoon in the Chattahoochee River southwest of here, but authorities investigating the slayings and disappearances of 22 black children said they have not determined the race nor sex of the child. Atlanta Police spokesman Roger Harris said members of the special task force investigating the 20 child slayings and two disappearances were dispatched to the scene in southwest Fulton County. Harris said authorities definitely had determined that the body discovered in the river was that of a child, but he said the age of the victim had not been determined.

Strike called off in Poland

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Independent labor leaders on Monday called off a nationwide strike that had threatened this Soviet bloc nation with its worst crisis in months of political and economic strife. The decision to suspend a walkout on Tuesday came after nearly seven hours of talks between Lech Walesa, leader of the independent union Solidarity, and Deputy Premier Mieczyslaw Rakowski. At issue were several union demands, especially punishment of those responsible for injuring three union members in a beating March 19 at Bydgoszcz. The government agreed to suspend the people responsible for the beating, Polish television said. "Common sense and moderation have won," said Walesa after the talks. Rakowski had warned that a strike could be "catastrophic" for the country. Warsaw Pact military maneuvers continued in and around Poland on Monday as well.

Search ends for condo victims

COCOA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Workers ended a search for victims in the rubble of a collapsed condominium early Monday after uncovering the body of a 22-year-old man who was the accident's 11th victim. The announcement that the search had ended dispelled fears that as many as five more bodies might be amid the twisted metal and broken concrete. Fire Chief Robert Walker, who had said several workers were unaccounted for based on queries from relatives, was unavailable for comment when the search was called off. The condominium collapsed during construction Friday. Officials said it was the worst construction accident in Florida history. Eleven hours after recovering the body, workers had cleared the rest of the rubble, and officials told rescue workers to go home.

Thai troops attack hijackers

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — Indonesian troops swarmed onto an Indonesian jetliner in early morning darkness Tuesday, killed four of the five hijackers who had held 55 people hostage, and after a three-minute gun battle set the captives free, a Thai spokesman said. One hostage, a pilot, was wounded. Indonesian officials said none of the hostages was killed. Two Americans were among those held. About 20 soldiers crossed the airfield, thrust ladders against the plane's fuselage and several of the men clambered onto the wings, witnesses said. The troops forced open two doors and burst inside. Witnesses said machine gun fire was heard. Hours earlier, the Thai government announced Indonesia had agreed to free 80 political prisoners, as demanded by the hijackers, who seized the plane in Indonesia on Saturday and diverted it here.
