Most aldermen in favor of televised meetings

By KAREN HAYWOOD Staff Writer

The Carrboro Board of Aldermen will vote on Tuesday whether to allow Alert Cable T.V. of Carrboro to televise the Board's meetings in the future.

Treff Faubert of Alert addressed the Town's Law and Finance Committee meeting Monday concerning televising the meetings. The committee recommended the idea to the Board of Aldermen.

If they are televised, the meetings will be on Alert's local access channel, ACTV 11. Assistant Town Manager Phillip Whitaker said if the Board approved the recommendation, televising of the meetings would hopefully begin with the Board's April 28 session.

Board members were generally in favor of televising the meetings. They said televised meetings would bring more people in contact with the town government.

"Personally I think it's a great idea," Alderman Ernie Patterson said. "It will help people understand the complex decisions we make."

Patterson said the Board held some executive sessions that could not be televised; but that regular meetings could be televised.

"Everyone is completely for it, especially (during) the public hearing processes," Patterson said.

Alderman Steve Rose said he too supported televised meetings. It is a way for citizens to keep themselves wellinformed, he said

"I think it's important that people participate as much as possible in their local government," he said.

Rose said that since citizens did not attend the Board of Aldermen's meetings which were open; televising them is a "way of bringing it into their homes."

Councilman Braxton Foushee said he thought televising the meetings was worthwhile, especially with budget hearings coming up soon.

Foushee said the meetings should be televised "at least a couple of times to see what kind of success we have. "If people won't come to us, it's one way to come to them. It's one more way to try to reach the people," he said.

Fellows

Senior Fellow Sally Sockwell said she would recommend the program because

"it brings you in contact with really diverse and interesting leaders and role models." Sockwell said being in the Fellows Program gave her a home base, which she said was important for a student on such a big campus.

The North Carolina Fellows Program at UNC, founded in 1967, is one of four similar programs in the state. As of now there are no famous Fellows hailing from this University.

"It's too early to ask for that to have happened," Garner said. Most of the graduated Fellows were on promising career paths, although many of the earliest Fellows had just finished graduate school.

Being a Fellow is "kind of an extra," Christiansen said, because of the obligation to participate.

Garner said Fellows needed to demonstrate a commitment to the program. "Fellows have to be self-starter types who interpret achievement through their roles in satisfying needs for people around them."

"We look for intelligence, motivation and social sensitivity," Garner said. But he does not think the Fellows program can create those qualities.

Straley: report leaked

A recent evaluation of Chapel Hill Town Manager Gene Shipman by the Chapel Hill Town Council should not have been released to local media representatives, council member Joe Straley said Thursday. Straley said the evaluation was made in an executive session of the Town Council.

"The mayor (Joe Nassif) took a composite of what was said in the executive session and wrote a draft of a letter that (the council was) to examine for accuracy," Straley said. "That letter was given to the council in private and secrecy. Apparently

But Straley emphasized the evaluation did not come about because of a lack of confidence in Shipman.

"The evaluation was not a routine report, but it was also not a big deal. From what we've seen of the letter, the town manager received a good score."

Straley said a detailed examination of all divisions of town government began early this year.

"We also decided to make evaluations of the town manager, the town clerk and the town attorney since the council specifically chooses these people for their positions." Results of the evaluations of the town clerk and town attorney were not available Thursday.

Polish invasion still possible

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)-Czechoslovakia's foreign minister denied Thursday that the Soviet bloc had decided to intervene in Poland. But he indicated intervention remained a possibility by drawing parallels between the Polish crisis and the events in his nation prior to the 1968 Soviet invasion.

"What am I to do, stand in Wenceslas Square and declare that we are not going enter Poland?" Bohuslav Chnoupek asked at a news conference during a break in the Czechoslovakian Communist Party Congress underway here.

The congress, attended from its opening Monday by Soviet President Leonid L. Brezhney, is expected to end today.

The Czechoslovakian news agency CTK said Brezhnev met Thursday with Husak and other top officials. Husak and Brezhvev exchanged views on international problems and condemed U.S. plans to deploy new medium-range nuclear missiles in Central Europe, CTK said.

Omar Bradley dead at 88

NEW YORK (AP)-Gen. Omar N. Bradley, who led a million U.S. soldiers in World War II and was the nation's last five-star general, died Wednesday evening at the age of 88.

Bradley, who was also the nation's first chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, died of a stroke at 7:30 p.m. at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center.

Bradley had remained on active duty and had been in the Army almost 70 years, more than any other U.S. serviceman, and spent the last 30 years as general of the Army.

Sam Goody's guilty of pirating

NEW YORK (AP)-The Sam Goody Corp. and Samuel Stolon, vice president of the record-store chain, were found guilty Thursday of dealing in $1 million worth of counterfeit tapes of such hit albums as "Grease" and "Saturday Night Fever."

A federal jury in Brooklyn returned the verdict after 42 hours of deliberation over 51/2 days.

The corporation, one of the nation's biggest retailers of records and tapes, could be fined up to $95,000 for three counts of copyright infringement and two counts of interstate shipment.
