J.H. I'll never forget our first year at Carolina; 1 never could have made it without you there to lean on . . . thank you for all the laughs and all the tears, I love you. 143! R.W.

TO AMUSING DRUSING, I don't want to leave! Oopsie doodles, engle ears, sneak up the middle and go freeze a . . . but is it life, art, or Memorex? May you always wear flip flops in the snow. Hey, it's been surreal. Love forever, roomie.

TOM AND GEORRY: You know, we don't always pass out at banquets-only when Jack's aro We take back all the short jokes and the Greensboro redneck jokes, and other obnoxiou things we may have said over the year. DTH wouldn't be the same without you. Tom-teach those limeys now to take 'good southern jinnglish' and Geoff-turn yourself in when you get to Atlanta, Remboy, John and Jesse are watching over you. Love, Rachel & Lee (% of the Unholy Trio)

HEY EJ, "How are ya?" You've gotten the ring, the shower, the dress. How the hell d'you get in this mess?! You're leaving us soon, no more us three. But still, we love you, our new bride to be. Furgy and Bowser.

CARLA, No one thinks I'm sentimental But I am. Remember the per-Bocas and Nevik? Like a tree 1 pine? Well it's changed to eskimos and typewriter friends. Ah, memories to be tucked away between yellowing pages to be taken out when we want to get away from the present. To end this posudo postic distribe goodbye for a year. Think of me. Fil miss you, Les.

LAURIE, KEVIN, TED, TINA, CHARLOTTE, KEITH, D., LILLY, KEITH W., SPARK, RAY-H's been real-at least that. Next year: more time alarms, hall shaving, pig pickins, fantastic voyages and general craziness (not to mention obscenity) and bad manners at the dinner table, perhaps? Love you all! Lynn.

TO MY THIRD FLOOR CONNOR CHILDREN. Thanks for being good kids and friends, Love ya lots, Momma Sheita, P.S. David too.

LIK, It's been one hell of a year, to late night talks, to stealing Donald, trips to Raleigh and your dress, to the beach and back. Boy I can wait till next year, Love, SJN.

J.J. Happy Birthday! Thanx for the flowers, the jokes, the no-names, the V.B. memories, the noise in your room, the great time during spring break and best of all, for keeping me away from the books! Enjoy the 2nd! Love, the illiterate foreigner daisy. P.S. Daisten for everyone.

MULLY, I really enjoyed getting to know you this year. You've been a special friend to me, Good luck in life. Everytime you see a cloud, remember -- it makes you think (of me)! Much love and many happy skhornes. Brick.

HEY STUDBOLT! (Yes, you Cham Edmiston) Guess since you're leaving it's about time to let Cheryl out of the closet. You promised to show us how you can tie knots in cherry stems, but you wimped out on us. What happened to you-yo used to be so nice! Don't forget all the good tim we had in the backseat. See You in Malibu-thanks for being the kind of action group teader we'd have a crush on. Love always, Jana and Penny.

CHAMBONE, ROSCOE, MULLY AND VAL-II's been great getting to know you! Thanks for all the help you pulled 3 freshmen through their first big year. We're gonna miss you next year. Mully-keep your head in the clouds, and Valerie-rar! Cham-keep an eye on your wcases and Roscoe-no skhomes by the mill ponds! Love, Janadu, Penny-guru, and Rick tool

JOHN, Thanks for keeping me company at night.

KAREN G. "When we grow older with walking <sup>1</sup> canes and hair of gray," Please keep in touch <sup>1</sup> much love and luck Barb.

DR. SALEMI AND DR. OTIS GRAHAM. Thank you for your intellectual stimulation. You caused me to reach mental highs. A devoted ex-student. Barbara Huffman.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Bonette, Petite, L.C., and Mommy. Lav ya B.R.

JULIE, Thank you for a great, memorable year. Have a summer to match, but remember it will only get better when you go to the moontans.

Love, MWD and storter and To antisoun and a PATTY PEE -Here's to you for putting up with me for 4 whole years! I'm gomna miss you next year more than you could ever know. Please let's keep in touch. I Love Yal Lisa Rulus.

LYNN: Drop-add, ticket line, State game, stranger mixer, dances, skating, shaggin, Bible studying. Thanks for all the great times and for sharing your faith. Love ya, Terry.

D. SHAW, Thanks for sparking our interest in the world of media analysis and study, brightening our conversations and enhancing our sleep. Your Jill disciples.

DEAR JOHN Here it is. Your own personal. Have a great birthday May 4th, a great summer, and remember to carry your keys. Love Lorrie.

LINDA, BOB, BEN, MARGARET, SHERRI, KAY ANN, Greg, Lynn: Thanks for being there when I needed you and for helping me grow. Love always, Terry.

FARIBA-Here is the personal you requested, Remember the Nasis and bashetball? Remember all the wild and crany times. There are more to come. Have a great summer. Thunderbolt.

MISTER PARKER. Psych 30 was a trip. Poor Dr. Johnson. You made it worthwhile. May 12th we'll blow it out. Know any jokes? Lets have an ice fight! Love Red.

TO ALL THE GIRLS ON THIRD FLOOR CONNOR: You've made it great for this R.A. Study hard; have a good summer; take care. Love Lorrie

KIM Thank you for a wonderful year. You are, without a doubt, the greatest girl in the world. Love, Milse,

PA BENCH PEOPLE-Where do 1 start? I don't have enough money to list all the wild and crazy times. As a matter of fact, I don't clearly remember all of them. But, Jacksonville, Houston, Ocean Isle, 98, Chain Gangs Bench parties, Beach parties, road trips, and all the rest of the wildness made my 4 short years here the best of life! I just feel sorry for those graduating that didn't have the opportunity to life on THIRD FLOOR MORRISON. Keep up the tradition...,Fil be back. Good-bye. --Hayes.

MARK-You're the greatest! Thank you for being; my best big brother and closest friend. Graduation can't change that. You can't get rid of me that easily! Love always, Penny.

Thug, take it easy this summer. You gotta eave it up for sant your. But, do try to raise your wise tolerance. Noe quester' is vida espanol. (3 hope I said that right.) Dunber.

FATHER BOB-We may leave here, but the pence and love we have gotten from you and from each other remains always. Thanks to you and love always. ASF.
