Campus

The Court Jester at 7 and 9:30 today in the Union Auditorium. Danny Kaye stars as a jester who gets involved in romance, court intrigue and a deadly joust. With Basil Rathbone and Mildred Natwick. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

Every Man For Himself at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Friday in the Union Auditorium. Godard's film examines the relationship between love and work by looking at the lives of a filmmaker, his girlfriend and a prostitute. Every Man does this while always commenting upon the nature of film itself with an ingenious use of stop motion photography. Admission $1.

Intolerance at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Great Hall. D.W. Griffith's spectacular film spans the history of the world by interweaving four different stories of man's inhumanity to man and love's struggle throughout the ages. With Lillian Gish. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

La Religieuse (The Nun) at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Sunday in the Union Auditorium. Jacques Rivette's film is based on Diderot's novel about a young woman forced to join a convent against her will. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.

Some Like It Hot at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Wednesday in the Union Auditorium. Billy Wilder's comedy stars Jack Lemmon, Tony Curtis and Marilyn Monroe in a farce about two Chicago musicians who witness the St. Valentine's Day Massacre and flee to join an all-woman band. Admission by UNC student ID or Union privilege card.
