

Grisman, Skaggs play fine country concert

Diverse styles of music including the bluegrass of Bill Monroe, the Texas swing of Bob Wills and the string jazz of Django Reinhart met Thursday night in Memorial Hall and were harmoniously blended in a concert that featured the David Grisman Quartet and the Ricky Skaggs Band.

The crowd was nearly as diverse as the music played: Longhairs and short-hairs alike turned out for this enjoyable evening. There seemed to be as many people there to see Skaggs as there were to see Grisman, which is unusual for an opening act at a concert.

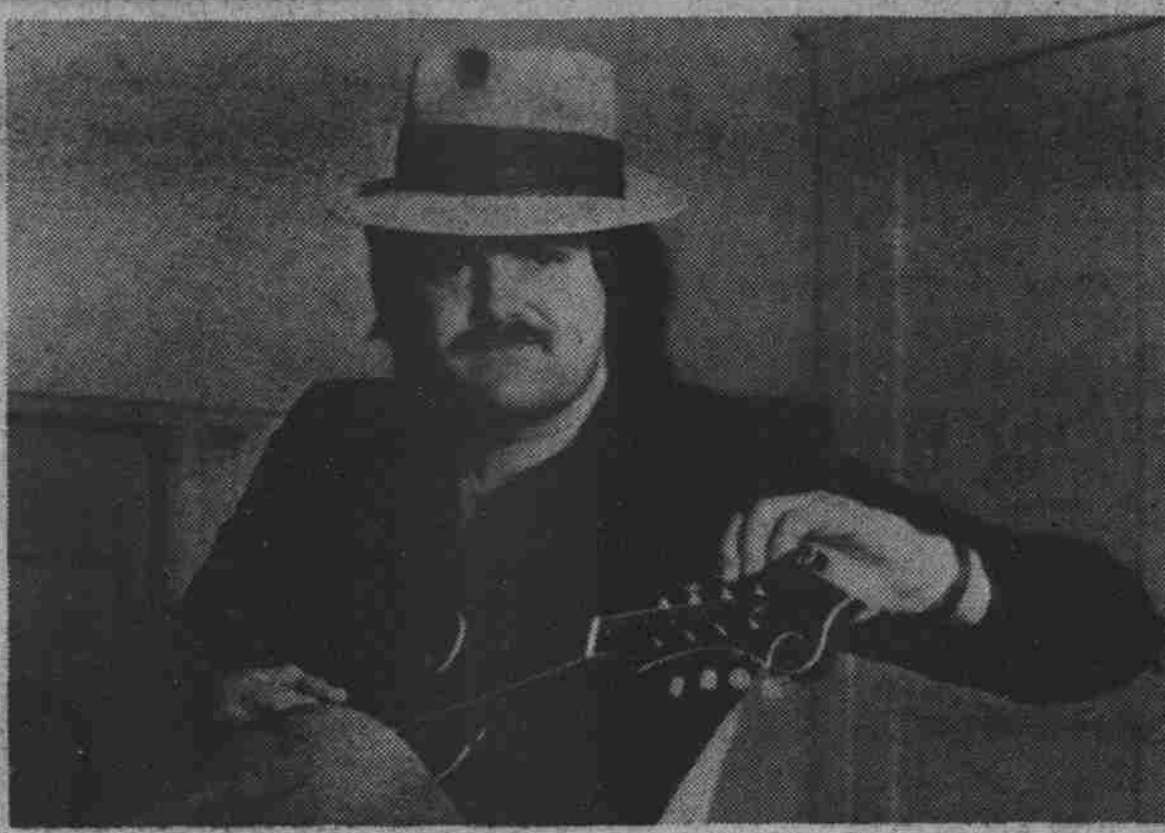

But Skaggs is far from a typical opening act. Most opening acts are unpolished bunches of newcomers who've had a couple of hit records, but Skaggs' band is as tight and professional as any in country music today. After backing Emmylou Harris for several years, Skaggs decided to go out on his own this year, and after a few months on the road he ranks with Willie Nelson, Merle Haggard and Harris at the top of the country-music field. But his approach to music is somewhat different; he reaches back to old-time tunes and updates them in his own special way.

As could be heard Thursday in such standards as "Don't Get Above Your Raisin'," "Sweet Temptation," "Waitin' For The Sun To Shine" and others, Skaggs displayed his phenomenal musical ability on the guitar, fiddle and mandocaster. But perhaps the finest instrument he played was his voice, which was light and had just a touch of the rural in it.

The other band members were just as accomplished as Skaggs: fiddler Bobby Hicks, Bruce Boulton on steel guitar, Jesse Chambers on bass, Rodney Price on drums, Mickey Merritt on piano and Ray Flacke on lead guitar.

After a long intermission, David Grisman and his group, who are becoming something of a Chapel Hill fixture, performed several enjoyable pieces of dawg music in sharp contrast to what Skaggs had done earlier. Where Skaggs is pure updated country, Grisman's music is a mixture of several different styles, most evidently swing jazz and bluegrass. And his music require a bit more concentration to be appreciated than than of Skaggs, which is not to say it's better,

Ricky Skaggs performed in Memorial Hall last week ... played better than a typical opening act just different. Displaying some expert mandolin technique, Grisman was equalled by the fantastic playing of the members of his ensemble: Mike Marshall on violin and mandolin, Rob Wasserman on bass and Mark O'Connor on guitar and violin. Grisman did something rare in concerts, giving each of his musicians a solo piece to display their ample talents.

Grisman and his quartet were joined for two encores by Ricky Skaggs and Bobby Hicks — one song, "Till The End Of The World Rolls 'Round," featured the rare treat of hearing Grisman sing — that brought a rousing end to a fantastic evening of new directions in country music.

— TOM MOORE

Campus Calendar

Public service announcements must be turned into the box outside DTH office in the Carolina Union by noon if they are to run the next day. Each item will be run at least twice.

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

Voter Registration is from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Chapel Hill Municipal Building at 306 N. Columbia Street, and at the Carrboro Town Hall on West Main Street. Deadline is Oct. 7.

Applicants for at-large positions of the Media Board and for business manager of The Alchemist must attend the board's meeting at 5:00 p.m. in 400 New East.

The UNC Outing Club will meet at 7 p.m. in the Union. New members are welcome.

The first interclass meeting for the Campus Y Historical Program will be at 7:30 p.m. in 08 Peabody Hall.

The Astronomy Club and SOARS will meet at 6:45 p.m. in 247 Phillips Hall. Voyager 1 slides of Saturn will be shown. Info about our second Shuttle Launch and Fun, Mountain Field trips will be available.

We welcome all people interested in Dungeons and Dragons to the UNC-CH Dungeons and Dragons Club meeting at 7 p.m. in 224 Union. The topic of the meeting is finding/choosing a D&D campaign to play in.

The Baptist Student Union will have a Bible Study at 7 p.m. at the Battle House.

Professor Rachelle Alterman (visiting associate professor of City and Regional Planning) will speak at noon in 207 Hamilton Hall on "Implementation Analysis in Urban and Regional Planning: Israeli Planning as an Example."

Attention Forum Committee! There will be a Forum meeting at 7:30 p.m. in 314 Greenlaw Hall.

Practice Interview sessions with a counselor will be held from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and from 2 to 4 p.m. Call or drop by 211 Hanes Hall to make an appointment for a one-hour session, 962-6507. Sessions involve videotaping and critique of a practice interview.

The UNC Media Board will meet at 5 p.m. in 400 New East.

The Campus Governing Council will meet at 7 p.m. in T-F Carroll. Copies of the Constitution are in CCG members' boxes.

Do you sail? The UNC sailing team begins practice at 3 p.m. at University Lake. Anyone is welcome to participate; our first regatta is this weekend at Davidson.

The Hillier Religious Committee meets at 8 p.m. at the Hillier House, 210 W. Cameron Ave. All are invited. For more information call 942-4877.

The Ecumenical Student Group will meet at 4 p.m. at the Campus Y for an organizational meeting.

actually, CHEC provides an informative, informal discussion and slide presentation of contraception.

Association for Women Students will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 207 Union. All interested persons are invited to come.

The UNC Young Democrats will present Ed Kenfrow at their regular bimonthly meeting at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Union.

Historical professor of modern history Michael E. Howard of Oxford University discusses "Arms Races and the Causes of War" at 4 p.m. Tuesday in Person Hall. The discussion is sponsored by the Department of History and Curriculum in Peace, War and Defense.

UNC College Republicans will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 211 Union. Mac Converse, chairman of the Orange County GOP, will be guest speaker.

Students who participated in the Pre-Career Experience Program last year should attend an orientation meeting to register again. Schedules for the meetings are available in Nash Hall.

The next meeting is at 2 p.m. Wednesday in 106 Gardner Hall. History majors and other interested students who would like to become members of the Undergraduate History Association should meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in 569 Hamilton Hall. We will elect officers and discuss possible programs.

There will be an organizational meeting of the Undergraduate Political Science Association at 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Union South Gallery Meeting Room. All political science majors and other interested people are welcome.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Do you live in Carrboro? We need to find and count you. Census Days thru today. Call Town Hall at 942-8341 if you are not contacted by today.

Get your Freshman Register! On sale at the Alumni House (next to Carolina Inn) this week between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The UNC Water Polo Club practices 8:30-10 p.m. Monday and Wednesday at the indoor pool and 6-8 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday at the outdoor pool. All interested persons are welcome.

Pre-Med/Pre-Dent/Pre-Vet Students: Come to an interviewing workshop at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Be prepared for your professional school interviews. Sign up at 312 Shoemaker Building.

Interfraternity: All IM fraternity managers please contact Assistant IM-Roc Director Janis Matson regarding vote in changing fraternity point system.

Schedule an appointment for the Bloodmobile Thursday in Morehead Collier. Call 962-6560 by Wednesday.

Voter registration today from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Chapel Hill Municipal Building, 306 North Columbia Street, and Carrboro Town Hall, West Main Street. Deadline is Oct. 7.

Intramurals: Play starts today in team tennis and "Napoleon" basketball tournaments. Archery deadline has been extended to Thursday.

University Counseling Center, Nash Hall, will be open additional hours every Monday evening 6-9 p.m. Call for appointment with a counselor or browse in information library. Call 962-2175 for further information.

GRE (Graduate Record Examination), Oct. 17. Applications postmarked by Sept. Thursday, $24. Additional info for late registration, Sept. 18-22. Applications available in 101 Nash Hall.

The Human Sexuality Information and Counseling Service is seeking counselors. Applications are available until Friday in Suite B of the Union or at the Union desk.

Apply Now: The Big Buddy Program is still accepting applications for Big Buddies. We will start a waiting list Wednesday. Come by room 102 of the Campus Y Building.

Ushers needed for FRC's production of The Front Page. See the play for free by signing up to usher. Performances are Tuesday through Sept. 27. For instructions, see the sign-up sheet, 203 Graham Memorial.

Internships in state government for the fall semester are offered by the N.C. Internship Program. Applications deadline is Friday. Get details at the University Counseling Center, Nash Hall, 962-2175.

Everyone in the Chapel Hill area gets "A Chance to Dance!" this fall when Jacki Sorenson's Aerobic Dancing classes begin today. Classes meet twice a week for 12 weeks in a variety of locations. Registration is in progress. For information about class times and locations, call Aerobic Dancing at 919/781-0838.

Amnesty International, the Nobel prize winning Human Rights organization, has a Chapel Hill chapter, meeting the first Monday of each month. Come find out how you can help at 8 p.m. Monday in the Newman Center. New members are welcome.

Anyone interested in working with the RHA Newsletter, please come by the RHA office in Suite B of the Union.

COMING EVENTS

"Habakkuk," an award-winning multimedia presentation examining the role of God in a violent world, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. through Thursday in Great Hall. The film is sponsored by Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship; a $2 donation will be accepted.

Attention: Executive Branch Leaders (previously Student Government representatives). There will be an organizational meeting from 6-7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 100 Hamilton Hall.

C.A. Dillon School for Juvenile Delinquents needs volunteers! We're having an organizational meeting for everyone interested at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday in 206 Union. Please come, we need you.

There will be a Graduate Student Bible Study at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Baptist Student Union.

The UNC Racquetball Club will meet 6-8 p.m. Tuesday at the Woollen Gym Courts for play. Beginners meet from 6-7 p.m., and intermediate players meet 7-8 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

The North Carolina Student Legislature (NCSL) will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 224 Union. The September state NCSL meeting at UNC-Greensboro will be discussed. All undergraduates interested in politics and government are invited.

The UNC-CH Ballroom Dance Club will hold its first meeting of the year at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 07 Fetzer Gym. Newcomers of all dancing abilities are welcome and encouraged to come.

The Pre-Professional Health Society will hold its first meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday in 106 Berryhill Hall. Anyone interested in a health field is invited to come.

The Christian Science Organization at UNC will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday in 205 Union. All are welcome to attend.

The executive committee of Alpha Epsilon Delta will meet at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in the NCMH cafeteria.

The Contraceptive Health Education Clinic, now meeting at 7 p.m. every Tuesday in the Health Education Section of the Student Health Service and at 3:30 p.m. every Thursday in Frank Porter Graham Lounge of the Union, is geared to help UNC students to be responsible partners in regular coexisting game from page 1

Twenty-eight second-quarter points by the Tar Heels tied a school record for points in a quarter and put the game out of reach at the half.

But UNC coach Dick Crum elected to go with his starters in the second half.

"We kept the first team in for the third quarter because we were concerned about conditioning," Crum said. "This was one of the hottest days yet, and we wanted them to get used to it."

"Never did I once feel sorry for them," Elkins said of the Pirates, who are no longer in UNC's scheduling plans. "I think everybody on the team would say the same thing."

Earlier in the week, ECU coaches were charged with spying on UNC practices through the windows of the Law School library.

"You have to laugh at it," Drechsler said. "We have more things to worry about than who's in the law library."

"I know they'd love to get another shot at us," he said. "I thought they would be more fired up than they were, but I guess we got them down so early. This shows how explosive we can be. I didn't anticipate it."

"We have to be careful," Crum said. "It's easy to take something like this for granted." The Tar Heels host Miami of Ohio Saturday.

LIVE! at CAESARS PALACE Las Vegas

WORLD WELTERWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

Wednesday, September 16, 1981

Live on Closed Circuit TV at:
CAMERON INDOOR STADIUM
DUKE UNIVERSITY Durham

Tickets Available
Cameron Indoor Stadium Athletic Attic
Evans Shoe Repair &
Chicken Hut No. 1 University Mall
Durham Sporting Goods Chapel Hill

ASK ABOUT OUR SEPTEMBER SPECIAL

CALL TRIANGLE COMMUNITIES

967-2231
967-2234

Use The Daily Tar Heel Classifieds!!