

Teach-in to reveal FBI injustices

Information directed toward law students

By PAM DUNCAN
DTH Staff Writer

A teach-in protest against FBI recruiters in the UNC School of Law is scheduled for 3 p.m. today in the lobby of Van Hecke-Wettach Hall.

The purpose of the teach-in is to educate the public about the past offenses of the FBI in an attempt to discourage law students from working for the FBI, said Alex Charns, chairman of the UNC Coalition for Social Justice, which is sponsoring the teach-in.

"We hope it does change people's minds about working for the FBI," Charns said. "The people who are apathetic or who haven't heard what the FBI recently is doing, need to be educated about what the FBI has done, what they are doing, and what they probably intend to do in the future."

Charns said that some FBI activities which the teach-in would protest are the Bureau's past record of involvement in spying on students and attorneys, their complicity in certain murders, their organization of Ku Klux Klan chapters in various states, and their targeting of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. during the 1960s.

The speakers at the teach-in will be Arthur Finn, former physician for the Black Panther Party, who will speak on illegal wiretapping by the FBI; Earl Tockman, an attorney who will speak about proposed legislation changes by the FBI intended to broaden and enhance their powers; and several law students and law professors from UNC.

David Glarrow, assistant professor of political science and author of The FBI and Martin Luther King, Jr.: From "Solo" to Memphis, who had planned to speak at the protest, said in a written statement that "the 'new' FBI remained a rigidly hierarchical and indeed almost military-like institution."

Glarrow added, "Anyone who has had the benefit of a first-rate legal education should think long and hard before seriously considering the idea of joining the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

The teach-in protest is endorsed by the N.C. chapter of the National Lawyers Guild and by the Legal Alliance for Greensboro Justice.

News in Brief

Reagan warns Soviet president

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — President Ronald Reagan has sent Soviet President Leonid I. Brezhnev a letter denouncing an "unremitting and comprehensive" military buildup by the Soviets, but expressing a willingness to "establish a framework of mutual respect" with Moscow.

The letter was sent Monday and delivered Tuesday on the eve of wide-ranging discussions scheduled here today between Secretary of State Alexander M. Haig Jr. and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

While the text of the letter was not released, Dean Fischer, a State Department spokesman, did provide reporters with a long statement he said was based on the letter.

It quoted Reagan as saying the United States is "hopeful we can succeed in establishing a framework of mutual respect for each others' interests and for mutual restraint in the resolution of international crises."

The president also said the United States was fully prepared to take into account legitimate Soviet interests if Moscow was willing to do the same with American interests.

Springboks will play in Albany

NEW YORK (AP) — An appeals court today refused to interfere with a judge's ruling that cleared the way for a South African rugby team to play in Albany Tuesday night. The court acted hours after a bomb exploded near the office of the game's cosponsor in Schenectady.

However, the 2nd U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said the state was not prevented from taking steps, "including cancellation or termination of the game, to prevent any dangerous situation from getting out of control."

The South African team, Springboks, have been the targets of recent anti-apartheid protests and state officials had asked for the match to be called off for fear of violence.

Peter Yellin, state deputy first assistant attorney general, made plans to fly to Washington to ask the U.S. Supreme Court to block the match between the South African Springboks and Eastern Rugby Union of Schenectady.

for the record

In Monday's article, "Hunt to be appointed to court," UNC Student Legal Services advisor Dorothy Bernholz was identified as a partner in the same legal firm as Rep. Trish Hunt, D-Orange. Bernholz has never been a partner in that firm, the law offices of Coleman, Bernholz, Dickerson, Bernholz, Gledhill & Hargrave. The DTH regrets the error.

The Bottom Line takes a lighter look at the news. Look for it every Tuesday and Thursday on the editorial page of The Daily Tar Heel.
