Spyro Gyra to promote album

Spyro Gyra, the highly acclaimed jazz fusion band, will perform at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall Sunday, Nov. 1.

Spyro Gyra is on tour promoting its latest album, Freetime. This is an innovative album for the group because they perform one song without drums and record another in 7/4 time.

Morning Dance was the group's second album, its first under an established label, and it went gold. Billboard awarded Spyro Gyra the number two instrumental/pop group for singles award with the title cut from this album.

Their second album for MCA, Catching the Sun, held the number one position on Billboard's jazz charts for eight weeks.

Tickets are on sale now at the Union Box Office for $7.50. All seats are reserved.
