

Grace Slick, Starship to perform on Nov. 8

By LEAH TALLEY
DTH Staff Writer

Jefferson Starship is coming to Chapel Hill at 8 p.m. Nov. 8 in Carmichael Auditorium — and Grace Slick will be here.

The original band, Jefferson Airplane, was formed in 1965 by vocalist Marty Balin and guitarist Paul Kantner. In 1966, Grace Slick joined the band as lead vocalist.

With its second album, Surrealistic Pillow, Jefferson Airplane became known as one of the top San Francisco sound bands. This album sold more than 1 million copies, and two cuts, "Somebody to Love" and Grace Slick's psychedelic anthem "White Rabbit," were top 10 singles.

Jefferson Airplane proved to be a commercial and critical success. Crown of Creation and Holocaust are both gold albums. And in 1968, the group appeared on the cover of Life. The following year, Jefferson Airplane played at the Woodstock Pop Festival.

Marty Balin left the group in 1971, and Jefferson Starship was created in 1974. Three of the original band members were included — Slick, Kantner and lead guitarist Peter Kaukonen. Dragonfly was this group's vinyl debut, and it was certified gold less than a year after its release.

Marty Balin rejoined Starship in 1975 and wrote some of the group's biggest hits, including "Miracles," "Count on Me" and "Runaway."

Grace Slick quit the band during its disastrous 1978 European tour, and drummer John Barbata was critically injured that year, forcing him too to leave Starship. Then Balin left the band, and the future of Jefferson Starship was doubtful.

But in 1979, the group eliminated questions of its demise with the release of Freedom at Point Zero. The album featured new drummer Aynsley Dunbar, formerly of Journey, and new lead vocalist Mickey Thomas, formerly of the Elvin Bishop band and best known for his vocals on "Fooled Around the Fell in Love."

Kantner was the only band member left from the original group to appear on Freedom at Point Zero. In a recent Rolling Stone interview, he commented on the new Jefferson Starship. "It's a big change, but we've changed from album to album, musically, ever since the Airplane," he said.

The appearance of Grace Slick on this tour is a treat to fans of the group's earlier work. She, along with Kantner, has been a Jefferson Airplane or Starship staple since the mid-1960s.

Tickets, now on sale at the Union Box Office, are $7.50 limited advance and $8.50 general admission.

Informal concert called success

KEVIN KIRK
DTH Staff Writer

"The experiment was a success," said Gene Carr, referring to the informal setting that characterized Wednesday night's classical concert in Great Hall.

Carr, Calvin Wiersma and Charles Floyd, on their fourth tour from Oberlin Music Institute, played to an audience seated at tables rather than in the usual row by row of an auditorium. The different atmosphere, aided by generous portions of bread and cheese provided by Broad Street, offered the chance to listen to the trio's music in a relaxed, enjoyable manner.

The three musicians seemed to enjoy the change also. From their first piece, Haydn's "Trio of Violin, Cello and Piano in G major," to the encore, "Mapleleaf Rag" by Scott Joplin, the three, especially Carr, maintained a friendly rapport with the crowd that only improved the already intimate setting.

The highlights of the program were the solo pieces. Violinist Wiersma displayed his skill with two very different works. Massenet's "Meditation" was presented with great feelings and emotion; from his performance it was easy to agree with him that the piece is one of his favorites.

Wiersma wasn't quite as successful with the second number, Kriesler's "Praeludium and Allegro," playing a bit flat through many of the quicker passages. But his rapid finger work on this difficult piece impressed the audience, making other small flaws seem insignificant.

Carr's selections for cello were an interesting change. Both songs were cello pieces from China, acquired after a tour through the country.

After intermission, Floyd ended the individual works with Chopin's "Ballad in G minor" and "Etude Opus 10, No. 1," on piano.

Chinese film to be shown

A Chinese movie about cultural revolution will be shown at 2 p.m. Saturday in 103 Berryhill Hall.

The film, which deals with the suffering of intellectuals and the struggle of the Red Guards during the Cultural Revolution, attracted a large audience at its debut last February in Taiwan.

But the realistic approach of this film, presenting the tragedies of two families, has aroused much controversy among the Chinese community.

In Hong Kong, the Movie Censorship Bureau prohibited the showing of the movie after its opening day because it said "the political nature in the film can be utilized for propaganda purposes."

Admission is free.

Campus Calendar

Public service announcements must be turned into the box outside DTH offices in the Carolina Union by noon if they are to run the next day. Each item will be run at least twice.

TODAY'S ACTIVITIES

1981 UNICEF greeting cards are on sale in 104 Campus Y. Come by between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. any Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday until Nov. 25.

A fashion show featuring candidates for Miss BSM will be held at 7 p.m. in Great Hall. The show will be followed by a masquerade night; so come and enjoy the music and refreshments.

"Dance Yourself to Fitness," a program about dancing as an aerobic exercise, will be given as a luncheon workshop at noon in 215 Union. Wear comfortable clothes and bring a friend.

The Carolina Gay Association presents a Halloween dance at 8 p.m. at the Community Church. BYOB, costumes are optional and maps are available at the CGA office.

Campus Crusade for Christ will hold its weekly meeting at 7 p.m. in 204 Union. Everyone is welcome.

Memorial services for Dr. Reginald Mason will be held at 11 a.m. at the Holy Infant Episcopal Church on Chestnut Street in Henderson.

Carolina Study Center and Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship present Dr. Edmund P. Clowery at 7 p.m. in Gerrard Hall. He will speak on "The People of God."

The BSM fashion show featuring candidates for Miss BSM will be held at 8 p.m. in Great Hall. The Fashion Show will be followed by a masquerade party from 10 p.m.-2 a.m. Wear a costume.

Chapel Thrift Committee applications are available in Suite C. Pick up and return applications by 5 p.m.

Deadline for applications for business manager for the Calendar is today. Applicants should submit a resume, letter of application and three letters of recommendation to the UNC Media Board, Box 13, Union.

Come one, come all to the Campus Y to sign up for the Director's Discus today. Professor Thomas Stump will read an eerie ghost story or two.

Anyone who is interested in a bus trip to the Maryland game is encouraged to go by the Union information desk and sign up. The cost is $40. For more information call the CAA office at 962-4307.

A reception for Jeffrey Beam will celebrate the publication of his first book, The Golden Legend, at 3 p.m. at Bull's Head Bookshop.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Applications for the Maya Anglor reception, sponsored by the Forum Committee on Nov. 10, are now available at the Union desk. They're due Monday so pick them up now.

Seniors — You can pick up your copy of the Senior Class Newsletter at the Union, the library, Y-Court and the Senior Class office in Suite A, 210-J of the Union.

GRE (Graduate Record Examinations), Dec. 12. Aptitude and Advanced Tests. $24 each, if postmarked by Friday. Ten-dollar late fee, Nov. 7-17. Next test is Feb. 6. December test date is preferred for Fall 1982 admission. Applications available in 101 Nash Hall.

LSAT (Law School Admission Test), Dec. 5. $18 basic fee, $20 Test Fee. If postmarked by Thursday. Fifteen-dollar late fee, Nov. 6-12. Next test date is Feb. 20, late for fall 1982. December test date is preferred. Applications available in 101 Nash Hall.

The Campus Y needs a logo. If you are a talented graphic artist, please submit a design. For more information, call Jim Smalley at the Campus Y office at 962-2333 or come by 102 Y Building.

Intramurals: Deadline today for entering intercollegiate water polo, the IM wrestling meeting, Co-Rec "Super Teams" competition and open handball tournament. Tomorrow is the Lifetime Leisure Golf Clinic at 10 a.m. at Finley Golf Course and UNC Hash Hound Harrier Run No. 1 at noon in front of Woolen Gym.

Are you interested in helping battered women? The YWCA Coalition for Battered Women is offering a 30-hour training program for men and women who would like to become volunteer advocates. The course will start Nov. 14 in Durham. Call the Orange County Women's Center at 968-4646 or the Durham YWCA at 688-4396 for further information.

Crew Club members, please call 962-1198.

Snow Skiing Course (PHYA 10) — Registration deadline is Wednesday, Nov. 11. All registrants must attend orientation meeting on this date at 7 p.m. in 109 Fetzer Gym. The $35 deposit will be collected. For more information call 962-2124 or 962-1357.

The School of Journalism's Diagnostic Writing Examination will be given at 4 p.m. Dec. 1, in 104 Howell Hall. Students may not take JOUR 33-Newswriting unless they have passed the DWE or have received a grade of at least C in ENGL 30-Advanced Expository Writing. Students planning to take the DWE must register for it with the School of Journalism receptionist Nov. 16-20 in 101 Howell Hall.

Senior Class Committee Members — Stop by the office to pick up Senior Class newsletters and Purdy's Halloween Party fliers to distribute. Thanks. Keep selling those T-shirts.

The New WELL (Wellness Education and Lifestyle Library) is now open 3:15-5:15 p.m. Monday-Thursday in the Health Education Suite of SHS. Drop by and get the most out of your SHS fees.

Applications for the 1982 orientation chairpersons are available at the Union desk and in 08 Steele Building. Applications are due in 08 Steele Building today.

Industrial relations majors: Are you in need of information but can't get an adviser's appointment? Come for peer advising 10 a.m.-2 p.m. today in the Arts and Science Lobby of third floor Steele Building.

PQT (Professional Qualification Test), Nov. 14. Applications must be received by Saturday in Berkeley, Calif. No fee required. This is a once-a-year test for liberal arts majors interested in working for the National Security Agency. Applications available in 101 Nash Hall.

Scholarships are available for the 1982-1983 academic year in Germany. Applications for German Academic Exchange Service scholarships can be obtained at the International Center. Students must have completed German 4 or its equivalent by the summer of 1982. German majors are ineligible; application deadline is Nov. 6.

Attention English majors: Sheets for making appointments with departmental advisers for pre-registration are posted on the bulletin board opposite 212 Greenlaw Hall.

Support ECOS newspaper recycling. Drop boxes are located at Alumni and Monogram buildings and behind Wilson Library.

The College of Arts and Sciences is now receiving applications for the annual competition for the Harry S Truman Foundation Scholarship. Winners in the national competition may be eligible to receive up to $5,000 annually for up to four years of undergraduate and graduate study. To be eligible as the University's two nominees, students must be currently sophomores and be juniors in the fall of 1982. They must have at least a B (3.0) quality-point average, must rank in the upper fourth of the sophomore class and must be willing to pursue an undergraduate and graduate major intended to lead to a career in local, state or federal government. Students interested in being considered as the University's nominees should contact Assistant Dean Lee Greene, College of Arts and Sciences, 319 Steele Building (962-1164) as soon as possible. The deadline for University applications is Monday.

The Poverty Action Committee meets at 4 p.m. each Thursday in Jim Smalley's office in the Campus Y building. Anyone interested in serving the needs of local poor is invited to attend.

The CHEC (Contraceptive Health Education Clinic) meeting at 3:30 p.m. every Thursday in the Frank Porter Graham Lounge of the Union is geared to help UNC students to be responsible partners in matters concerning sexuality. CHEC provides an informative, informal discussion and side presentation of contraception.

Fall Clearance Sale

20-40% OFF

Selected Group

- Shorts
- T-Shirts
- Sport Shirts
- Warmup Suits
- Athletic Shoes

University Square
(Next to Granville Towers)
133 W. Franklin St.

SECOND SOLE Open tonite 'til 8 pm 942-1078

COMING TO UNC:

ROSEY GRIER

Former football player, actor, singer, political activist and lecturer.

Monday, Nov. 2nd — 7:00 pm
Tuesday, Nov. 3rd — 7:00 pm
Gerrard Hall

RENT FROM $234

ASK ABOUT OUR

AUTUMN SPECIALS

CALL

TRIANGLE COMMUNITIES

967-2231
967-2234