Sig Ep softball tourney set for March 19

There are still a few slots open for the Sig Ep/Schlitz Marathon Softball Tournament, which is slated for Fri., March 19 on Ehringhaus IM fields, according to tourney coordinator Rusty Cumpston.

Entering teams must pay a fee of $30 to play, which will go to the Ronald McDonald House in Durham, Sig Ep's chosen charity.

"We are going to have a 32-team field comprising the best teams from all over the campus," Cumpston said. "Call it an early softball season showdown."

This 24-hour, double elimination early season showdown will culminate with a planned blow-out, compliments of Schlitz' local distributor. At this party, the winning team will receive a silver bowl, which will be displayed for the remainder of the year in the Woollen Gym IM trophy case.

Only currently enrolled students and current faculty-staff members of the University will be eligible, Cumpston said.

Other tournament rules are as follows:

American Softball Association rules will be used a protest committee will be at the fields at all times of play to handle all protests, including eligibility

there will be no unlimited substitution

Sig Ep fraternity members will officiate, two per game each team is required to bring two new "Dudley restricted flight" softballs to the tournament for each game, each team must furnish one new ball winning team will get the unused ball, losing team the used one starting times will be made known to all teams and a tournament schedule will be given to all teams a week before the tourney's start starting time is forfeit time if a team is not present seven players constitute a starting team each game will have a 60-minute time limit if play is not within the 60-minute limit, the next inning completed with one of the teams ahead will end the game

IM-Rec activities remain light with regular season basketball winding down, and playoffs starting Monday. Two Lifetime Leisure Activities Program clinics are offered within the week, self-defense tonight and yoga for jogging Wednesday night, March 3. Organizational meetings for softball team captains and MANDATORY clinics for perspective IM softball officials will be held next week. Softball begins the Monday after spring break (March 15).

IM-Rec's Fitness Class, "Use It and Lose It," which meets Mon., Wed. and Thurs., 5:30-7 p.m. in 112 Fetzer, is now a fitness club, with progress records kept for each participant. Usual schedule is 5:30-6 p.m., jogging and 6-7 p.m., toning exercises and stretching. There is no registration or fee required for the club, which is open to all students and those faculty-staff members with facility privilege cards obtained from Bynum Hall.

Entry deadlines for the final two faculty-staff IM program activities are due Fri., March 5. Faculty-staff members can participate in tennis singles, a regular season format, and team softball.

The Friday before spring break (March 5) also marks the deadline for entering the IM one-on-one basketball tournament, team racquetball and all-campus tennis play. The Sig Ep Softball Marathon, Jump rope for Heart, the inaugural Weekend Racquetball Tournament and the IM gymnastics meet all fall during the two weeks following spring break.

Perspective IM basketball playoffs scorekeepers meet today, 4:30 p.m. in the IM-Rec office. Monday begins a busy two-week basketball playoff schedule. Team captains should be sure their team has played at least four games and won at least two, to be eligible for playoff play, said Asst. IM-Rec Director Janis Matson. Captains with questions regarding this stipulation or the sportsmanship rating should contact Matson immediately.
