

Wrestlers ready for tournament

By S.L. PRICE
Assistant Sports Editor

This weekend's Atlantic Coast Conference wrestling tournament at Carmichael Auditorium should end with either the Tar Heels or N.C. State walking away with the championship. Both have dominated the ACC all season long. UNC's only conference losses were to the Wolfpack in a pair of nailbiters, 21-13 in Raleigh, 22-17 at home.

Coach Bill Lam's squad features the best line-up seen in Chapel Hill in years. Senior tri-captains Bob Monaghan, Dave Cooke and C.D. Mock form the backbone of Carolina's attack, and all three are favorites to win in their weight categories.

Monaghan, at 118 lbs., goes into the tourney sporting a 27-4 record, and he's coming off a 17-8 victory over State All-America Chris Wentz. Monaghan dropped 20 pounds to compete in the 118-lb. class, but he doesn't show it. He has the strength, endurance and ability to pour it on in the last minute, and he does so consistently.

In the 126-lb. class, Cooke enters the season stretch with last year's ACC crown and a second-place finish at the NCAAs behind him.

C.D. Mock, at 134 lbs., has savvy, endurance and a reputation. Ranked No. 2 nationally, he is undefeated with a 26-0 record. Look for him to dominate.

At 142 lbs., it's a tossup. Lam will either go with freshman Pete Mankowich or Tim Plott. Both are extremely tough, and Mankowich can come from behind and score a lot of points in a hurry.

Mike Elinsky is a question mark. At 150 lbs., this senior transfer from Auburn has had an up-and-down season, with a string of wins at the outset, and then losses at Navy and State. Lam said Elinsky can either win it all or not qualify this weekend. But Elinsky has wrestled well of late, and he doesn't surrender easily.

Bill Gaffney's weak spot is the first period, when he is on his feet. But when it comes to escapes or reversals in the down position, Gaffney (158 lbs) can move quickly and effectively.

All-America Jan Michaels is also favored to take top honors. The two-time ACC champ calls himself a tournament wrestler, and he consistently proves it. He has a slight tendency towards gearing himself for only the big matches, but that should work to his favor this weekend.

Lam also terms 177-lb. Robert Shriner as capable of grabbing first or not qualifying at all. Look for him to attempt an over-the-shoulder body slam — sometimes it works, sometimes it doesn't. But he's got the strength to pull it off.

At 190 lbs. and heavyweight, Steve Gibble and Tommy Gorry will wrestle for Carolina. Both can score when least expected, and Gorry, who has not beaten an ACC opponent this year, makes up for what he lacks in talent with gutsy enthusiasm.

N.C. State

Running with the Pack this season are a trio of defending conference champs — 126-lb. Chris Wentz is Cooke's main conference competition, 190-lb. Jerry Rodriguez is favored to repeat, and 400-lb. Tab Thacker does not move much, but his weight gives him an obvious advantage. Look also for 150-lb. Frank Castrignano, who has beaten and tied Elinsky this year, and Chris Mondragon, 17-3-2 at 158 lbs.

Clemson

The Tigers were expected to threaten the Tar Heel/Wolfpack stranglehold on the ACC this season, but began to fade and are now capable of taking two to three weight classes, tops. Especially strong in the upper weights, Clemson is led by 142-lb. All-America Steve Babyak; Mike Bell, 38-1 at 150 lbs., and 158-lb. Chris Bojanovic.

Virginia

"Virginia's not bad," Lam said prior to the Carolina-Virginia clash this year. "But I don't think they can go with us unless we're flat." The Wahoos posted a 6-8 and 1-4 record this year, but there are a few bright spots: Buddy Kerr will attempt to repeat as ACC champ at the wide-open 142, and Tim Wagner, an ACC titlist at 150, will give Mike Elinsky his toughest challenge. At 118, Jim Pagano finished with a 24-4 record and could be a surprise.

Maryland

Mark Dugan at 134 lbs. could cause trouble for Mock, but the only other grappler to watch is 177-lb. Dan Harvey, who has the potential to grab the title.

Duke

The Heels manhandled the Blue Devils 35-16 on Jan. 26, and nothing has changed. Their top spoiler could be 134-lb. Jake Cecere, with a 15-3-1 record. John Strong, at 177 lbs., works well in the down position, can move on his feet, and can pour on a lot of points in a pinch.

Georgia Tech

Top wrestler is 126-lb. Tom Krauser with a 17-4 record. As a team, the Yellowjackets are 4-8, 0-3. Nothing much to worry about here.

Times for the matches: 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Saturday for the first round and semi-final matches; noon, 2 and 3 p.m. on Sunday for consolation and championship finals.

"Team balance is very important," Lam said. "It will basically be a two-team race, with us and State, and all the others fighting for third."

"We've been going with two-a-days and the kids have a good attitude. Are we ready mentally? I think we are. But it's going to be real tight, real close."

Racquetball Club sponsors new event

The popularity of racquetball has soared in recent years. And like the sport it represents, the UNC Racquetball Club has also grown considerably in its two years at the University.

IMS and CLUBS

Jackie Blackburn

now," Pete Vrooman, club president, said. "You can expect between 20 and 30 players at practices."

While the club does compete against other collegiate racquetball teams, the primary objective of the UNC club is to build talent in the club.

"Racquetball is an easy game to pick up," Vrooman said. "But you have to realize it's a hard game to improve in. It's a challenge to improve. We (the club) try to give everyone competitive play."

Until January, club members did not have much opportunity to improve their game, using what few courts were available in Woolen Gym. The addition of 15 racquetball courts in Fetzer Gym has helped increase the size and talent of the club, last year's club president, Eric Plott, said.

"One of my goals as president was to build talent on the club," Plott said. "I felt I did that. The Fetzer courts helped. "We usually don't fare too well in tournaments. This year I think we'll be really strong. We're attracting good players from graduate schools."

For the past eight months, Plott has been preparing a new racquetball tournament, one of the largest in the area. The Eastern Seaboard Racquetball Invitational, which he hopes will become an annual event, is scheduled for April 16-18.

"The main purpose of the tournament is to create enthusiasm for racquetball," Plott said.

TARHEEL FOOTNOTES: All entries for the Eastern Seaboard Racquetball Invitational must be sent to Plott by March 26, along with a $10 entry fee.

Women's Lacrosse will have a Blue-White scrimmage at 2 p.m. Feb. 27 on Ehringhaus Field.

UNC Women's Rugby team defeated East Carolina 16-8 Saturday in Greenville, N.C.

An indoor field hockey tournament, featuring 12 area teams, will be held Feb. 27 at 3 p.m. in Woolen Gym. Contact coach Karen Shelton for more information.

Gymnasts vault past N.C. State

The North Carolina Gymnastics team raised its record to 8-2 with a victory over N.C. State Tuesday night in Carmichael Auditorium.

UNC scored 135.5 points to State's 128.5, but just as important as the win, the meet marked the final home appearance for senior co-captains Diana Cates and Tiffany Terranova.

"They (Cates and Terranova) have played an important role this year because of having a new coach," first-year coach Derek Galvin said. "Having the stability Diana and Tiffany provided has helped me a lot. They kept me in touch with the team. Both Diana and Tiffany had a good meet (against State)." Terranova finished second on the balance beam and third in the all-arounds, while Cates had a fine bar routine and placed eighth in the all-arounds.

Sophomore Karen Kaiser captured the all-around title for the sixth time this season with a 34.70 total. She took individual honors on the vault, uneven bars and floor exercise.

Teammate Mickie Robinson won the balance beam event and finished fifth all-around.

The Tar Heels will travel to East Tennessee State for their final regular season meet on March 6.

NURSE CRAFT DIRECTOR SUMMER EMPLOYMENT

Private summer girls camp looking for RN to head our infirmary. 3,4,7,10 week periods available. Craft director wanted to head Craft Dept. Must be mature enough to oversee other staff and creative. If you have a daughter, age 6-15, exchange of services are possible. Inquiries Morgan Haynes, PO Box 400N, Tryon, NC 28782.

TOM ROBINSON'S SEAFOOD

300 W. ROSEMARY ST. BEHIND COL. CHUTNEY'S 942-1221

THURS.-SAT.

playmakers repertory company

ANNOUNCING A WORLD PREMIERE
Examining the "roll" of the American family

MOBILE HYMN

STUDENT RUSH
50% OFF 20 minutes before curtain with valid ID

Through March 7
Paul Green Theatre
962-1121

Drive Our Cars ALMOST FREE to most U.S. cities

AUTO DRIVEAWAY
919-272-2153

520 W. Friendly Ave. Greensboro, N.C.

CAROLINA SPORTS
exciting economical entertainment for you and the whole crowd

TODAY BASEBALL VS ELON

3 pm Boshamer Stadium
Students Admitted with ID
ACC Wrestling: Fri. & Sat.

Hardee's
213 West Franklin St. & 1800 Chapel Hill-Durham Blvd.

BE IN THE FOREFRONT OF TODAY'S TECHNOLOGY AS A SCIENTIFIC-ENGINEERING OFFICER

Our scientific-engineering officers are planning and designing tomorrow's weapon systems today. Many are seeing their ideas and concepts materialize. They have the finest, state-of-the-art equipment to test their theories. The working environment is conducive to research. And Air Force experience is second to none. You can be part of this dynamic team if you have a scientific or engineering degree. Your first step will be Officer Training School. Help us shape our future as we help you start yours. Be a scientific-engineering officer in the Air Force. Contact your Air Force recruiter at

SSgt. Homer Corbett
U.S. Courthouse, Box 694
Greensboro, NC 27407
Call collect: (919) 378-5062
"Will be conducting interviews at campus placement office on March 4—sign up now."

FORGE
A great way of life

THE Daily Crossword By William Canine

ACROSS
1 Chauvinist
6 An Edison name
10 Delivery request letters
14 Wake-robin, for one
15 Red and Black
16 Renown
17 Australian dog
18 Fragrant root bark
20 Inhabitant: suff.
21 Pour down
23 Correctly
24 Unhappy sounds

25 African leader
26 Matrimonial
30 "Forever —"
34 Melodic
35 Buss
37 Airport acronym
38 Splash of color
39 Leftover
41 Novelist
42 Tennis stroke
43 Olav V's capital
44 Do not deny
46 Antagonist
48 Shavian protagonist
50 Eternity

52 Raison d'—
53 Maintain
56 Bestride
57 Cereal grass
60 Put back
62 African land
64 Can. prov.
65 Ardor
66 Pleiades' pursuer
67 Extorted
68 Pull apart
69 Kind of drum

22 Mother superior
24 Uppity one
25 Lamb
26 Car or gram
27 Synthetic fiber
28 Queen turned to stone
29 Ohio city
31 Carpenter's tool
32 Encampment
33 Carries on
36 City of discipline
40 Family group
41 — homo
43 Legal instruments
45 Popeye's pipe
47 Bacchante
49 Rely
51 Fish-eating mammal
53 Saudi
54 Auction
55 Location
56 Musial
57 Getting — years
58 Anticipatory
59 — avail (useless)
61 Beverage
63 Gold: Sp.

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

IDEA EVERY SLOP
DIAL LOGS TINA
LOVEMELOVEMYDOR
ERE LIVE AMORE
ONE BASSI
PUTTINGONTHEDOG
APOT ROSIE ORO
LER SOO ARR TAN
ENS PRATT ANTE
ADDOGINTHEMANGER
AROSE ERN
JRADE ATA PRO
DOGDAYAFTERNOON
EPEE ERROR ENOL
SEED STOPS DEIFY

2/25/82

AMERICAN BALLET THEATRE II

will hold an
OPEN COMPANY CLASS

Noon to 1:30 pm
Sat., Feb. 27
Memorial Hall

Open Dress/Tech
Rehearsal
2:00-5:00 pm

Students encouraged to come watch

A Carolina Union Presentation

DOONESBURY by Garry Trudeau

HENRY, GET YOUR TAIL UP HERE.
YES, SIR.

HENRY, EVEN ALLOWING FOR ALL THE PRE-TRIAL PUBLICITY, I THINK YOU GOT A PRETTY FAIR TRIAL. UNFORTUNATELY FOR YOU, THAT YOUNG D.A. OVER THERE PUT TOGETHER ONE HECK OF A CASE.

NOW, WE BOTH KNOW YOU DIDN'T DO ANYTHING THAT HESN'T BEEN GOING ON AROUND HERE FOR YEARS, BUT THE FACT IS YOU GOT CAUGHT AND JUSTICE MUST BE SERVED, UN- DO.

GOOD, NOW, GIVE ME YOUR WRIST.
OBJECTION, YOUR HONOR!

2-25

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13

14 15 16

17 18 19

20 21 22 23

24 25

26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33

34 35 36 37

38 39 40 41

42 43 44 45

46 47 48 49

50 51 52

53 54 55 56 57 58 59

60 61 62 63

64 65 66

67 68 69

© 1982 Tribune Company Syndicate, Inc. All Rights Reserved. 2/25/82

MOVIE POSTERS

Over 3000 different original movie posters will be on sale at Northgate Mall (Durham) on Tues., Feb. 23 thru Sat., Feb. 27. The selection of titles will include current favorites like Raiders of the Lost Arc, Star Wars, Reds, American Gigolo, On Golden Pond, Xanadu, etc. Rock buttons, antique advertising (Coca-Cola signs, neon beer signs, etc.) and other nostalgia will also be for sale. See Robert Gerwig at booth located inside Northgate Mall.

FREE
Bring along this ad for a free Blues Brothers, Airplane, or Cheech & Chong button. No purchase necessary.

IZOD

PRICE BREAKS FOR SPRING BREAK!

ON IZOD SHIRTS

MEN'S Reg. $24.00 $17.00
WOMEN'S Reg. $21.00 $15.00
CHILDREN'S (sizes 16-20) Reg. $16.00 $12.00

100% Cotton & 65/35 Blends

Duke Faculty Club
Highway 791 (near entrance to Duke Golf Course)
Open 7 days a week 10 am-5:30 pm Phone: 684-6672