

Disc club throws tournament

It's that time of year again. You know, spring, when people's minds go from books to beaches and students begin to pay homage to the Almighty Sun. Of course, Chapel Hill's perfect weather inspires some kind of activity.

Hence Frisbees.

But that leading indicator of spring's arrival known as Frisbee throwing is not just a leisure activity; it is a full-fledged sport, sanctioned by the Sports Club Council.

The UNC Disc Club offers a variety of activities centered on the fine art of Frisbee throwing.

"We have golf, ultimate and freestyle," said President John Marty, a senior public relations and political science major. "The thrust is for everyone to come out and have a good time."

IM's & CLUBS

By MORRIS HAYWOOD

"In ultimate, you cannot run with the Frisbee. You have to pass it. It's a lot like soccer; the play never stops." Marty said the club has been around for about four years and that membership is climbing.

"Every Sunday (when the club practices) we see four or five new faces," he said. "We average about 40 to 45 people."

This weekend, the club will host the Carolina Invitational Ultimate Frisbee Tournament which begins at 9:30 Saturday with a meeting for captains to determine pairings. Play will begin at 10 a.m.

"We will have teams from North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky," Marty said. "It will be on Carmichael Field, and we'll have refreshments, T-shirts, and there will be an exhibition game by some 12 to 14 year olds."

There is no admission charge, Marty said, and he is hoping for a large turnout.

"We're not exactly in a league per se," said vice president Brian Cusak, a junior business major. "But we'd like to get one started."

"I've always been interested in Frisbee," he said. "I wanted to start playing competitively, and I jumped at the chance here."

"Ultimate is a growing sport," he said. "I truly believe it should be accommodated into intercollegiate competition."

"You don't have to be extra fast to play, and it's so inexpensive."

Marty pointed out a problem that many clubs have been facing: that of participation versus competition.

"On one hand, it's for everyone," he said. "On the other hand, we have a problem when we go to compete; it's really tough to decide (who gets to play)."

Marty does feel that Frisbee can be more than that.

"At State, they have a credit course in Frisbee," he said. "We're trying to get an ultimate Frisbee league established."

Marty encouraged people to come to the Sunday afternoon practices whether they are novices or pros, men or women.

"It's a sport that lends itself to newcomers. And one-third of our membership is women."

The club practices each Sunday at noon on Ehringhaus field.

Tar Heels Footnotes: The 36th annual Big Four Intramural Sports Day will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, April 7, at Wake Forest. UNC, Duke, Wake and N.C. State will be competing for the championship—which State has held for the past four years. The IM swim meet is at 6 p.m. today at the Bowman Gray pool. Friday, April 2, is the deadline for entering the "Ride and Tie" (running/bicycle race) which will be held at 2 p.m., Sunday, April 4. The IM team golf tournament will also be from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday on Finley Golf Course. On Monday, April 5, play begins in all-campus individual/dual badminton.

Sports

Baseball vs. UNC-Wilmington, 3 p.m.

Wake nips UNC

The baseball team battled back from a two-run deficit to take the lead against conference foe Wake Forest Wednesday, but UNC could not hold on and lost 7-6 when Wake scored with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning.

UNC entered the final inning trailing 5-3. Deacon pitcher Frank Warner walked Stuart Jump and Greg Schuler, and Barney Spooner reached first on an error to load the bases. After Chris Pittaro struck out, Pete Kumiega grounded into a fielder's choice.

Jump and Schuler scored when Wake second baseman Kevin Bunn erred on the double play attempt. Kumiega scored when Wake's first baseman dropped Todd Wilkinson's pop fly, and UNC went into the second half of the inning with a 6-5 lead.

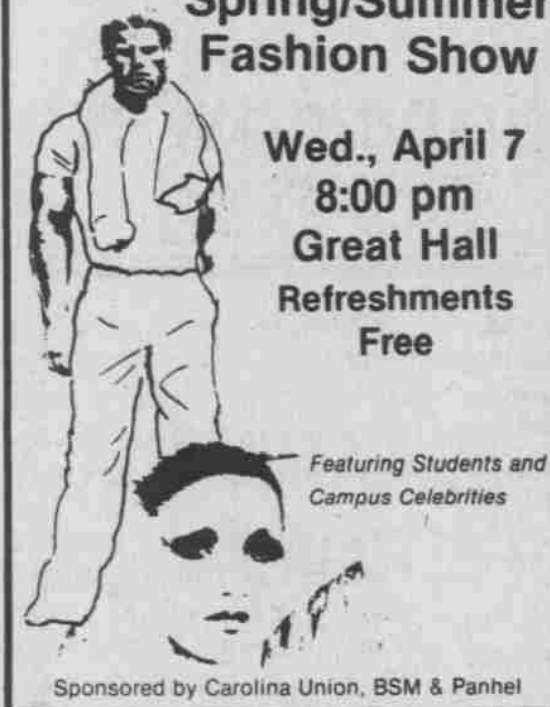

Bunn hit a home run off pitcher Tom Reed to tie the game. Reliever Ron Huffman struck out Brian Greif before Colin Meagher reached first on an error and Nick Chmil singled. Designated hitter David Couch grounded out to Kumiega for the second out. But Pittaro bobbled Tom Gregg's bouncer, scoring Meagher.

John Marshall and Spooner both hit home runs for UNC.

The Tar Heels fell to 15-18 and 3-3 in the ACC. Wake Forest is 15-5 and 3-1.

Spring/Summer Fashion Show

Wed., April 7
8:00 pm
Great Hall
Refreshments
Free

Featuring Students and Campus Celebrities

Sponsored by Carolina Union, BSM & Panhel

CAROLINA SPORTS

exciting economical entertainment for you and the whole crowd

TODAY
3 pm Baseball vs. UNC-W

TOMORROW
2 pm Tennis vs. Clemson

SATURDAY
2 pm Lacrosse vs. Maryland

Students Free with ID

Hardee's
213 West Franklin St. &
1800 Chapel Hill-Durham Blvd.

In front of Granville Towers 929-2425

Still the Best
Chicken and Biscuits
in Chapel Hill!

Now serving great pizza
(the cheapest anywhere),
whole wheat biscuits,
and
soft-serve ice cream

the Chapel Hill Concert Series presents

THOMAS LORANGO

Sun., April 4
8 pm
Memorial Hall

Tickets $2.50 students at Unlon Box Office

a carolina union presentation

Women's tennis team beats Harvard

The UNC women's tennis team won its second match in as many days Wednesday by blasting Harvard 8-1 in Chapel Hill.

The Tar Heels won five of six singles matches to secure the victory and then swept the Crimson in all three doubles matches.

No. 1 seed Kathy Barton breezed by Elizabeth Evans 6-1, 6-0, and No. 2 Betsy Heidenberger beat Tina Bougas 7-5, 6-1. Margie Brown won the No. 3 spot over Erica Schulman 6-4, 6-2.

Katherine Hogan defeated Debbie Kaufman 6-0, 6-4 and Julie Kirby won the No. 5 spot over DeAnne Loonin 7-5, 6-2. The only Harvard victory of the day came at No. 6 as Maria Pe rallied to beat Pam McNierney 2-6, 6-0, 6-4.

UNC coach Kitty Harrison, whose team won its third straight match, said she was pleased with the Tar Heel effort. "Everybody is looking better," Harrison said. "There is still room for improvement, but Tuesday was a real turnaround."

Tuesday, the Tar Heels defeated a solid Duke team 7-2, and the momentum seemed to carry over into the contest with Harvard.

"We really seemed to first put it together against Duke," Harrison said. "For the first time since our Florida trip, it was a real united push."

In doubles, Brown and Heidenberger beat Evans and Schulman 7-6, 6-1 at the No. 1 spot while Barton and Hogan defeated Pe and Kaufman 6-4, 6-7, 6-1. Kirby and McNierney beat Loonin 6-1, 6-0.

Sports Day honors champions

The Carolina Athletic Association and the Sports Club Council are sponsoring Sports Day Friday afternoon in recognition of the University's outstanding athletic teams and individuals.

In honor of such accomplishments as the Rugby Club's state championship, the football team's Gator Bowl victory and national championships won by the basketball, lacrosse and women's soccer teams, a party will be held on Ehringhaus field Friday at 2 p.m. with 30 kegs and the band Mr. Ed, performing from 3 to 5 p.m.

The celebration will also honor such

UNC All-Americans as golfers Frank Fuhrer and John Spelman; soccer players Ricky Marvin, Wendy Greenberg, Stephanie Zeh, Dori Kovanen, Marianne Johnson and Laurie Gregg; wrestlers C.D. Mock, Dave Cooke, Bob Monaghan, Mike Elinsky and Jan Michaels; swimmers Sue Walsh, Amy Pless, Barb Harris, Sue Scott, Cay Andres, Jenny Strickland, Gayle Hegel and Cami Berizzi; and baseball's Scott Bradley as well as Alison Pentz, U.S. sailing champion; Chuck Gardiner, U.S. National Crew Team; and Kate Sims, All-Virginia Lacrosse Team.

Friday, the women will be in Austin, Texas for the Lady Longhorn Invitational.

The UNC men's tennis team lost to 15th ranked South Carolina 8-1 in Columbia. Ken Ludwig beat Trevor Raal at No. 3 for the Tar Heel's only win.

—STEPHANIE GRAHAM

2 For 1

Try our other luncheon specials, too!

208 W. Franklin St. • 942-5149

Buy any size
Pizza—get another one of equal or less value
FREE

DOONESBURY

by Garry Trudeau

THE Daily Crossword by Nancy McCarthy

- |                         |                         |                        |                          |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|------------------------|--------------------------|
| ACROSS                  | 30 Prop                 | 50 Turtle-like         | 25 — in the              |
| 1 Brazilian dance       | 32 River into the Seine | 52 Hip bones           | hole                     |
| 6 Islamic ascetic       | 33 Lamentations         | 56 Carpenter, for one  | 26 Melody                |
| 11 Fed. agency          | 34 Costa                | 57 Transportation term | 27 Sharif                |
| 14 More frigid          | 37 Shake — (hurry)      | 60 Edible fish         | 28 FDR's dog             |
| 15 M. Zola              | 38 Chili con — color    | 61 Tier designation    | 29 Buccaneer             |
| 16 Bled, as             | 39 Method               | 62 Inward              | 30 Like some humor       |
| 17 Donnybrooks          | 40 Actress              | 63 European beetle     | 31 Peeled                |
| 19 Silkworm             | 41 Word with Highland   | 64 Metric quart        | 33 Principal             |
| 20 Caterpillar shelter  | 42 Basted               | 65 Residue             | 35 — fixe                |
| 21 Biblical preposition | 43 Smart                |                        | 36 Fourposters           |
| 22 Newspaper articles   | 45 Camera components    |                        | 38 Muse of history       |
| 24 Colleen              | 46 Right away           |                        | 39 Says                  |
| 26 African fly          | 48 Trading center       |                        | 41 Controlled by destiny |
| 27 Working milieu       | 49 Unfettered           |                        | 42 Pulpit talk: abbr.    |

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

The New Wave Five and Dime

(and this is no April Fool's)

OPEN
DOWNTOWN FRANKLIN

DANZIGERS
153 EAST

(another Mayo Production)

What's In and Out for Spring

What's In

- 4.95 New Wave Sunglasses
- .65-.85 Fiorucci Cards
- 3.95 'Physical' Headbands
- 13.95 B-52 minidress
- 1.95 Jogging bandannas
- 16.00 Gorgeous Indian Bazaar Harem pants and skirts
- 2.50 Mill Creek Shampoo
- 1.89 Celestial Seasons Red Zinger Tea

Beside Shrunken Head in Old Rainbowlque location

What's Out

- Wearing Pink & Green together
- Brooke Shields
- Being Inebriated
- Anything related to 'PAC MAN FEVER'
- Taking your clothes off and that being a criminal offense
- A clone
- CRAZY ZACKS