Israel approves return of forces

The Associated Press

JERUSALEM — The Israeli government approved on Tuesday the plan to send U.S., Italian and French peacekeepers back to Beirut, where the body count from a frenzy of bloodletting in two refugee camps climbed to 204.

With support from the Moslem leaders who tried to block his brother's election, Maronite Christian Amin Gemayel was chosen president of Lebanon during a special Parliament session held one week after President-elect Bashir Gemayel was assassinated.

Israel pulled more of its troops out of west Beirut, which it seized in what it called a peacekeeping move following Bashir Gemayel's murder. The Israelis kept an overnight curfew in force in the predominantly Moslem sector for a third night.

Prime Minister Menachem Begin's

Cabinet, after a 5 1/2-hour meeting in Jerusalem, announced that it endorsed reconstitution of the 2,100-man force that left Beirut earlier this month after evacuation of the main body of PLO fighters.

But Cabinet Secretary Dan Meridor said the Cabinet rejected President Yitzhak Navon's call for an Israeli investigation of the slaughter last Thursday and Friday at the Sabra and Chatilla refugee camps. Meridor said only that the government would discuss "the manner to conduct an appropriate examination into the facts."

At the predominantly Moslem Chatilla camp, Red Cross spokesmen said 84 more bodies had been recovered from the rubble bulldozed by the marauders over their victims. The spokesmen said many more corpses of men, women and children were still buried.

Estimates of the dead ranged from 300 by the U.S. government to 1,400 by PLO chief Yasser Arafat.

Israel has blamed Phalangist militiamen loyal to the slain Gemayel for the two-day rampage. Lebanese officials and some survivors said the killers were from the militia of renegade Lebanese army Maj. Saad Haddad, while one Beirut newspaper said an anti-foreign terror group claimed responsibility.

The Phalangists and Haddad have denied involvement. Israel has been charged with doing nothing about the killing for 36 hours and also has been condemned for not preventing the slaughter with its troops in west Beirut.

Israel said it stopped the killing as soon as its army found out it was going on.

In announcing his decision to send U.S. Marines back to Beirut, President Reagan said Monday night that it was "essential" Israel withdraw its troops from Beirut. He warned the Israelis, who invaded Lebanon June 6 to rout the Palestine Liberation Organization, that they were sinking

"more deeply into the quagmire."

Asked if Israel would comply with Reagan's demand, Meridor said, "We intend to take our forces out of Beirut." He did not provide a timetable.

U.S. Defense Secretary Caspar Weinberger told CBS News in Washington Tuesday that the 800 U.S. Marines who spent Aug. 25 to Sept. 10 in Beirut are on leave in Italy and could be back in Lebanon within 72 hours.

Reagan said in his nationwide address that the troops would not stay in Beirut long. The Lebanese government had made a formal request that the peacekeepers remain at least 20 days.

France and Italy also have agreed to send back their contingents to the original peace force. In Paris, a French Foreign Ministry spokesman said deployment of the force "implies the free use of the port and airport and the evacuation of Beirut by Israeli forces."

AFTON — A spokesman for Gov. Jim Hunt said Tuesday that Hunt will not meet with protesters opposed to the dumping of toxic wastes in Warren County until the dumping is completed.

On Tuesday, the Department of Administration approved a permit for protesters to rally at the state Capitol at 11 a.m. Thursday against the dumping. But protesters will not be allowed to rally outside the Administration before Hunt's news conference as they had planned.

Brent Hackney, a spokesman for Hunt, said the governor has agreed to meet with protesters, but only after the dumping is completed. Project officials say it could take six weeks to complete the transfer of PCB-laden soil from roadsides to the dump.

On Tuesday, a group of about 90 people marched in the rain to the dump site where they held a prayer vigil, then turned back.

Unlike previous demonstrations, there were no arrests on Tuesday.

JERUSALEM — Prime Minister Menachem Begin's government on Tuesday rejected calls for an official inquiry into the Palestinian refugee camp massacre, but agreed to the return of U.S., French and Italian forces to Beirut.

Controversy and strife over the mass slayings in Beirut erupted across a broad political spectrum in Israel. There were accusations of a cover-up, demonstrations by Israeli Jews and Israeli Arabs, and strikes and violence in the occupied West Bank.

Israeli troops fired live ammunition and rubber bullets at rock-throwing Palestinian youths in Nablus, but no injuries were reported.

As expected, it approved the redeployment of the 2,100-man multinational force of U.S. Marines and French and Italian troops who supervised the evacuation of the Palestine Liberation Organization guerrillas and Syrian soldiers from Beirut last month.

WASHINGTON — The Senate refused again on Tuesday to break a liberal filibuster against legislation designed to put organized prayer back in the public schools. The test suggested the measure is doomed, with one opponent declaring that "the Constitution is secure once more."

The vote against the filibuster was 53 to 47, meaning Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., and his conservative allies fell seven short of the 60 votes needed to limit the debate to 100 hours.

That was only a three-vote gain from similar "cloture" efforts on Monday.

But it appeared unlikely that Helms would be able to convert enough of his colleagues in subsequent votes to change the outcome. And that puts pressure on Majority Leader Howard Baker, R-Tenn., to close out the social issues debate which has tied up the Senate for a month.

LONDON — Government forces in the Philippines have tortured and killed hundreds of political opponents of President Ferdinand E. Marcos in the last 18 months, Amnesty International said Wednesday.

The London-based human rights organization said it has received "persistent reports" of abductions and disappearances carried out by military intelligence and security units, as well as paramilitary groups operating with official sanction.

An Amnesty mission investigated the alleged abuses in the Philippines last November, its report said. In January 1981, Marcos proclaimed the lifting of eight years of martial law, but retained many of the powers of detention and arrests.

The Amnesty team said the main victims of human rights violations are peasants, tribesmen, labor union members and church workers suspected of opposing government policies.

Most arbitrary arrests, "often coupled with ill-treatment and death in custody," have occurred in rural areas and Manila's slums, Amnesty said.

RALEIGH — The Revenue Department reported Tuesday that general state tax collections grew by a bare 3.09 percent during August, prompting Gov. Jim Hunt to take steps to further restrict state spending and hiring.

Revenue Sec. Mark Lynch said a 1.3 percent decline in income tax collections was primarily responsible for the low rate of growth in state revenues during August.
