Almost Anything Goes! A success

Four fall IM activities come to an exciting close

If anyone walked past the Carmichael fields last Thursday, they no doubt would have stopped to watch the excitement of Almost Anything Goes! In its inaugural year, Almost Anything Goes! was deemed a success by all who participated and especially by the Thundering Hearts—the first IM Anything Goes! champions.

Thirteen teams of three women and three men danced, shuffled together, played piggy-back, downed pizza, and got downright crazy in their efforts to capture the coveted first place plaque. Each team raced against the clock in six events: the Centipede Shuffle, the Balloon Hocquet Relay, the Dance Balloon-a-thon, the Cheap Date Relay, Field Ghoul, and the Scavenger Hunt.

The craziest event of the competition may have been the Cheap Date Relay; in this UNC example of barbarism, two members of a team had to wolf down a pizza as fast as they could. When all the smoke cleared from the six events, the Thundering Hearts emerged as the champions with 91 points. The 'Hearts had 64 points before the Scavenger Hunt and picked up an additional 27 after the hunt. The winners received a bouquet of silk roses, an IM plaque and IM champion T-shirts.

The second place finishers were Apollo and Goddesses from Joyner and Mangum with 86 points. Taking third place was Sig and the Boys, led by Denise Long from Sigma, Sigma, Sigma, with 79 points.

Other fall IM champions have already been decided. Out at Finley Golf Course in the Open Golf Tournament, 22 students, and eight faculty and staff members battled a hazy day seeking the fall golf championship. When all the sand traps were raked, Donnie Luper carded a 71 to capture the low gross in the student division, while Dave Stroupe fired a 75 to claim the faculty/staff championship. Mark Blackwell shot a 74 to take second in the student division, and Larry Kupper placed one stroke behind Stroupe with a 76 to finish second in the faculty/staff division.

Using the Calloway Handicap System to figure low net, Scott Baker captured first low net in the student division with a 71, followed by Bill Inglis, who also carded a 71. In the faculty/staff division, Dick Coop came in with a 71 for first net; Bill Hunter took second low net with a 71.

More than 100 of UNC's best frisbee players took over Carmichael field Sept. 19 in quest of the IM Ultimate Frisbee Tournament Championship. After an exciting day of play, the Moose prevailed over Everett Rogah, 8-7. The members of the Moose included: Jack Molyneaux, Roger Strickland, Toni Jones, Gordon Hudson, Mike Morgan, Eric McCarter, Ben Nissel, Lee Slome, Brent Burkholder, Isa Cheren, Rick Caldwell, Rhonda Dorfman, Kathy Moore, and Cathy Bliss. An added note, highlights of the competition were shown at Mr. Gatti's, as many IM activities will throughout the semester.

For all those people under six feet tall, the Napoleon Basketball Tourney also came to an end. In the Men's competitive division, the Polar Bears from the Physical Education department defeated the Cloud Dwellers, 15-13, for the championship. Members of the Bears were David Smith, Walker Worth, Bobby Miller and Mark Lane.

In the men's recreation play, the Clods of Phi Delta Theta defeated Avery #1 15-9 for the crown. The Clods included: Brent Gentry, Jeff Irvin, Reynold Faulkner and Allen Ralls. To close out Napoleon, the Untouchables defeated Gosh Almighty! for the women's championship. Donna Hovis, Kim Grace, Libby Neville and Lee Tooty were the members of the Untouchables.

Important Dates

The Daily Tar Heel will not publish next Thursday, so the IM Bulletin Board will not be seen until Thursday, Oct. 14. Therefore a lot of deadline dates are in this issue—take note of them!!

Thursday, Sept. 30—TODAY is the second half of the IM Track and Field Meet on Fetzer Track. Fraternities, Graduate/Faculty and Independents compete in 13 traditional track and field activities. The meet starts precisely at 4:00 p.m.

Friday, Oct. 1—October opens with deadlines for Floor Hockey and the "Battle of the Beef." Entries must be in by 5:00 p.m.

Saturday, Oct. 2—Georgia Tech visits Kenan to take on the Tar Heels. Meanwhile, in Fetzer the Weekend Handball Tournament begins. Remember, if you entered the Handball Tourney, you have to referee as well as play.

Sunday, Oct. 3—The Battle of the Beef begins at 2:00 p.m. Keep those team weights under 800 pounds!

Monday, Oct. 4—Organizational meetings for soccer and volleyball. Meetings will be held in 304 Woollen at 7:00 p.m. for Volleyball and at 8:00 p.m. for Soccer.

Tuesday, Oct. 5—Second organizational meeting for Soccer at 7:00 p.m., and Volleyball at 8:00 p.m. Mr. Gatti's will show videotapes of the IM Track and Field Meet at 8:00 p.m. Come out to enjoy some great pizza, plus some great highlights.

Wednesday, Oct. 6—Can you believe it? Fall break arrives at 5:00 p.m. See you on the Outer Banks or at the World's Fair. Football pairings will be posted today, and don't FORGET that entries close for Volleyball and Soccer at 5:00 p.m. in 203 Woollen.

Oct. 7-Oct. 10—Fall Break, nothing else needs to be said.

Monday, Oct. 11—Yes, school starts again. But Intramurals will solve those back from break blues. For excitement, Football and Team Tennis playoffs begin. If you missed the pairings, drop by the IM office. The season begins for Floor Hockey, while a Volleyball players' clinic will be held in Woollen at 7:00 p.m.

Tuesday, Oct. 12—Officials' clinics for Volleyball and Soccer start tonight from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in 304 Woollen. Contact Rob Frye or Janis Matson in the IM Office for any details.

Wednesday, Oct. 13—Second officials' clinics for Volleyball and Soccer from 7:00-9:00 p.m. in 304 and 303 Woollen. Entries CLOSE for Co-Rec Super Teams (See below).

Thursday, Oct. 14—Final Volleyball clinic from 5:00-6:00 p.m., listen for details at the earlier meetings. Today is also the BEAT STATE EX-TRAVAGANZA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Lifetime Leisure Activities Program will sponsor a racquetball clinic for beginners on Monday, Oct. 4 from 6-9 p.m. in the Fetzer Observation Court. The registration deadline is TODAY. Contact Rob Frye in the IM office for more info.

Co-Rec Sports Day is coming. Not to be confused with Big 4 Sports Day, Chapel Hill IMers will take on UNC-C, UNC-G, and State on Wednesday, Nov. 3 at Charlotte. The tentative activities include badminton, billiards, bowling, golf, racquetball, table tennis, tennis and volleyball. Transportation will be provided via a Trailways Bus free. Sign up in the IM office by Friday, Oct. 29. Let's bring home the gold.
