Solidarity strikes against outlaw of union

The Associated Press

WARSAW, Poland — Responding swiftly to the outlawing of their independent union, Solidarity's fugitive leaders on Sunday called for a four-hour, nationwide strike on Nov. 10.

"At every enterprise, and at every department a clandestine committee preparing for the protest of Nov. 10 should be organized," said the statement dated Oct. 9 and signed by four of the underground union's leaders.

"The course of the protest will decide the further strategy of the unions."

The statement called for the strike on the second anniversary of Solidarity's registration by a Warsaw court. Noting that Poland's parliament, the Sejm, Friday banned Polish unions and imposed severe limits on any new unions, it said:

"Solidarity exists and will exist, no matter if someone likes it or not."

That phrase was taken from a speech by Solidarity's founder-leader Lech Walesa, who along with more than 600 other union leaders has been interned since martial law was imposed Dec. 13 and suspended the independent union.

The statement was signed by the three Solidarity leaders still at large: Bogdan Lis of Gdansk, Zbigniew Bujak of Warsaw and Wladyslaw Haredek of Krakow. Piotr Bednorz signed in place of Wladyslaw Frasnyniak, who was captured last Tuesday.

The four head the underground National Coordination Commission that has run the union since April in place of other union leaders who are interned.

Nine senior Solidarity leaders interned in Warsaw's Bialoleka prison sent a letter condemning the ban and urging workers to boycott new unions. There were unconfirmed reports that Solidarity's underground leadership may consider calling a strike next month.

In a sermon viewed here as moderate, although sharper than earlier public statements, Archbishop Joseph Glemp said: "There are so many examples of the trampling of man, of disrespect for man's dignity. We wish we could free our country from such evil."

Glomp addressed more than 10,000 people who converged at the Niepokalanow monastery to honor the Rev. Maximilian Kolbe, a Franciscan friar who was canonized by Pope John Paul II at the Vatican Sunday as the 17th Polish saint in history.

Kolbe died on Aug. 14, 1941, in the Auschwitz death camp from an injection of carbolic acid two weeks after he volunteered to take the place of a Polish sergeant in a starvation bunker.

The ceremony here was strictly religious and there were no Solidarity banners among the crowd.

But in Warsaw, the interned union leaders' letter smuggled from prison said joining the new unions would imply approval of delegating Solidarity and be an "ignoble act of collaboration."

Among the signatories, who include regional and national leaders were Andrzej Ggwiazda, former No. 2 man in Solidarity and Grzegorz Palka, a national commission member and close adviser to Solidarity chief Lech Walesa who is held in isolation in southern Poland.

Meanwhile, in several Warsaw churches priests said masses that urged calm. But at one capital city church where Poles have placed a floral cross commemorating Glomp's predecessor, the late Cardinal Stefan Wyszynski, a Solidarity appeal appeared saying in part:

"We must all boycott the trade unions of the generals' junta. Let us not let them deprive us of our union freedom. Let us be faithful to those murdered, wounded, sentenced, interned and exiled. Our slogan is: 'God, honor, homeland. Freedom, independence.'"

BERGA NAVAL BASE, Sweden — Air force warplanes Sunday joined the search for a suspected Soviet-bloc submarine said to be trapped in Hors Bay as officials said no new contact had been made with the mysterious vessel.

Two air force Viggen planes took to the skies over the area for 30 minutes Sunday. Reporters saw one plane roaring over Hors Bay, where a sub is believed to be trapped, as the other flew closer to the sea where a second submarine is said to be lurking.

The submarine is widely believed to be from a Warsaw Pact country, but Swedish officials, adding to the mystery, have refused to publicly speculate on its nationality and merely refer to it as a "foreign" vessel and a "probable submarine."

MUNICH, West Germany — Chancellor Helmut Kohl's liberal coalition partners crashed to what their leader conceded as a "heavy defeat" in Bavarian state elections Sunday, indicating voters have not forgiven them for abandoning Helmut Schmidt.

Free Democrat leader Hans-Dietrich Genscher, who with three other Free Democrats bolted Schmidt's Cabinet and helped Kohl topple and replace Schmidt in a parliamentary vote Oct. 1, conceded "heavy defeat."

The ZDF television network reported its computer projections showed the Free Democrats gaining 3.4 percent of the vote, indicating they would not retain any of their 10 seats in the Bavarian state parliament. A party needs at least 5 percent to win seats and in 1978, the Free Democrats polled 6.2 percent of the vote.

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Fighting Christian militiamen clashed with their leftist Moslem counterparts in the mountain village of Aley Sunday in the worst outbreak of sectarian fighting since Israel's invasion of Lebanon four months ago.

One Israeli soldier was reported wounded in the Lebanese cross-fire. It was not immediately clear what triggered Sunday's fighting, but Christian militiamen and their traditional enemies, the Moslem Druze sect, have been involved in sporadic shootouts over the past week near the resort 10 miles east of the capital along the Beirut-Damascus highway.
