

SOLUTIONS TO THE NUCLEAR ARMS RACE

CONVOCAATION:
NOVEMBER 11, 1982

Speakers:

In the Pit from 12:40-1:00 p.m.

Michael P. Vandenberg, Student Body President
Gordon Dragt, Minister, Community Church of Chapel Hill
James R. Leutze, Bowman & Gordon Gray Professor of History and Chairman of the Curriculum of Peace, War, and Defense

Teach-Ins:

In the Carolina Union from 1:00-3:00 p.m.

1:00-2:00 — Lewis Lipsitz, Political Science: "Nuclear Freeze" — Room 202.

Carl Pletsch, History: "Unilateral Disarmament" — Room 204.

Samuel Williamson, Dean of College of Arts & Sciences:
History of the Arms Race" — Room 207.

2:00-3:00 — Craig Calhoun, Sociology: "The Costs of Nuclear Arms Race" — Room 202.

Dietrich Schroeder, Physics & Astronomy: "Control of Arms Race Technology" — Room 207.

Andrew M. Scott, Political Science: "U.S. Foreign Policy & Arms Race" — Room 204.

Film:

"No-First-Use: Preventing Nuclear War"

a new film by the Union of Concerned Scientists.

Will be shown at 3:00 and again at 4:00 in the Carolina Union Auditorium. 30 minutes long. Free admission.

Faculty Panel Discussion

4:30 Carolina Union Auditorium

Chaired by UNC Professor of Political Science, Lewis Lipsitz

James R. Leutze, Bowman & Gordon Gray Professor of History & Chairman of the Curriculum in Peace, War, and Defense

Col. Paul Grimmig, Chairman, Department of Aerospace Studies

Dr. Robert Greenberg, Professor of Pediatrics, School of Medicine, Physicians for Social Responsibility

Kenneth Wing, School of Law, School of Public Health NC Lawyer, Alliance for Arms Control

National Sponsor — Union of Concerned Scientists/physicians for Social Responsibility
Lawyers Alliance for Arms, Control/United Campuses to Prevent Nuclear War
Local Sponsor — UNC Student Government & Curriculum in Peace, War & Defense

