Walesa to be freed soon — Polish government

The Associated Press

WARSAW, Poland — Interned Solidarity leader Lech Walesa has offered to help "find a solution" to Poland's problems and will be freed without conditions in a few days, the martial law regime said Thursday.

The announcement came a day after the failure of a general strike called by underground leaders of the outlawed independent labor union.

"If it is true, I will be happy," Walesa's wife Danuta told The Associated Press by telephone from the couple's home in the northern port city of Gdansk. "I'm full of joy and fear, because I cannot imagine the crowds of people who will want to see him."

Government spokesman Jerzy Urban told foreign reporters at a hurriedly called news conference Thursday that Walesa's release would be delayed until sometime in "the next few days because of technical reasons such as different formalities, his luggage and so forth."

"No conditions were put on Walesa concerning his release," he added.

The 39-year-old Solidarity leader was interned when martial law was declared Dec. 13, and for some time has been held in a government villa in extreme southeast Poland near the Soviet border.

His release, coupled with Monday's announcement that Polish-born Pope John Paul II can visit here next June suggested Polish leader Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski feels in full control after 11 months of military rule aimed at crushing dissent.

Despite this, the regime ordered police to disperse the estimated 6,000 people in Warsaw and 2,000 in Krakow who demonstrated Thursday to mark the anniversary of Poland's re-emergence as an independent state after World War I. Police fired tear gas at demonstrators chanting "Solidarity, Solidarity!" and "Walesa is free!"

About 800 people were arrested Wednesday night during labor unrest at 24 factories in the two cities.

Thrill

But he denied that pressure from the University administration was the reason behind the proposal for a benefit concert.

"The reason for doing this is to be of service," he said. "As a group of students we are often self-centered."

"The administration has been indicating the negative reactions the concert has received in the past but hasn't given us an ultimatum or made any suggestions," he said.

Student Government currently is looking for a charity to serve as the beneficiary of any Chapel Thrill '83 profits, Vandenberg said.

But the use of profits from the 1982 Chapel Thrill concert has not yet been decided.

Vandenberg said that Student Government was considering several proposals to present to the Campus Governing Council dealing with allocation of last year's profits.

One of the proposals under consideration is to use the profit for scholarships for needy University students, Vandenberg said. Another proposal involves using the money as awards for outstanding high school teachers in the state.

"We often complain about the quality of education we receive in high school," he said. "We should consider devoting the funds from Chapel Thrill to strong high school teaching."

There is still the possibility that profits from last year's Chapel Thrill may be used to help fund the 1983 concert, Vandenberg said. Because of legal problems, the ability to use the profits in that manner is still under question, he said.

But having money to devote to the 1983 concert is an attractive idea, Vandenberg said.

"I'm not completely committed to removing the profits from Chapel Thrill," he said. "I won't recommend that we spend the profits from last year's concert unless I'm sure that we can have a strong concert this spring."

Because of larger allocations made by the CGC to campus organizations last spring, the 1983 Chapel Thrill faces a smaller budget than last year's concert.

At Wednesday's meeting, several Finance Committee members expressed concern about student attendance at Chapel Thrill. "Do you honestly think that you can draw 15,000 students this year with $60,000 when they couldn't draw that many last year with $100,000?" asked Finance Committee member Dan Bryson (District 18).

The maximum amount the CGC could appropriate for Chapel Thrill this year would be about $100,000 if last spring's profits were added in, Finance Committee Chairperson Charlie Madison (District 23) said Wednesday.

Madison said a good cash position might be essential to the success of Chapel Thrill.

"Every cent over the operational costs of $40,000 will go for talent," he said Thursday. "So the more money Chapel Thrill has, the better the talent will be. And that could have a big effect on the success of the concert."

But Lee said having the concert as a benefit might influence one of the big name bands to play Chapel Thrill for cost or just above cost.

"I'm hoping we can get several big groups for about $60,000," Lee said. "It's all in the spirit of the benefit."

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — President Reagan assured the Soviet Union Thursday night that he hopes for a better superpower relationship "in a dangerous time" following the death of President Leonid I. Brezhnev.

In a nationally broadcast news conference, Reagan declared "our goal is and will remain a search for peace."

The president said he intends to keep pushing for a treaty to reduce strategic nuclear weapons. But, "We should not delude ourselves," he said. "Peace is a product of strength, not weakness."

On the domestic front, Reagan acknowledged there is "under discussion" a Cabinet proposal to boost gasoline taxes by five cents per gallon in order to rebuild the nation's decaying bridges and highways and create jobs in the face of 10.4 percent unemployment. But no decision has been made, he said.

In an obvious reference to Democratic calls for a multibillion-dollar public works program, Reagan declared "We are doing those things that we think are proper. We are not going to go down the dead-end street that just leaves us set for another recession."

Over five of the next eight years.

Reagan said, taxes for Social Security will be increased under legislation already on the books. He said he did not think "there is very much more room" for higher taxes.

As for the burgeoning movement for a mutual freeze of nuclear weaponry, Reagan said most people who support that idea are sincere. But, he added, "foreign agents" were functioning in a number of peace groups here.

TYRE, Lebanon — A fiery explosion destroyed Israel's military headquarters in Tyre Thursday, killing at least 28 people and wounding dozens more.

The Israeli military command in Tel Aviv said in a communique that 13 Israelis were killed in the explosion and 25 were wounded. An Israeli army medic at the scene, Dr. Arieh Roth, said he knew of 15 Arabs killed, and there were reports from Beirut of 60 dead in the rubble of the eight-story building.

Some reports said the explosion was caused by an attacker who drove a car packed with explosives into the building. But other reports said the blast may have been caused by exploding ammunition or gas cylinders.

There was no official word from the Israelis on the cause.
