Women's b-ball team earns NCAA bid

North Carolina's women's basketball team has accepted a bid to the NCAA tournament and will face eighth-ranked Georgia in Athens on Saturday, March 19, at 7:30 p.m.

"To play Georgia in Athens will be extremely difficult," head coach Jennifer Alley said. The Southeastern Conference champions sport a balanced starting five anchored by All-America Janet Harris and Lisa O'Connor inside and Teresa Edwards at guard. (Saturday's match will mark the first time the schools have met in women's basketball.)

Eastern Regional ticket on sale today

Tickets for the first round of the East Regionals of the NCAA tournament in Greensboro will go on sale today at 8:30 at the ticket office in Carmichael. Students may purchase one student section ticket and up to four general public tickets. Students may only purchase the four-game package for games on Thursday and Saturday, and may not purchase tickets for Saturday's games separately. Students need to bring their ID and athletic pass along with $30 for the tickets.

Mandatory DTH staff meeting tonight

There will be a mandatory DTH meeting today at 5 p.m. in the Union Auditorium. All staff members, both old and new, must attend. Most individual desk staff meetings will follow the full staff meeting. If staffers are unable to attend either meeting, they must notify their editor.
