

'DTH' offers view of life on the Hill

Summer will soon be over and the fall semester at UNC is just around the corner. The Daily Tar Heel is pleased to announce these special publications as a service to the students and the University community:

The Daily Tar Heel Orientation '83 issue will be the biggest paper of the year. On August 29, the first day of classes, we will present five sections of news, sports, entertainment, perspective and a special Orientation section to help students get acquainted with the University and the surrounding area.

On September 1, the DTH will publish the Bar and Restaurant guide, an insight into the dining and nightlife in the Chapel Hill area.

Following the up and down season of the 1982 Tar Heel Football team, the Tar Heels will kick off at home on September 9 against Memphis State. The DTH Football Preview Issue will look at Carolina—the squad and its gridiron adversaries.
