

SPORTS

UNC booters win one and lose one at UVa

From staff reports

The UNC women's soccer team continued its winning ways over the weekend with a 5-1 victory over Virginia Saturday in Fairfax, Va.

For the second time in two weeks, April Heinrichs and Joan Dunlap each scored two goals apiece in leading the Tar Heels to their sixth straight triumph.

Dunlap, second on the team in goals scored with eight, scored her two goals in the first half to help UNC to a 3-0 halftime lead. Heinrichs' two goals give her the team lead with nine.

Sophomore Betsy Johnson also scored for the Tar Heels. North Carolina, ranked No. 2 behind Connecticut in the International Soccer Association of America's Top 20, is now 6-1 and plays Saturday in the W.A.G.S. tournament in Washington, D.C.

...

The North Carolina men's soccer team took another Atlantic Coast Conference dive Sunday as it lost to 15th-ranked Virginia, 2-0.

The game was closer than the score indicates, as UNC outshot Virginia, 18-7, and the Cavaliers' second goal came with just 12 seconds left to play in the game.

George Gelinovatch scored the first Virginia goal at the 10:12 mark of the first half, assisted by Brian Vernon. The Tar Heels controlled the tempo of the game in the second half, but could not score. Virginia goalkeeper Steve Baer stopped 10 UNC shots along the way.

UNC used no substitutes in the second half, while Virginia shuffled in four players. Cavalier coach Bruce Arena commented after the game that UNC's lack of depth was what killed them.

UNC is now 7-2-1, 0-2 in the ACC and has not won an ACC match since 1981. Virginia stands at 7-3, 3-0 in the ACC. North Carolina's next game will be this Wednesday versus Guilford at Fetzer Field.

...

The North Carolina volleyball team's 1-3 record at the University of Texas Tournament in Austin, Texas, this weekend may not be a good indicator of the Tar Heels' true ability.

"I was really pleased with the weekend," said head coach Dr. Beth Miller. "We got a lot out of it. It shows that we are competitive with the top teams in the country."

North Carolina dropped matches against 16th-ranked New Mexico, 15-13, 11-15, 17-15; Rice, 15-4, 15-7, 15-6; and 12th-ranked Texas, 15-11, 15-13, 15-12. On Saturday the Tar Heels broke through with a 15-4, 15-3, 15-12 victory over Texas El-Paso.

The close matches with Texas and New Mexico gave Miller hope for the Tar Heels' fortunes for the rest of the season.

"In terms of wins and losses it wasn't a good weekend," Miller acknowledged. "But it has to help us. A lot of the games with New Mexico and Texas were close. We still could have played better."

Senior captain Donna Meier was named to the all-tournament team. Meier collected a total of 33 kills in the four matches. Freshman Jill Berkebile also turned in some outstanding performances, especially in the first game of the Texas match, when she had eight kills.

North Carolina will take to the court again Tuesday night. The Tar Heels will face Clemson in Carmichael Auditorium in a 7 p.m. match.

UNC runners stun No. 2 Virginia

By GLENN PETERSON
Staff Writer

UNC's women's cross-country team took a major step toward its goal of reaching the national championship meet by defeating the defending national champs, Virginia, 39-40 on Saturday.

Joan Nesbit led the Tar Heels to a victory over four other schools at the Virginia Invitational Cross-Country Meet with a time of 17:38 for 5,000 meters. Holly Murray and Madlyn Morreale helped the Tar Heels win by finishing fourth and seventh, respectively. Karol Dorsett, a freshman, finished twelfth, and Kemper Knight, a sophomore, finished fifteenth to round out the scoring for North Carolina.

The victory for North Carolina was definitely an upset, but the women were confident that they could beat Virginia before the race. "We did some figuring on paper before the race, and we figured that on paper we could beat Virginia by two points," Nesbit said. After Nesbit had finished the race, she knew the outcome would be close. "I was real scared because their fifth girl beat our fifth girl," Nesbit said. (In cross-country, only the top five finishers on each team score points). "It was Holly's performance that won the race for us," Nesbit said.

"There were two Virginia girls in front of me with about three-quarters of the race finished," said Murray. "I knew that if I did not pass those girls, we probably would not win. I caught both girls with about 300 yards to go, and I just prayed that I would stay in front of them."

"I still wasn't sure we won the race after I had finished (ahead of the two Virginia girls). I was real excited when I found out that we had won."

Nesbit thinks the victory will move the Tar Heels up in the rankings. "The other teams in the region should respect us now," Nesbit said.

The women race in the North Carolina Intercollegiate Championships in Raleigh on Oct. 13. The women will race 4th-ranked N.C. State at that meet. The Wolfpack will race a confident Tar Heel team that has beaten a national power before.

...

The UNC men's cross-country team finished fifth out of eight teams at Virginia on Saturday. Highly-ranked East Tennessee State and ACC opponents Wake Forest, Clemson, and Virginia all finished ahead of the Tar Heels.

Senior David Herion led the Tar Heels by finishing 15th in a time of 25:23 for the 5-mile race. Tom Bobrowski finished nine seconds later and came in 20th place.

The men will race next in the Nittany Lion Classic at Penn State on Oct. 15.

Unbeaten field hockey team gets win and tie

By MIKE SCHOOR
Staff Writer

Although North Carolina remains undefeated in field hockey, having beaten Virginia and tied William and Mary, the weekend wasn't very encouraging to the team's coach.

Friday's 1-0 victory over Virginia at Charlottesville saw the Tar Heels outshoot the Cavaliers, 12-1. Yet it wasn't the kind of game No. 6 North Carolina needed as it prepares for Tuesday's showdown with defending national champion Old Dominion.

"We were sluggish," assistant coach Kathy Krannebitter said. "We arrived late, and I don't think we had the proper warmup. "Virginia worked real hard. (Yet) we dominated and should have won by more."

Louise Hines' tenth goal of the season, scored on a penalty stroke, propelled the Tar Heels past the No. 14 Cavaliers.

On Saturday morning, North Carolina arrived in Williamsburg hoping for a decisive victory. It never materialized, as the Tribe tied the Tar Heels 1-1.

"We were lucky to get out of there with a tie," co-captain

Alison Seger said. "We were playing on grass — which we don't usually play on."

Mary Sententes scored the lone North Carolina goal in the double overtime marathon.

"It was rather disappointing to play to a tie," Krannebitter said. "It was a big day at William and Mary — parents' weekend. They played an emotional game."

Now the 5-0-3 Tar Heels set their sights on Tuesday. Seger is ready to be a less-than-gracious host. "Tuesday night they're (Old Dominion) going to be sorry they came. The season all depends on it."

"If we give them a good fight and show them we're a top five team, it will have a lot to do with the seedings for the (NCAA) tourney."

Leading scorer Hines cannot wait to play the second-ranked Lady Monarchs.

"So far they haven't been tested," she said. "We'll be their toughest opponent up to now."

"They're expecting that we'll give them a good show. But we'll give them a better show."

Yaz calls it a career

Carl Michael Yazstrzemski, 44-years-young, played his last professional baseball game Sunday before 33,497 grateful fans in Boston's Fenway Park. No. 8 had one single in three official trips to the plate and failed to follow in the footsteps of his predecessor in left field, Ted Williams, by not homering in his last at bat. Nobody's disappointed. Thanks, Yaz.

CLEVELAND					BOSTON
ab	r	h	bi		ab	r	h	bi
Percent 2b	2	0	1	0	Remy 2b	4	1	3	0
Harrab 3b	5	0	1	0	Boggs 3b	4	1	0	0
Hargv 1b	4	0	2	0	Rice dh	4	1	2	3
Thratin dh	4	0	0	0	Armas cf	2	0	0	0
Vukvch cf	4	0	1	0	Graham cf	2	0	0	0
ABanstr rf	3	1	0	0	Yastzmk lf	3	0	1	0
CCastill rf	1	0	0	0	CWalker lf	0	0	0	0
Rhmbgr lf	4	0	3	0	Nichols rf	2	0	0	0
Essian c	2	0	1	1	Staplin 1b	3	0	0	0
Bando c	2	0	0	0	Allenson c	3	0	0	0
Fischlin ss	2	0	0	0	Gutzitz ss	3	0	0	0
Perkins ph	1	0	0	0	Totals	27	3	6	3
Totals	34	1	9	1

Cleveland Boston 010 000 000 — 3
003 000 00x — 3

	IP	H	R	ER	BB	SO
Cleveland
BAnderson L, 1-6	3	4	3	3	3	0
Brennan	1	0	0	0	1	1
Jeffcoat	1 1/2	2	0	0	3	1
Spillner	2 1/2	0	0	0	2	0
Boston
Nipper W, 1-1	9	9	1	1	4	2

HBP — Fischlin by Nipper. T-2:38. A-33,497.

UNC 38, GEORGIA TECH 21

North Carolina	7	3	7	21	38
Georgia Tech	14	7	0	0	21
UNC-Lavette 58 run (Rice kick)
Tech-Norton 22 pass from Dewberry (Rice kick)
UNC-Stankavage 7 run (Barwick kick)
Tech-Whisenant 5 pass from Dewberry (Rice kick)
UNC-FG Barwick 24
UNC-Griffin 28 pass from Stankavage (Barwick kick)
UNC-Winfield 30 pass from Stankavage (Barwick kick)
UNC-Anthony 28 run (Barwick kick)
UNC-Horton 52 run (Barwick kick)
A-28,395

	UNC	GT
First Downs	22	16
Rushes-Yards	46-258	48-221
Passing Yards	271	101
Return Yards	36	12
Passes	17-31-2	9-21-3
Punts	6-39	8-36
Fumbles-lost	0-0	1-1
Penalties-Yards	7-45	5-40
Time of Possession	29:50	30:10

Individual Stats
Rushing: N. Carolina, Horton 17-113, Anthony 11-91. Georgia Tech, Lavette 25-141, Cone 11-55.
Passing: N. Carolina, Stankavage 17-31-2-271. Georgia Tech, Dewberry 8-12-1-83.
Receiving: N. Carolina, M. Smith 3-75, Colson 3-38, Traut 3-35. Georgia Tech, Norton 2-40, Lavette 2-13.

game

From page 1

ning of Tyrone Anthony, who gained 47 yards on three carries during the drive.

UNC wasted no time in the second half. The Tar Heels opened the third quarter by driving 78 yards in eight plays, as wide receiver Larry Griffin broke free behind Tech safety John Westbrook, caught Stankavage's pass inside the 10, and went in untouched. The 28-yard touchdown play made the score 21-17.

"I knew we had time," Griffin said of North Carolina's second-half comeback. "We don't look to explode at any time; we just try to be patient and eventually, the defense will have to give in."

Stankavage was starting to heat up, mixing passes to different receivers and moving the Tar Heels down the field. Eight UNC receivers caught at least one pass, as Stankavage threw for 271 yards, setting a single-game school record for passing yardage.

The game-winner came on the first play of the fourth quarter. Mark Smith's leaping grab gained 40 yards to the Tech 30 to end the third quarter, and on the next play, Stankavage found Earl Winfield open in the end zone, floating the ball in perfectly, and UNC had its first lead with 14:55 left in the game.

Meanwhile, the Yellow Jackets were doing nothing on offense. Lavette was held to 27 yards on nine carries in the second half (he had 114 yards in the first half), and Dewberry and his backups, Rick Strom and Darrell Gast, combined to complete just three of 12 passes for 31 yards in the last two quarters.

UNC put the game away when Anthony rambled 28 yards for a touchdown with 9:27 to play and Ethan Horton broke loose for a 52-yard TD run with 5:15 left on the clock.

Not only did the Tar Heels look like two different teams from one half to the next, the Yellow Jackets did, too.

"We knew from the first hit it was an awful serious game," Stankavage said. "Georgia Tech came out with as much emotion as a football team can pack into one half."

So did North Carolina. The only difference was, the Tar Heels did so in the half that wins and loses games.

NAPOLEON
Must End Thursday 10/6
"The film to see this season, bar none!"
-Cheshire SPECTATOR
MERRY CHRISTMAS MR. LAWRENCE
DAVID BOWEN TOM FONZ
Music By Camille Coppole In Kinex Stereo
2 Parts, Daily 5:00 - 7:15

PLITT THEATRES CAROLINA
EAST FRANKLIN STREET 942 2001
CAROLINA CLASSIC
Cat On A Hot Tin Roof
2:45 • 5:05
FLASHDANCE 7:15
9:15
Beyond The Limit
3:00
5:00
7:00
9:00

There are still some things we have yet to imagine.
SOPHIE'S CHOICE
Friday, Oct. 7
7:00 and 10:00
Dollar Admission
Union Auditorium

Sports staff meeting today

The Daily Tar Heel sports staff will have a mandatory meeting today at 6 p.m. in the sports office. It is important that all staff members attend. If there are conflicts, please call or leave a message at the office.

CHAPEL HILL PLAZA 3
ELLIOT ROAD at E. FRANKLIN
967-4737
$2.00 TIL 6:00 PM EVERYDAY!
3:00 • 5:05 • 7:10 • 9:15
William Hurt
Kevin Kline
The Big Chill (R)
DOUBLE FEATURE!
2:55 • 7:20 Eddie Murphy
48 HRS. (R) Dolby Stereo
4:55 • 9:20 Richard Gere
Officer and a Gentleman (R)
2:45 • 5:00 • 7:15 • 9:30
Eddie Murphy
Dan Aykroyd
Trading Places (R)

The Carolina Union Social Committee presents
JAZZ
For the FUN of IT!
2-6:00 pm
the pit
Sunday, Oct. 9

THE Daily Crossword by Martha J. De Witt

- |                          |                    |                         |                         |
|--------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| ACROSS            | 26 Gift receiver   | 44 Pasture sound        | 18 Trumped up           |
| 1 Sheepfold sounds       | 27 Home: abbr.     | 45 Quaver               | 23 Male ant             |
| 5 Spoke                  | 28 Setback         | 46 Round up             | 25 Goddess of discord   |
| 9 "—the night before..." | 31 Garden pest     | 49 Indehiscent fruit    | 26 Greek communes       |
| 13 Church list of feasts | 34 Epic poet       | 51 Swiss river          | 28 Player parts         |
| 14 Have a — by the tail  | 35 Bullfight cheer | 52 Mauna —              | 29 Bates the actor      |
| 16 Phrase of disbelief   | 36 John and Jane   | 54 Ateller site         | 30 Furnished site       |
| 17 Salubrious            | 37 Made bundles    | 55 Salubrious           | 31 One of the Smiths    |
| 19 Ferryboat, in Africa  | 38 Treasury agent  | 59 Room for a horse     | 32 Negri of the silents |
| 20 Patriots' org.        | 39 Chicken — king  | 60 The Gloomy Dean      | 33 Salubrious           |
| 21 State                 | 40 Seeps           | 61 Elver and spitchcock | 34 Birch tree           |
| 22 Trees                 | 41 East            | 62 Cupid                | 37 Steam producers      |
| 24 Fumed foully          | 42 Ailments        | 63 Kettle of fish       | 38 Heyerdahl the author |
|                          |                    |                         | 40 Norse god            |
|                          |                    |                         | 41 Pierces with horns   |
|                          |                    |                         | 43 Mountain ridges      |
|                          |                    |                         | 44 Mushrooms            |
|                          |                    |                         | 46 Monte —              |
|                          |                    |                         | 47 True up              |
|                          |                    |                         | 48 Years                |
|                          |                    |                         | 49 Der — (Adenauer)     |
|                          |                    |                         | 50 Apple throwaway      |
|                          |                    |                         | 51 Remote               |
|                          |                    |                         | 53 Dark or Middle       |
|                          |                    |                         | 56 After printemps      |
|                          |                    |                         | 57 Pronoun              |

Yesterday's Puzzle Solved:

HARD	YAINNY	YREK
ERIA	TOLER	EARN
WENDEL	LWILL	LLKIE
NIAT	LIBES	STELNE
PARIA	AYIE
ALLOYS	SUR	BASH
SALONE	SAGA	RIA
HUBERT	THRU	MPHREY
ERA	HETA	LEAVE
MARK	EBB	CEASES
ALIGA	GLIA
SOONER	STEEB	FAMI
ADOLATE	STEVENS	ON
LEAK	AROSE	OTIC
ARNA	YOWER	NOLA

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13				14				15
17				18				19
20				21				22	23
24				25				26
27				28				29	30
31	32	33		34				35
36				37				38
39				40				41
42				43				44
45				46				47	48
49	50			51				52		53
54				55	56			57
58				59				60
61				62				63

IRVING R. LEVINE
NBC News Correspondent

"The view from Washington: a correspondents report."
Monday, October 10
Memorial Hall 8:00 pm
a presentation of the Carolina Union Forum Committee

Estes Park
Booker Creek
Kingswood
Royal Park
UNIVERSITY LAKE

Triangle Communities The Apartment People
Now accepting limited applications for guaranteed fall occupancy. Avoid the lottery blues. Apply now! All apartments on the bus line to UNC. Call today for full information. 967-2231 or 967-2234.

Fall Clearance
20-40% OFF

on selected athletic shoes for men & women by famous makers such as Adidas, Brooks, Nike, and others.

ALSO:
$3.00 OFF all running shorts
30% OFF all SUB-4 Warm-Up Suits

SECOND SOLE

Sales ends 10/15/83
*merchandise limited to stock on hand
Open weeknites til 8 pm
University Square (next to Granville Towers) 133 W. Franklin
942-1078