

UNC sweeper Meg Wanzer (R) and Tar Heels had hands full Tuesday with Old Dominion in 3-0 loss to nation's No. 2 team.

Team's first loss Old Dominion shows why No. 2

From staff reports

Defending NCAA field hockey champion Old Dominion defeated the sixth-ranked and previously unbeaten North Carolina Tar Heels Tuesday night by a score of 3-0 on Navy Field.

The Lady Monarchs scored two first-half goals and added a third in the second period to extend their winning streak, already the nation's longest, to 18 straight games.

Ingrid Wolf opened up the scoring for Old Dominion with a goal just under five minutes into the contest, and Christy Morgan pushed that lead to two with the first of a pair of goals 30 minutes later. Morgan finished up the scoring with a goal 6:16 into the second half.

The Lady Monarch's Lynn Currie recorded three saves in the shutout, while North Carolina goalkeeper Jan Miles had 14.

Old Dominion went to 5-0 on the season, while the Tar Heels fell to 5-1-3.

North Carolina's volleyball team bounced back from its 1-3 performance in the University of Texas Tournament this weekend to handily defeat the visiting Clemson Tigers 15-8, 15-3, 16-18, 15-3 Tuesday night in Carmichael Auditorium.

Head coach Beth Miller attributed part of the Tar Heels' play to the nationally ranked competition they ran into out West.

"We're a better team now than we were before we played in the (Texas) tour-namment," Miller said after the Clemson win. "We pulled things together tonight. The good competition really helped us."

The Tar Heels were led to their fifth victory, against four losses, by captains Donna Meier and Linda Kantz. Kantz gathered 23 assists while playing in just three games. Meier, coming off her All-Tournament selection over the weekend, led North Carolina's powerful net game with 12 kills.

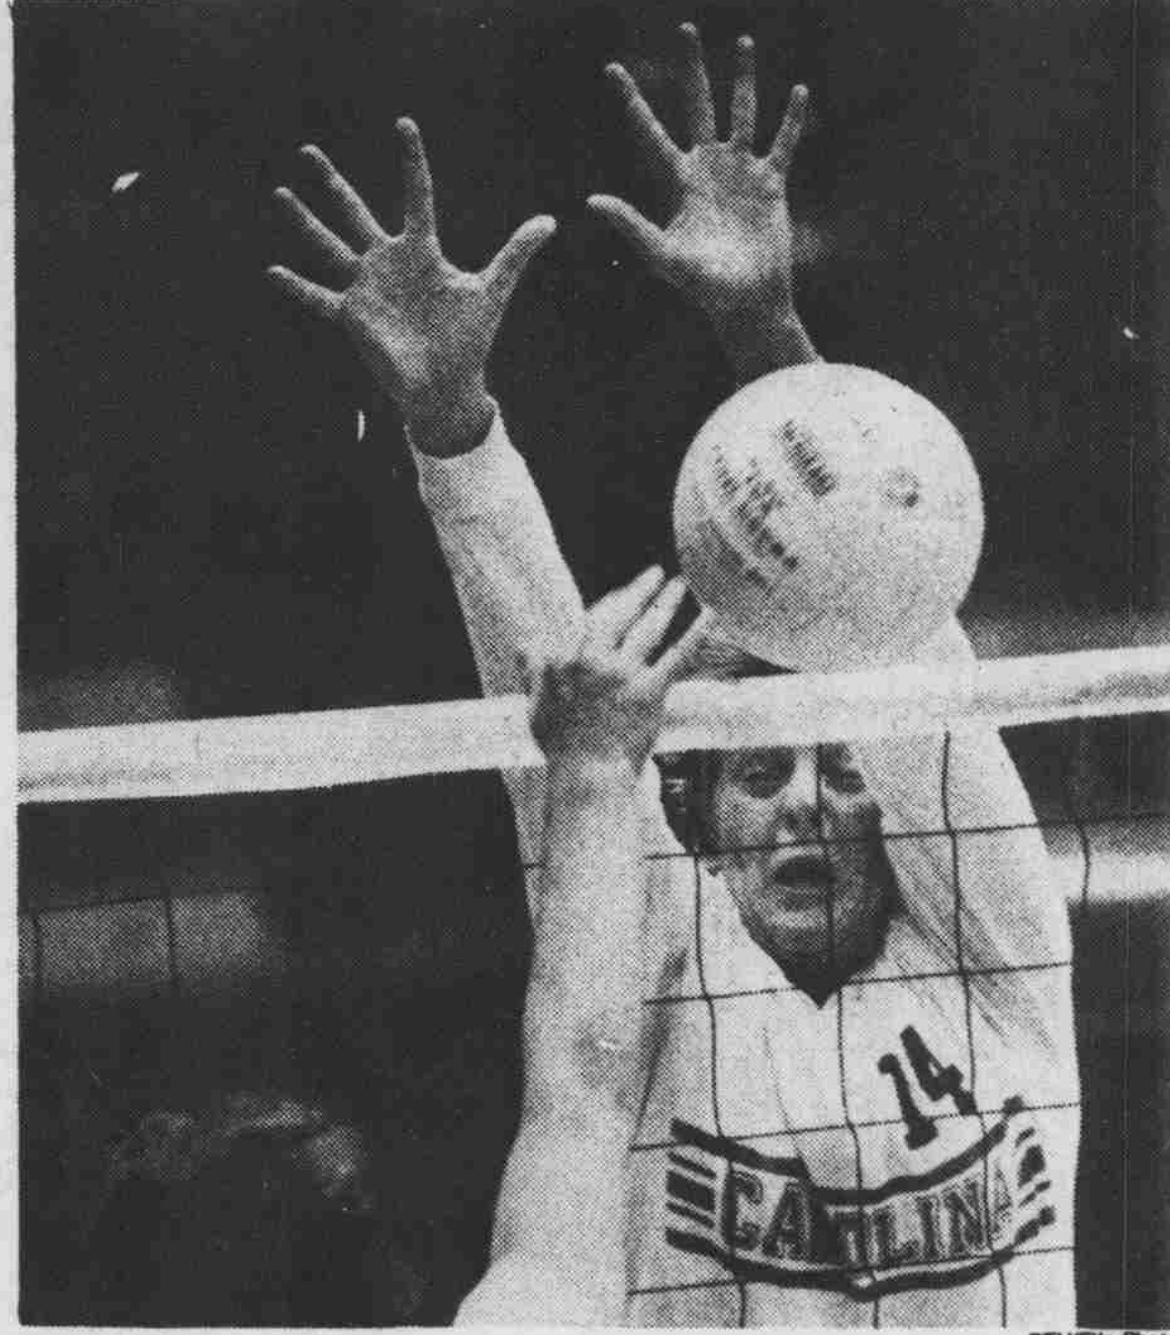

This weekend the Tar Heels will play in the Florida State Tournament and return to Chapel Hill Tuesday to host Virginia.

The North Carolina women's golf team finished eighth in the Memphis Women's Intercollegiate at Memphis State University after carding a 316 in Tuesday's final round. The Tar Heels had a three-day total of 939, 39 strokes behind South Florida's tournament-record 900 total.

South Florida's Diane Nowakowski took medalist honors with a 220 total. UNC's Linda Mescan fired a final round 76 to finish nine shots back at 229. Mescan was the highest North Carolina finisher, ending the tournament in a tie for seventh place.

The Tar Heels' Cathy Johnston shot a final-round 83 to finish with a 235 total, while Page Marsh shot an 80 for a 236. Kathy Ayers came in at 77 for a 238 total, and Kandi Kessler had a 90 for a 255.

The Tar Heels begin play in the Duke Fall Invitational Friday in Durham.
