

PLO leader's last stronghold attacked

The Associated Press

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Palestinian militants pounded Yasser Arafat's last Mideast stronghold with tank and artillery fire Thursday, leaving 34 dead and 119 wounded in Tripoli.

U.S. Marines in Beirut, meanwhile, foiled an infiltration attempt and predicted more attacks on their base. In Washington, President Reagan named Donald H. Rumsfeld as his new Middle East troubleshooter. Rumsfeld admitted he did not have any solutions for the region's problems.

Police in Tripoli, 50 miles north of Beirut, gave the casualty count in the fighting, which broke out at dawn and raged through the day and into the night. Tank cannon and more than 100 field artillery guns thundered around the city.

Arafat was in the beleaguered stronghold, according to a British Broadcasting Corp. camera crew, but he refused to talk with them.

The center of the fighting was Mount Turbul, which rises from the eastern edge of Arafat's headquarters in the Baddawi camp. Beirut radio said the mountain changed hands several times during the day.

A huge column of black smoke rose above Tripoli from an oil refinery on the edge of the Baddawi camp set ablaze in the fighting.

Arafat vowed his 8,000 fighters would "fight to the bitter end to defend our people." He charged in a broadcast over his Voice of Palestine radio that Syrian and Libyan troops were supporting dissident Palestine Liberation Organization guerrillas of Col. Saeed Mousa in the attack.

In Beirut, U.S. Marine spokesman Maj. Robert Jordan said gunfire broke out around the southern perimeter of the Marines' airport base before dawn Thursday and that the Marines "returned a few rounds."

"Indications were we have people trying to infiltrate around our positions. They were not successful."

Col. Timothy Geraghty, commander of the Marines in Beirut, said the leathernecks had made a number of moves to increase security at the airport base following the Oct. 23 bombing that killed 230 American troops.

Geraghty, however, would not discuss security in specific terms. "We expect more attacks," Geraghty said. "These are determined people."

Stone starts peace talks in Central America

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON — U.S. envoy Richard Stone began a new round of peace talks in Central America on Thursday as American officials suggested last week's invasion of Grenada helps keep political and military pressure on leftist Nicaragua.

"It certainly gives them something to think about," said one administration official, commenting on the impact of the Grenada operation on Nicaraguan leaders. He spoke on condition he not be identified.

Although saying the Grenada operation keeps pressure on Nicaragua's Sandinistas, U.S. officials expressed little hope that Stone's latest round of talks would lead to a regional peace settlement.

Stone, a U.S. ambassador assigned to explore possible negotiated settlements in Central America, left Washington on Thursday for Honduras, a pro-U.S. nation where about 5,000 U.S. troops are conducting military exercises.

Nicaragua — which has close political and military ties to Cuba, as did the ousted Grenadian government — has been the target of military attacks by CIA-backed Nicaraguan counter-revolutionaries, known as "contras."

The Republican-controlled Senate on Thursday approved at least $19 million more for that covert action. The vote sets the stage for a congressional battle with the Democratic-dominated House, which has twice voted to cut off the covert aid.

The Reagan administration has insisted that its goal is not to overthrow the Nicaraguan government, but rather to pressure the Sandinistas into withdrawing their aid for Salvadoran guerrillas, establishing democratic institutions and reducing their ties to Cuba.

State and Nation

PHOENIX, Ariz. — Greyhound Bus Lines Inc. shut down 60 percent of the nation's intercity bus service for at least two weeks Thursday as thousands of drivers and other workers went on strike rather than accept 9.5 percent wage cuts.

Pickets marched in front of depots and passengers with fouled up itineraries went looking for seats on other bus lines or simply stuck out their thumbs.

And long lines of job applicants appeared outside Greyhound offices in response to newspaper ads seeking new employees. But there was little animosity between pickets and job applicants.

(Concerned passengers who called the Raleigh Greyhound Terminal received a tape-recorded telephone message Thursday afternoon.)

Most Greyhound service in the Triangle area had been suspended because of the strike, according to the recording. It also said package service was still available in some cities.)

Greyhound began shutting down operations Tuesday to avoid stranding passengers.

Rival companies added extra routes and buses and honored Greyhound tickets to make up for the lost service. Amtrak also accepted Greyhound tickets. But long passenger lines were reported in some places anyway.

Trailways ticket clerk David Harper said in Tucson, Ariz., that he had been laid off two weeks ago but was called back to help in the crush. This normally is the slowest season of the year for intercity bus travel.

Greyhound will remain shut down for two weeks and then will "invite the employees to return to their jobs," said company spokeswoman Dorothy Lorant.

WASHINGTON — The Rev. Jesse L. Jackson formally started his quest for the Democratic presidential nomination on Thursday, vowing to "give a voice to the voiceless, representation to the unrepresented and hope to the downtrodden."

Jackson is starting months and millions of dollars behind the seven white men also seeking the 1984 Democratic nomination.

The Baptist preacher and civil rights leader told more than 3,000 singing and cheering supporters he wants to win. But his 40-minute announcement speech also suggested he holds no illusions about his chance of being the nominee.

"My candidacy will be a quest for a just society and a peaceful world," he said. "My candidacy will help to change the present course of our nation and to rekindle the dormant flames of idealism for all Americans."

JACKSONVILLE — President Reagan's planned visit to Camp Lejeune Marine Base has sparked telephone calls threatening his life, law enforcement officials said Thursday. Reagan is scheduled to attend a memorial service today at Camp Lejeune for Marines killed in the Oct. 23 terrorist bombing attack in Beirut.

Two telephone calls threatening Reagan were received at the Jacksonville Police Department, officials said. Another threatening call was received by the Jacksonville Daily News.

Jacksonville Police Chief Roger Halbert said he personally contacted U.S. Secret Service agents at Camp Lejeune after each of the anonymous calls. He declined to discuss what was said.

"They were threats against Reagan," he said. "I'm not going to give you the content of them because I don't want to encourage additional calls. Anytime we get a threatening call to any public official, we notify the proper authorities assigned to protect that individual. You don't take any of them lightly."

Local officials were told during a Tuesday conference with Secret Service agents about intelligence gathering and emergency procedures in connection with Reagan's visit.

Democratic Gov. Jim Hunt continues to lead Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., in an expected 1984 Senate race, according to the latest Carolina Poll.

Hunt leads by 20 points in the poll, conducted by the UNC School of Journalism and the UNC Center for Public Television. The poll was released Thursday.

Although neither man has announced his candidacy for the Senate, 56 percent of the adult North Carolinians polled said they would vote for Hunt, compared to 36 percent for Helms.
