Queen refused to comment on whether more indictments were expected or whether the grand jury investigation was complete.

Metropolitan Edison no longer operates the two reactors at the plant. After the accident, the utility's parent company, General Public Utilities Corp. of Parsippany, N.J., formed another subsidiary, GPU Nuclear Corp., to operate the reactors.

Nuclear Corp. A GPU Nuclear official said Monday the company hadn't had an opportunity to study the indictment.

unable to fully investigate the matter this far," said Doug Bedell, a spokesman for GPU Nuclear Corp.

"Given the limitations imposed on us by the restrictions of the grand jury procedure, we have been

"However, the policy of the Metropolitan Edison Co. has always been to operate in accordance with the conditions of its license and applicable regulations."

Rose a former CCC member said that the coalition disbanded after the 1981 municipal elections and he discredited Gurganus' remarks. Rose said in the 1981 elections the ABC had opposition from the CCC and that this year the ABC is trying to "set up a straw man to knock down."

According to Kennedy, the coalition does exist and will be active in the 1985 municipal elections. "He (Rose) is under the wrong impression of it (the existence of the CCC)," Kennedy said. Porto said of the whole controversy that the ABC has not disbanded and the coalition does not exist. "I am independent. I am my own man. I take orders from no one," he said. "They (ABC candidates) will take orders from ABC organizers."
