

CGC candidates state viewpoints

District 1: (Law School, PE) Steve Reinhard
Law student from Greensboro

Goals: To restore fiscal responsibility to student government by funding programs that are meritorious and defunding those which are not. I also would like to make student government more accessible and responsible to the students and to increase the influence student government has on administrative policies that directly affect students.

District 2: (art, dramatic art, music, education and social work): No candidates

District 3: (botany, chemistry, marine science, ORSA, physics, statistics, business and math): No candidates

District 4: (anthropology, computer science, economics, history, city and regional planning, political science, psychology and sociology) Bill Barlow
First-year graduate student in city and regional planning from Hamilton Ontario, Canada

Goals: To bring forth world issues which have relevance to the student body in order to try to make the University a model for world change. I would also like to make the CGC more than a funding distribution center and instead make it a voice of students in the community, the state and the nation.

District 5: (dentistry, anatomy, bacteriology, biomedical engineering, genetics, neurobiology, occupational therapy, pathology, pharmacology, physical therapy, physiology, rehabilitation and speech and hearing): No candidates

District 6: (Medical School and nursing): No candidates

District 7: (Ecology, geology, zoology, pharmacy, public health): No candidates

District 8: (Classics, comparative literature, English, folklore, geography, German, linguistics, philosophy, RTVMP, rec. adm., Romance languages, Slavic languages, religion, speech, journalism, library science): No candidates

District 9: (Spencer Alderman, Kenan, McIver, Old West, Old East, Carr): Dawn Peters
Sophomore political science and English major from High Point.

Goals: To become a true representative of the people living in my district, to make sure their concerns are dealt with.

District 10: (Avery, Parker, League, Whitehead) Wyatt Closs
Freshman pre-law and accounting major from Raleigh

Goals: To stand on the slogans of hard work, strong communication, effective representation and enthusiasm by attending Scott Residence College meetings and individual dorm meetings, writing a column in the Scott Tissue, holding bi-semester forums in the area and going door to door periodically to find out the concerns of the residents.

District 11: (Aycock, Everett, Grimes, Lewis, Mangum, Stacy, Manly, Ruffin, Cobb, Graham): Reggie Holley
Sophomore Criminal Justice/Pre-law major from Benson

Goals: To use my experience to represent District 11. I will try to maintain perfect attendance at CGC meetings, to solicit constituent response through attending dorm meetings, to consider the impact each CGC decision will have on the district.

Tim Newman
Sophomore economics and political science major from Eden.

Goals: To continue to give District 11 conscientious, sound representation on the CGC and to keep District 11 informed of CGC actions through dorm meetings and OJde Camp meetings.

Karen Rindge
Sophomore political science major from Tryon

Goals: To increase communication between CGC representatives and students and to attend dorm meetings to make better student awareness of current issues. I will make myself available to receive students' questions and opinions.

District 12 (Ehringhaus, Craigie): Peter Doyle
Sophomore math and geography major from Rockville Center, Long Island, N.Y.

Goals: To provide sensitivity to the needs of the University community and to make students aware of world issues and how they will be affected by them. As a member of SEEDS I can provide that sensitivity. I will respond to the communities' needs and wants.

District 13 (Alexander, Connor, Winston, Joyner): Ron Everett
Junior economics and political science major from Robersonville

Goals: To work to give the students of HRC and Joyner an active voice in the issues that affect them. I believe we should work for activities, such as Springfest, which will benefit all students. Students need to see where their fees are going.

Balam Kakkar
Freshman business administration major from Kabul, Afghanistan

Goals: To work for a reliable student telephone service, Student Television, increased student representation on the Chapel Hill Town Council, funding ECOS, better communication between student government and the students, and the inclusion of UNC in the evacuation plan of the Shearon Harris nuclear reactor in case of a melt-down.

District 14 (Granville Towers): Terrence Brayboy
Sophomore chemistry and English major from Baton Rouge, La.

Goals: To work for the majority of funds entrusted to the CGC to go to campus groups. Students give the money through their student activities fees, and it should be given back to them as members of campus organizations.

Dan Hall
Sophomore chemistry and biology major from Burlington

Goals: To ensure that the CGC is both objective and thrifty in its allocation of funds to student organizations. I would like to propose an in-depth, qualitative survey of all funded organizations to determine which groups are of greatest interest to the student body.

Sherri Watson
Junior psychology major from Raleigh

Goals: To provide my constituents with progressive, responsive and effective leadership. The student activities fee increase, UNC's first student-run television broadcast and the allocation of student fees are just some of the issues of student concern.

District 15 (Hinton James, Morrison): Max Lloyd
Sophomore computer science major from Greensboro

Goals: To provide a representative who can be reached by his constituents and to bring more money to South Campus. Also to provide a more financially conservative balance on the council.

Ryke Longest
Freshman business administration major from Raleigh

Goals: To maintain open communication with my constituents by keeping office hours, holding open floor meetings and conducting opinion polls to find out how my district feels about issues. I also would like to have cable television installed in the dorms.

Todd Victor Mason
Freshman political science and pre-law major from Charlotte

Goals: To be an administrator of the student fees. It is important for someone to responsibly handle the allocation of the activities fees. I will keep in touch with my constituents by attending dorm functions, such as legislative council and floor meetings.

Marshall Mills
Sophomore international studies major from Charlotte

Goals: To make student government more active, increase student participation in student government, maintain communication with my constituents, stage a viable spring concert, use student government as a means of increasing racial awareness and to work through the organization of SEEDS political party.

Chuck Vocelle
Junior sociology major from Vero Beach, Fla.

Goals: To join SEEDS in making student government more open and effective. I would like to see the CGC hold meetings on North and South campus and in the Pit. I would like to work to ensure that STV becomes a reality, that more women and black faculty members are hired, that the divestment issue is kept alive, that voluntary dorm integration be encouraged and that groups involved in protecting the rights of minorities be given adequate funding.

District 16 (Townhouse Apt., Brookside Apts., Westall Apts., Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Upsilon, Phi Delta Theta, Lambda Chi Alpha, Tau Epsilon Phi, Alpha Delta Pi, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Phi Mu, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Sigma Sigma, Village Apts., Manor House Apts., Booker Creek Spts., Stratford Hills): David Berlin
Freshman RTVMP major from Memphis, Tenn.

Goals: To represent the people who live off campus and take particular notice in the events which affect them. I want to have an open mind on all issues and determine what will be the best for all students.

Patricia Wallace
Sophomore English and economics major from Virginia Beach, Va.

Goals: To increase the size of the CGC. This would help represent the diverse population of UNC. I would also like to enlarge the size of the finance committee to at least 12 members and to require that all members of the CGC serve on the Finance Committee at least once. I would like to make budget requests due earlier and assign each member of the CGC at least two organizations to become familiar with and report information about them to the council.

District 17 (Pinegate, Foxcroft, Castillon, Kings Arms, Colony: Camelot, Town Terrace, The Oaks, Shepherd Lane): No candidates

District 18 (Estes Park, Bolinwood, University, Gardens, Colonial Arms): Thomas Kepley
Junior economics major from Columbia, S.C.

Goals: To provide effective, efficient leadership in student government and to represent the off-campus students that I would be serving.

Candidates for CGC are: Row 1: Kenneth Harris, Chuck Vocelle, Dawn Peters, Wyatt Closs, Ryke Longest, and Tony Delp. Row 2: Connie Brown, Karen Rindge, Balam Kakkar, Sherri Watson, Max Lloyd, and Reggie Holley. Row 3: Tim Newman, Steve Reinhard, A.G. Wood, II, and Terrence Brayboy. Row 4: Peter Doyle, Tim Berrigan, Ron Everett, Dan Hall, and Todd Mason.

ing. Too often, off-campus students' ideas and problems are ignored. This is due to the lack of communication between representatives and their off-campus constituents.

District 19 (Tar Heel Manor, Berkshire Apts., Chateau Labet, Sue Anne Ct., Pineknoll): No candidates

District 20 (Old Well Apts., Popular Apts, fidelity Ct.): A.G. Wood, III
Freshman physics major from Louisiana

Goals: To try to eliminate prejudice and bigotry on campus. I support the SEEDS platform although I am not a SEEDS member. My goal is to make sure the CGC doesn't commit a crime against humanity by restricting personal freedoms.

District 21 (Carolina Apts., Hi Umont Apts., Bim Stree Apts., Greenbelt Apts., University Lake Apts., Yum Yum): Bryan Brice
Junior journalism and political science major from Wilson

Goals: To advocate the SEEDS platform for the 1984 elections. I am especially concerned about reviving Chapel Thrill as a spring benefit concert. I also believe there is a way to run the bookstore at a cost that would save students money.

Connie Brown
Junior industrial relations major from Charlotte

Goals: To represent student needs and to fund activities that will benefit students the most. I do not wish the CGC to turn into a forum for national issues; CGC is not the proper body for addressing national issues other than education.

District 22 (Royal Park, The Village, Kingswood): Tim Berrigan
Sophomore business administration major from Hilton Head, S.C.

Goals: To promote student involvement in the functions of the CGC. Too few people know enough of the advantages of student government to desire to involve themselves in an organization which has tremendous potential.

Tony Delp
Senior political science and speech major from Millers Creek

Goals: To find out how local grant funds could be transacted from the Chapel Hill community to the campus. If elected I plan to run for Rules and Judiciary chairman and have that committee look into various outside funds, other than student fees, that could be used in our budget.

District 23 (Oak Terrace, Northampton, Rosemary Apts., Hargrove Apts., Johnson St. Apts., Laurel Ridge, Phi Gamma Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Chi, Chi Phi, Zeta Psi, Chi Psi, Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Pi Lambda Phi, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Phi, Epsilon, St. Anthony Hall, Zeta Beta Tau, Pi Kappa Phi, Pi Kappa Alpha, Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Chi, Zeta Tau Alpha, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Nu, Kenneth Harris

Junior political science major from Fayetteville

Goals: To give the student body the opportunity to become informed, progressive and assertive. I would encourage the exploration of new ways to inform the student body of the educational and vocational opportunities available in the area. I would support funding for programming that recognizes the diverse cultural need of the campus.
