

Lax falls to Syracuse with :01 left

By MIKE WATERS
Staff Writer

BALTIMORE — North Carolina and Syracuse, together representing the past three NCAA lacrosse champions, had battled for almost 59 minutes to a 9-9 tie.

Syracuse worked the ball around the UNC cage, looking for an opening in the defense. UNC senior Andy Smith forced a bad pass out of bounds to give the Tar Heels the ball with 1:17 left.

UNC handed the ball right back to the Orangemen on an offside call while bringing the ball upfield with 0:53 remaining.

The UNC defense dug in, backed by goalie Tim Mealey. The Tar Heels forced a loose ball out of bounds, but a referee had whistled UNC sophomore Tom Haus for cross-checking just 0:04 on the clock.

Working with a man advantage, but very little time, Orangemen coach Roy Simmons went to the brother combination of Tom and Tim Nelson. Tim, a junior, had already scored three goals and his freshman brother had one.

Tim brought the ball into play behind the net as the clock started to wind down. UNC fell back into a zone defense. Tom Nelson flashed in front of the crease and flicked a pass from his older brother past Mealey for the game winner with one second remaining.

The 10-9 defeat at the hands of last year's NCAA champions can hardly be considered a devastating setback for coach Willie Scroggs' team. What began as a homecoming for many of UNC's Baltimore area players turned out to be a coming-out party for Scroggs' freshman class.

Freshmen defenders Boyd Harden and Chris Walker did an excellent job against the offensive pressure applied by Syracuse. The 6-3 Walker electrified the crowd with several dazzling runs down the field and into Orangemen territory.

Perhaps even more impressive was the play of freshman attacker Gary Seivold, brother of sophomore Joey Seivold. Gary had three scores against a stifling Syracuse defense which choked off UNC's attack for much of the afternoon.

"It was real competitive, they pressured us hard on defense," Scroggs said. "We made an awful lot of mistakes, but (the freshmen) hung in real well."

Gary Seivold said of the Orangemen, "They pressured us real well on the perimeter. We weren't moving the ball really well."

The Syracuse defense took control of the game in the second quarter. After a 3-3 tie at the end of the first period, Syracuse barely allowed UNC room to breathe for the next 15 minutes. North Carolina went scoreless in the quarter as Syracuse moved out to a 6-3 advantage. UNC scrapped its way back into the contest with upperclassmen Terry Maretinello, Brent Voelkel and Mac Ford leading the way. Ford would finish with two scores and Martinello with a goal and an assist.

A goal with one second left in the third quarter gave the Orangemen an 8-6 lead, but the Tar Heels scored three straight to take the lead for the first time since 3-2 in the first period.

Voelkel's score with eight minutes left gave UNC a 9-8 lead, but Syracuse tied it two minutes later on a play started by Brad Kotz.

UNC top seed in NCAA tourney

The Associated Press

KANSAS CITY — North Carolina, DePaul, Georgetown and Kentucky were made the top seeds in each region in the NCAA basketball tournament pairings announced Sunday.

The top-ranked Tar Heels, who have lost twice in 29 games, will meet the winner of the first-round game between Temple and St. John's in the East Regional.

Georgetown, moved out of the East by the selection committee to the West, takes on the winner of the first-round game between Miami of Ohio and Southern Methodist.

DePaul is the top seed in the Midwest region and Kentucky in the Mideast.

Kentucky, which was rated first in the Associated Press Top 20 earlier this season, meets the winner of the Alabama-Birmingham vs. Brigham Young game in the Midwest, and DePaul, hoping to give retiring Coach Ray Meyer his first national championship, will go against the winner between Alabama and Illinois State in the Midwest.

Among the teams conspicuously absent were Bucknell, 24-5, Tennessee Chattanooga, 23-6, and one-time collegiate powerhouse UCLA.

It will be the first NCAA tournament UCLA has missed since 1962, not counting two years ago when the Bruins were on probation.

The tournament, the biggest and richest in collegiate history, begins Tuesday with the champions of the 10 weakest Division I conferences meeting in a "preliminary round" in Philadelphia and Dayton. Those five winners will advance to first-round action around the country, beginning Thursday and running through the weekend.
