According to Rollie Tillman, vice chancellor of University relations, the class of 1986 will probably be the first to graduate in the SAC. Tillman said although the building would be technically finished by next spring, it will not be used for graduation due to dirt and dust.

"Graduation here at UNC is a very special occasion, and it would not be right to hold it in less than adequate surroundings," Tillman said. The class of 1985 will, by realistic prediction, graduate in Kenan Stadium, Tillman said.

Maine maps confuse tourists

PORTLAND, Maine — Tourists who get their bearings from restaurant place mats showing a map of Maine could find themselves in a state of confusion.

Thousands of the mats, printed by a New Jersey company for restaurants in the Pine Tree State, mistakenly identify Quebec, Canada - rather than New Hampshire - as being west of Maine.

Claire Dechene, owner of Old Oxford Village restaurant in Oxford, says that when customers notice the flaw, "I just tell them that's the way they came in - with a misprint."

Tourists often take the paper mats with them "to help them get around Maine," she said.

"It could have been mistaken art work," said Michael Wenemer of Ivex Corp. in Rockaway, N.J. "I'll check into it and make sure it's corrected."

At Specialty Paper Co. in Lewiston, which distributes the place mats, owner Samuel Simonds said he was unaware of the misprints, and would "have to examine them closer."

New agency helps find child care

By KAREN YOUNGBLOOD
Staff Writer

The Child Care Networks is a new agency that operates as a referral service for families who want to find appropriate child care, but aren't sure where to look.

Sponsored in part by UNC, Memorial Hospital, Orange County, the United Way and other private contributions, the non-profit organization's services are offered free of charge to individuals seeking information for referral services.

CCN gives parents questions to ask and tells them what to look for when they need child care, but the agency does not tell families where to go for child care services.

Parents who consult CCN will be referred to the various child care programs that are best suited for them, but the parents must make the final decision.

All referrals made by the service must be either licensed or registered, depending on whether it is a private home or a day care center. Howard Lee, former mayor of Chapel Hill and special campaign consultant to the state Democratic Party, said that the agency will help guard against cases of child abuse and neglect, which is a growing concern among parents.

The people at CCN expect students to be interested in the service since it may help students who have children and odd schedules as well as a tight budget. Also, students who are looking for a part-time job may keep children without having to compromise schoolwork.

Since the agency opened its doors July 1, more than 90 families have called seeking information, according to Mike Sharp, vice president of the board at CCN.

He cited reports at an open house for the agency Sunday that advocated the need for such services, and encouraged the creation of CCN.

CCN is open on Mondays 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The agency is located in Suite 217 of Carr Mill Mall.

Planned Parenthood moves its office

Planned Parenthood of Orange County is combining its offices and moving to Kroger Plaza in Chapel Hill. The administrative office will open there on Sept. 4 and the first patients will be seen there Sept. 6.

The administrative offices have been located on Estes Drive in Chapel Hill, and a clinic office has been located in Hillsborough for the last year.

There will still be regular office hours in Hillsborough and programs in the northern Orange County area will be emphasized. A toll-free telephone line from Hillsborough (723-6161) will also operate for information, counseling, referrals and clinic appointments.

WHAT EVERY STUDENT SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN LEASING A TELEPHONE AND LEASING A CHICKEN.

Yes, there are differences. And we think you should know what they are. Ask yourself these questions.

WHEN YOU LEASE A CHICKEN, DO YOU GET THREE MONTHS FREE DURING THE SUMMER?

Probably not. But when you lease your telephone from AT&T this fall, you won't pay any lease charges next summer. You can use your phone at home, and bring it back to school in the fall.

DO LEASED CHICKENS COME IN A SELECTION OF COLORS AND STYLES?

No. Chickens don't come in many colors. But the AT&T telephone you lease this fall comes in a variety of colors and three popular styles.

ARE LEASED CHICKENS REPAIRED FREE?

Don't kid yourself. Repairing a chicken is a delicate process that requires the work of expensive professionals. However, in the off chance your

AT&T leased telephone needs repairs, we'll fix it absolutely free when you visit any of our AT&T Phone Centers.

ARE LEASED CHICKENS SHIPPED DIRECTLY TO YOU?

Ship a chicken? Don't be silly. However, your AT&T leased telephone will be shipped directly to you after one call to 1-800-555-8111, or you can pick up your phone at any of our AT&T Phone Centers.

ONE FINAL QUESTION: DOES IT COST THE SAME TO LEASE A CHICKEN AS TO LEASE A TELEPHONE THIS FALL?

Hardly. While we have no hard data on the exact cost of leasing a chicken, we can tell you with some certainty that the cost of leasing a telephone this fall is far less than you might think. The decision to lease a chicken or a telephone, of course, rests with you. But should you opt for the telephone, remember: you get three months free next summer, and you can take the phone home with you. There's a choice of colors and styles, free repair, and we'll ship you the phone or you can pick it up at any of our AT&T Phone Centers. It doesn't cost much either. And that's something to crow about. AT&T Consumer Sales and Service. To order your telephone, call 1-800-555-8111 for delivery right to your door or for information concerning AT&T Phone Center locations.
