

Religious

Diversity is the University's middle name, and that extends into the realm of religion as well. The abundance of faiths on campus attests to the advantages for religious minorities who attend a large university. There is even an organization for students who profess no religion.

Name: Anglican Student Fellowship/Episcopal Campus Ministry.

Purpose: To be witnesses to the love of God in word and deed through the Episcopal Church at UNC Chapel Hill.

Major Activities: Wednesday night Eucharist services, Saturday Morning breakfasts with faculty, Spring break mission to Haiti, retreats, Bible studies, parties, raising and donating money to various service and mission agencies.

Time Commitment: 1-2 hours/week.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Jean DeSaix, faculty adviser (962-1068).

Name: B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation.

Purpose: To provide a meeting place for Jewish students on the campus through social, educational, service and religious activities.

Major Activities: Regular Shabbat services.

Contact person: Rina Wolfgang, faculty adviser (942-4057).

Name: Buddhist Studies Association UNC-CH.

Purpose: To study the Buddhist doctrine and practice of meditation.

Contact person: J.H. Sanford, faculty adviser (962-5666).

Name: Campus Crusade for Christ.

Purpose: A Christian organization to aid students in developing the spiritual area of life.

Major Activities: Conducting Freshmen survey, small Bible studies in each living area on campus, weekly meeting in the Union, conferences designed to meet the needs of students.

Time Commitment: 2 hours/week.

Qualifications: Interest, interview.
Contact person: Fred Eckel, faculty adviser (962-0034).

Name: Campus Christian Fellowship.

Purpose: To preserve and mature Christians on campus.

Major Activities: Worship services, fellowship meals, Bible studies, discussion lunches, service projects, retreats.

Time Commitment: Flexible.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Henry Boren, faculty adviser (962-2146).

Name: Catholic Campus Ministry.

Purpose: To enjoy fellowship and growth in a Catholic community.

Major Activities: Weekly student nights alternating a Mass with discussion, potlucks, semester retreats plus prayer retreats, choir, eucharistic ministers, invited speakers, special masses, Bible study, prayer group.

Time Commitment: 4 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.

Name: Christian Legal Society.

Purpose: To provide fellowship and provocative programming for those interested in the dynamics of Christianity and the law.

Major Activities: Regular meetings, often featuring attorney or judges who speak on ethical problems in the practice and process of law, Bible studies, prayer meetings community service projects.

Time Commitment: 6 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Masako Patrum, faculty adviser (962-1321).

Name: Christian Medical Society.

Purpose: To provide support, fellowship discussion and service opportunities within the Medical school.

Major Activities: Weekly luncheon meetings for discussion and fellowship, potluck suppers, service projects, worship service each Sunday for hospital patients who cannot attend the main service.

Time Commitment: 1 hour/week.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Dr. Henry Lesesne, faculty adviser (966-2511).

Name: Freedom of Religion Educational Studies Team.

Major Activities: Informational projects, research projects, newsletter.

Time Commitment: 4 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest, interview.

Name: Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship.

Purpose: A nondenominational Christian fellowship which through small group Bible study, attempts to help Christians mature in their faith in Jesus Christ and provide the opportunity for those that aren't Christians to explore the person of Christ.

Major Activities: Small group weekly Bible studies, weekend retreats and conferences, parents weekend.

Time Commitment: 15 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Dr. James Craxford, faculty adviser (962-3013).

Name: Latter-day Saint Student Association.

Purpose: To promote good fellowship and wholesome association among college men and women, to provide intellectual stimulation, and to foster the religious life of the University of North Carolina.

Major Activities: Social and intellectual activities for the Latter-day Saint students and for those who are sympathetic with the aims of the LDSSA.

Time Commitment: 6 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Richard Rust, faculty adviser (962-4030).

Name: Maranatha Campus Ministry.

Purpose: Dedicated to presenting a living and active Christian life on campus, believing the Bible to be God's Word, we endeavor to apply its teachings to the everyday life of the student.

Major Activities: Distribution of "Forerunner", Pro-life activism, campus entertainment.

Time Commitment: 2 hours/week.

Qualifications: Interview, appointed, selected.
Contact person: Larry Weese, faculty adviser (966-5466).

Name: Moravian Student Fellowship.

Purpose: To provide worship and Bible study for Moravian students and those students interested in the Moravians.

Contact person: Joseph Clontz, faculty adviser (942-4266).

Name: The Navigators.

Purpose: To be a resource for students at UNC to grow in their relationships with Jesus Christ by means of Bible study, prayer meetings, rallies, and evangelism.

Major Activities: Bible study, Evangelism in the dorms.

Time Commitment: 8 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Ray Hackney, faculty adviser (962-5507).

Name: UNC-CH American Atheists.

Purpose: Separation of state and church, atheist and agnostic civil liberties, expose religious myths and social control techniques.

Major Activities: Lecture series on state/church separation with faculty, challenge funding by student government of a gospel choir, various lectures on religion as it interfaces society and government, bringing attention to a variety of "minor" state/church violations.

Time Commitment: 5 hours/week.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Stanley Munsat, faculty adviser (962-7291).

Name: UNC-CH Baha'i Club.

Purpose: To acquaint those interested with the tenets of the Baha'i Faith, by sponsoring lectures, discussions, informal gatherings, social activities, and public meetings.

Contact person: Gary Kugler, faculty adviser (966-1540).

Name: UNC-CH ECKANKAR.

Purpose: To make the pathway of ECKANKAR and individual pathway to God, available to anyone that is interested in this path and way of life.

Major Activities: Small group sessions and discussions dealing with ECK and ECKANKAR as the pathway to God, seminars, fine arts activities.

Time Commitment: 3 hours/month.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Ben White, faculty adviser (966-2051).

Name: United Christian Fellowship.

Purpose: To strengthen the body of Christ by introducing as many people as possible to Christ.

Major Activities: Walk-a-thon for Missionary Fund, Jam for Jesus, Annual Revival, Parents Day, Annual Banquet, Gospel Concert.

Time Commitment: 7 hours/week.

Qualifications: Interest.
Contact person: Hubert West, faculty adviser (962-5411).