Futurist competition announced

Honeywell Inc. is sponsoring its third annual Futurist Award Competition, a contest asking college students to predict technological advancements that will be achieved by the year 2009.

The contest is open to all full-time undergraduate and graduate students at any accredited college. Students are asked to predict developments in two of the following technological areas: electronic communications, energy, aerospace, marine systems, bio-medical technology or computers. A third essay must address the social, economic and environmental impact of the technological progress. Each three essay is limited to 500 words.

Ten first-place entries each will earn $2,000 and an opportunity to work for Honeywell next summer. Ten second-place winners each will receive $250 and 10 honorable-mention winners each will receive $100. All entrants will receive a Honeywell Futurist T-shirt.

Completed essays must be post-marked no later than Dec. 31. Winners will be notified by Feb. 1, 1985 and will be flown to Minneapolis later that month for the award ceremonies.

For more detailed registration information write Futurist Rules, P.O. Box 2009, 600 South County Road 18, Minneapolis, Minn., 55426, or call toll-free 1-800-328-5111, extension 1523.
