College Bowl team sweeps tournament

By LORRY WILLIAMS
Staff Writer

With only one group practice session under its belt, the 1985 UNC College Bowl All-Star team went undefeated in its first tournament this past weekend at Armstrong State College in Savannah, Ga.

Members of the team earned a silver trophy after surviving the Armstrong State Invitational with a 17-0 record.

"I knew we would do well, but I didn't think we would win all of our matches," said team captain Jeff Carnes, a graduate student in classics from Detroit, Mich.

Traveling coach and team manager Beth Weller, a senior from Winston-Salem, said she as well was somewhat surprised at the team's performance. "Everyone seemed to play better than expected," she said. "The guys meshed together well. We had all areas (of information) covered well."

The performance surprised so many because the team was put together only a few weeks before the tournament. Thursday was the first time the members had practiced together.

Keith Brown, a graduate student in political science from Roanoke, Ala.; Adam Falk, a sophomore from Chapel Hill; Peter Weiss, a senior from Rosslyn Heights, N.Y.; and freshman Jon Baker from Baltimore, Md., make up the rest of the traveling team. This is Carnes' and Falk's second year on the All-Star team. The other members have participated on other College Bowl teams but never as All-Stars.

In addition to UNC's tournament victory, Carnes was named to the tourney's All-Star team, composed of the four people answering the most toss-up questions.

Councilman Broadfoot dead at 64

Chapel Hill Town Councilman Winston Broadfoot, 64, died at his home early Tuesday evening.

After completing an autopsy yesterday, Dr. Robert Thompson, associate state chief medical examiner, said Broadfoot died from natural causes.

It has been determined that he died several hours before he was found Wednesday at 12:30 a.m. by his wife Cornelia at their home at 2001 S. Lakeshore Dr. She had last seen him around 5 p.m.

Graveside services will be held today in his hometown of Wilmington. He will be cremated and his ashes buried at Oakdale Cemetery in Wilmington.

Councilman Bill Thorpe spoke of Broadfoot as a "colorful figure" who loved Chapel Hill.

"I enjoyed serving with him because I knew exactly where he was coming from," Thorpe said. "He was a very hard worker who was also highly opinionated."

Under Chapel Hill's charter, the council will appoint a successor to serve the rest of Broadfoot's term. He would have been up for re-election this fall.

For the record

The article "Kuralt to speak at '85 commencement" in yesterday's DTH should have reported that Charles Kuralt will speak at graduation exercises May 12. The DTH regrets the error.
