Lacrosse

acuse. It was only the eighth loss for Hopkins in the 1980s; North Carolina (4-2) has been responsible for five of the eight.

Neither coach would give the other potential locker room inspiration material. A post-season match-up was just too probable.

"We didn't play as well as we can, but a lot of that's because of the competition," Scroggs said. "Give Hopkins a lot of credit for coming back and tying it up."
 "Today a better team beat us," Zimmerman said. "Or I should say, today we were outplayed."

 One had the distinct impression that Zimmerman was figuring on another 1985 meeting of North Carolina and Johns Hopkins. Possibly in Providence, R.I., on May 25 for the national championship.
