Human Rights Week Calendar

Sunday

5 p.m. Chuck Davis African-American Dance Ensemble, Great Hall, Student Union, 8 p.m. An Evening With George McGovern, Memorial

I p.m. Philosophy professor Douglas Long explains euthanasiaand its possible implications and infringements on human rights, 211 Student 2 p.m. Harrie Chamberlain, M.D., speaks on reducing diseases, hunger and premature death, 226 2:30 p.mCraig Calhoun and Pamela Delargy speak on hunger and human rights in Third World nations, with special emphasis on Ethiopia, 212 Student countries' defense budgets to prevent epidemic

3 p.m. UNC professor Donald Madison speaks on whether medical costs harbor injustice, 205

Student Union. 4 p.m. Garison Kaufman of the N.C. Lesbian and Gay Health Project speaks on the denial of civil liberties to AIDS victims, 211 Student Union.

4:30 p.mDr. Tom Blackburn speaks on the new "epidemic" of college student suicides, 206 Union. Dr. Richard Lucas speaks about the problems faced by Vietnam veterans, 226 Student Union. Dr. Robert Vanderberry discusses child abuse, its victims, causes and consequences, 226 Student

UNC College Republicans debate with the Women's Forum Committee about whether there should be a pro-life or pro-choice constitutional amendment, 106 Carroll Hall.

Tuesday

10:30 a.mThe Mona Video," a music video inspired by the persecution of members of the Baha'i Faith. Student Union. The video will be shown until

1:30 p.mForum on the death penalty presented by Amnesty International of Group '84, 211 Student 2 p.m. Debate on affirmative action between Robert

Cannon, UNC's affirmative action officer, and Daniel Pollitt, UNC law professor, 212 Student 2:30 p.m.Views on capitalism, socialism and commu and their bearings on human rights, presented by economic professors William Darity, Steven Rosenfields and Roger Waud, Gerrard Hall 3 p.m. Local ministers speak on what local churches are doing for the needy and how others can get involved, 211 Student Union. Shamsi Sedaghat, a native Iranian, speaks from personal experience on the role of women in Iran 4:30 p.mA panel on sexual discrimination at UNC with two female professors and two female undergraduates, 212 Student Union. UNC economics professor Arthur Benavie speaks

Student Union. 5 p.m. Dean Hayden Renwick hosts a dinner discussion about racial problems on campus and his past experiences working for civil rights. North Banquet Room, Lenoir Hall.

on injustice caused by unemployment, 205

5:30 p.m.Annie Mae: Brave Hearted Woman, a film which examines past and current treatment of the

7 p.m. The UNC Chaplain's Association presents a combination of dramatic readings, songs and liturgical dance, Great Hall, Student Union. C.J. Reilly and Edward Master of Pornography Awareness discuss the treatment of homosexuals in gay and straight pornography. Student Union

Dr. John Krynski will speak on solidarity in Poland, 100 Hamilton Hall. Susan Harjo, a citizen of the Cheyenne and Arapaho tribes and executive director of the National Congress of American Indians, speaks on the experinces of native Indians in North Carolina and the United States, Memorial Hall. 8:30 p.mS. Rahnani will speak on the problems of being a Baha'i in Iran, 226 Student Union.

Wednesday

12:30 p.nPolitical science professor Jack Donnelly speaks on the United Nations and evaluates how it has approached the protection of human rights, 211

1:30 p.m.A St. Thomas More Church priest speaks about the Catholic Church's role in harboring Central American aliens, 212 Student Union.

A discussion of Palestinian Arabs and whether their being without a country constitutes a human rights abuse, led by history professor Herbert Bodman, 206 Student Union. Students who visited Nicaragua in the summer of 1985 give their viewpoints, encounters and ons of the country and its state of affairs, 2:30 p.m.UNC history department Chairman Michael Hunt discusses appropriate U.S. policy at the Reagan-Gorbachev summit meeting and the implications of the meeting, 205 Student Union, 205 Student Union. 3 p.m. History professor Joseph Tulchin speaks on human rights abuses in Argentina, Brazil, Chile and Paraguay and on possible U.S. foreign policy responses, 211 Student Union.

3:30 p.mPablo Matue of the political science department and Juan Valiente of the computer science department discuss U.S. policy in Central America and human rights abuses there, 212

4 p.m. John Sylvester, retired diplomat, former State Department employee in Japan and Vietnam and current director of the N.C. Japan Center at N.C. State, speaks on whether covert operations inevitably cause human rights abuses, 226 4:30 p.mDuke political science professor Sheridan Johns speaks on the history of apartheid and its current tatus, 205 Student Union

Oxfam 24-hour fast for world harvest begins,

210 Student Union. Date and acquaintance rape program, 211-212 Student Union. Dr. Yonas Deressa describes the Soviet Union's involvement with the hunger crisis in Ethiopia, 209 Manning Hall. A speaker and slide show on the human rights situation and the changing political tides in the Philippines, 206 Student Union.

7:30 p.m. Sanctuary," a PBS documentary examining the plight of Central American Refugees in the United States and the sanctuary movement that has grown in response, 205 Student Union.

A panel discussion on the appropriate U.S response to apartheid, 106 Carroll Hall. The discussion will be followed by a vigil, starting at Carroll Hall and ending at Silent Sam.

A forum on whether free speech always should be guaranteed, 205 Student Union. Campus Y Director Zenobia Hatcher-Wilson. Associate Director George Gamble and copresidents Roger Orstead and Kim Reynolds talk about the Campus Y's history and commitment and how student participation can make a difference on campus and in the community, 208

Religious right expert Michael Lienesch speaks on the religious right's attitudes on freedom of expression, 205 Student Union.

Political science professor Robert Rupen discusses the Helsinki accords, the related flurry of Soviet dissent activity, the repression of this dissent and the current status of protest in the USSR, 206 Student Union.

Killing Us Sofily explores the image of women in modern advertising, Union Auditorium. 5 p.m., Gregory Meyjes, international singer, brings music from around the world in different languages, Wesley Foundation. 7 p.m. U.S. senatorial candidate David Funderburk speaks on the lack of freedom of expression in Eastern European nations, 106 Carroll Hall. 7:30 p.mReading of dissent poetry from around the world, Internationalist Books, 408 Rosemary St.

Tom Wicker, UNC alumnus and associate editor and columnist for the New York Times, speaks on freedom of expression and human rights.

Campus Calendar

Thursday

3:30 p.m. Carolina Eckankar Students Organization hosting open forum on "Law of Karma: Threat or Promise?," in 213

4:00 p.m. Black Student Movement holding a mandatory publicity committee meeting in the Upendo

6:00 p.m. Anti-Apartheid Support Group showing "You Have Struck a Rock, in 205-206 Union.

700 p.m. UNC Model United Nations Club meeting to preparefor the upcoming high schools' Model UN, in Frank Porter Graham Lounge.

UNC Pre-Law Club giving a practice LSAT in 103 Greenlaw. Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship-South Campus meeting in 224 Union. David Bowen will speak on "God's Faithfulness." Everyone welcome.

UNC Outing Club meeting in 211 Union. Everyone welcome. 8:00 p.m. Carolina Gay and Lesbian Association showing "Word is Out: Stories of Some of Our Lives," a documentary, in 111 Murphey.

Campus Christian Fellowship hosting an evening of fun at the house at 204 Glenburnie Street. Call 942-8952 for information. Greatful Dead Society meeting in the Great Hall.

8:30 p.m. Fellowship of Christian Athletes holding "Fun and Games," in the Great Hall.

Students for America meeting in 226 Union. Guest Tom Fetzer of Jefferson Marketing presents video seminar on "Hunt/ Helms

Friday

7:00 p.m. Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship-Off-Campus hosting speaker Dr. Pauline Hamilton, a retired missionary to China, at Chapel Hill Bible Church

Saturday

9:00 a.m. Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship hosting speaker Dr. Pauline Hamilton, a retired missionary to China, at a "Missing Prayer Breakfast" in 224 Union.

9:30 a.m. Anglican Student Fellowship invites everyone to breakfast in the Student Commons of the Chapel of the Cross. 6:00 p.m. FOCUS-Inter-Varsity Gradu-

Brooks, to speak on "Time Management," at 435 Ridgefield Road. Call 942-5207 for ate Chapter hosting Dr. Fred

Sunday

11:00 a.m. Campus Christian Fellowship holding a worship service in the Union. Call 942-8952 for rides. 4:00 p.m. UNC Glee Club's Sacred Choral Concert will be presented at University Presbyterian Church. UNC Lab Theatre presenting Ingmar Bergman's "Nora," adapted from Ibsen's "A Doll House," in 06 Graham Memorial. The show will be presented

For the needed kick in the butt

By STEVE AUSTIN

Syndicated Columnist Dear Steven: I've been thinking about buying some motivational tapes to help me with my attitude toward school. Have you ever used them? Are they worth it?

Lacking Initiative in the Triangle

Dear Lacking: I've never used them because I don't need them. I have the following taped to my blackboard should I find myself needing a kick in the butt: "Vision: It's not just looking at the present. It's seeing into the future. It's not just having goals. It's having strategies to achieve them and the courage to pursue them. It's being so convinced you're right that other people believe you're right, too. It's feeling that failure is simply unacceptable." What I do know about the tapes, however, is that you usually can purchase them on a trial basis, and many people swear by them, including a few of my friends. Check with your library to see if they have any to lend. Keep your chin up.

straight up

made from?

again at 8:00 p.m.

Dear Steven: While sitting at a lunch counter recently I heard a man order an egg cream. It was served in a tall glass and wasn't alcoholic. He seemed to really enjoy it. What on earth is it

- Curious

Dear Curious: Mix a generous portion of chocolate syrup with milk and seltzer or club soda. Adjust the ingredients to your own taste and you'll float away into heaven as you imagine yourself sitting at the soda fountain of a drugstore in New York City. No eggs, I promise.

Copyright 1985 by Steven J. Austin. Got a problem, question or comment? Write to Steven the Bartender in care of the DTH.

coupon . . . for you or your guest . . . for another SUPERCUT, FREE!! ... now or anytime.

Please accept this as your introduction to SUPERCUTS. We know your're going to like us.

JUPERCULA

CHAPEL HILL 141 Rams Plaza (919) 967-0226

DURHAM (Regency Plaza) (919) 489-7674 DON'T MISS OUR FIRST

WAREHOUSE Performance, America's foremost supplier of quality

SATURDAY ONLY! 9 am - 5 pm

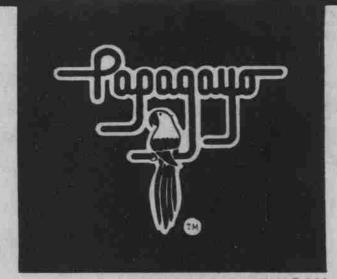

first retail sale in the triangle. We're cutting our already low prices just six weeks before Christmas! $39.95

bicycling goods is having its

Cateye Solar Computer ...... $49.95 New Balance Running Shoes ...... $54.95 $25.00 Bata Touring Shoes ...... $32.95 $ 9.95 $13.95 Lycra Cycling Shorts ...... $19.95

Plus Big Savings On . . . Thule and LP Car Top Carriers, Pumps, Tires, Cannondale Items Trainers, Wool and Lycra Tights, and much more!

GOURMET MEXICAN

NEW ENGLAND CLAM CHOWDER $1.50 A hearty blend of clams, potatoes, onion, celery

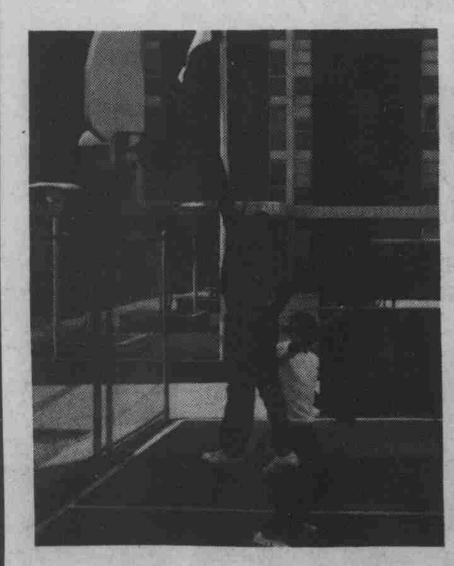

MC VISA Univ. Account

M-F 11:30-2

Tele. 967-7145

What can you do with the 192 hours of free time you'll earn by living in Granville Towers?

Well, you could get into shape at our convenient recreation facilities.

Apply now for accommodations

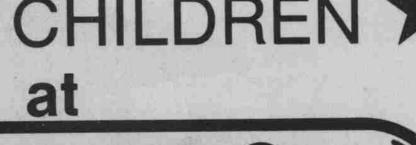

Granville Towers

available in January GRANVILLE TOWERS UNIVERSITY SQUARE 929-7143

MEET SOAP STAR LAURENCELAU

NCNB Plaza

"GREG NELSON" on ALL MY CHILDREN

Sunday, Nov. 17 11:30 am-12:30 pm

Franklin St.

Across from Fowler's