

SPORTS

Strong gym squad opens vs. Wolfpack

By B. A. VELLIQUETTE
Staff Writer

The UNC gymnastics team begins their season today at Fetzer gym when they meet N.C. State at 7 p.m. But the Tar Heels are expected to be so strong this year that the real competition may take place among themselves.

Although there is only one senior returning this year, Coach Derek Galvin expects this year's team to be his best ever. "Our goal is to repeat as a top 20 team and move closer to breaking into the top ten this year," he said.

"Everybody on the team is stronger this year," Galvin said. Returning this year is sophomore Stacy Kaplan, who was the ACC all-around champion last year, and sophomore Missy Schaffner, who was second in the all-around last year. Both have added difficulty to their routines and should continue to lead the ACC.

The returning senior is Tammy Gilbert, who is co-captain along with Kaplan. "Tammy looks stronger than at any time since she's been here," Galvin said.

Three freshmen are expected to make an immediate impact on the team. Kristin Bilotta, considered one of the top ten gymnasts in the nation, will challenge in the all-around competition. How impressive is she? Her floor exercise routine will contain two double back somersaults.

Amy Bincarousky, who is the Eastern United States vaulting champion, and Libby Tate, who won the balance beam competition in the Blue-White meet, should also create excitement when they compete.

"We have so much more depth than we have ever had," Galvin said. "That puts us in a better position than we have ever been in in the past."

unc athlete of the week

Dammit, Brad, how many times are we going to have to give this thing to you? The sports staff tried its collective best to come up with someone else who had been as particularly outstanding as Daugherty, but unfortunately failed in a nearly impossible quest. Brad scored his career high against Fordham, hitting 13-of-14 shots and seven-of-eight free throws for 33 points to go along with 11 rebounds.

He continued the surge against Wake Forest, pouring in 31 points, 21 in the first half before he decided to be merciful. That's a 32-point average in the last two games, not counting the Maryland game, which was played after this page went to press.

There are several deserved honorable mentions from this week. Tia Poindexter emerged as a new star in the women's basketball upset of Tennessee, and Pam Leake scored 32 in the women's upset of Radford. Also, Jason Woo and Scott Echols did well in the weekend fencing meet. We'd be amiss not to include John Swofford, who will finally be able to stop making excuses for the SAC and sit back and watch it finally open this Saturday.

Brad Daugherty

Tar Heels pin N. Iowa

By BOB YOUNG
Staff Writer

The North Carolina wrestling team swept through Northern Iowa, losing in only two weight classes, to post a convincing 28-6 win Tuesday night in Carmichael Auditorium.

"Everybody wrestled well," said UNC coach Bill Lam, "but I think the wins at 134 and 142 were the ones that really keyed the win for us."

Those wins, by Enzo Catullo and Lenny Bernstein, respectively, brought the Tar Heels from a 3-3 tie to an 11-3 lead.

Catullo, got a takedown against Northern Iowa's Jeff Sondgeroth late in the first period and kept him on his back long enough to collect three near fall points. Catullo came out of the period with a 6-2 lead and never looked back as he went on to a 9-4 win.

Then, it was time for Catullo's roommate, Bernstein, to face the Cougars' Kurt Shedenhelm, who had compiled a 30-6-1 record so far this season. Like Catullo, Bernstein got a first-period takedown and a near fall to take a 5-2 lead. Bernstein then scrubbed the mats with Shedenhelm in the second and third periods to walk away with a 20-6 win.

Other winners for UNC were Al Palacio (3-2 at 118), Jon Cardi (7-2 at 150), Rob Koll (14-3 at 158), Tad Wilson (16-6 at 167), Tracey Davis (7-4 at 190) and Stacey Davis (5-2 at heavyweight).

"I think our successes this past weekend (at the Virginia Duals) really helped with our confidence tonight," Bernstein said. "Before the match we were all very loose and relaxed in the lockerroom. We weren't taking them lightly, we were just ready to go out and wrestle."

Maryland

from page 1

up nine, but there was a lot of time left." Patience manifested itself in North Carolina's scalding 70 percent shooting from the floor in the second half.

Immediately, North Carolina went to work. Steve Hale hit a jumpshot then Lebo canned two others to cut Maryland's lead to 58-55.

After a great battle under the Maryland basket during which the ball bounced off the glass at least five times, Kenny Smith (10 assists) led Hale with a pass for a lay-up and a 65-65 tie with 4:13 left.

North Carolina went into a trapping full-court pressure defense that caused some Maryland turnovers, and its zone defense forced the Terrapins to shoot from outside. Perimeter jumpers that had fallen earlier in the game began missing in the last five minutes. Maryland shot an abysmal 38 percent in the second half thanks to the cold shooting of Bias and Keith Gatlin.

After Warren Martin hit two free throws and Hale hit a 17-footer with 2:31 left, UNC led 69-65. A long Bias jumpshot missed with 26 seconds left, and when UNC's Brad Daugherty came down with the rebound, the Terrapin upset hopes were finished.

North Carolina is 17-0, 3-0 in the ACC, while Maryland is 10-5, 0-3. "We certainly feel very fortunate to have won," coach Smith said, "Maryland can play with anyone, and I mean that. That's a tribute to Charles (Driesell) and his team."

Maryland had taken a 42-39 lead into halftime due mainly to its inside game, which accounted for 24 points. The Terrapins were 12-for-13 from the foul line in the half. North Carolina was 1-for-1.

Maryland took its biggest lead of the half at 21-14 when Terry Long hit an inside shot at the 10:31 mark, was fouled by Kevin Madden and made the conversion for a three-point play.

UNC battled back with a varied offensive attack due mainly to Lebo's 12 points. It was a court-long drive and score by Lebo that gave UNC a 39-38 lead with a little more than a minute left.

In the second half the Tar Heels shut down Maryland's inside game. "The main difference between the first half and the second half was boxing out," UNC forward Joe Wolf said. "They got too many rebounds in the first half. In the second half, everyone hit the boards."

Hale agreed. "These type of games build character," Hale said. "Our number one emphasis for the game was to box out, and when it counted tonight, we crashed the boards."

But most of the talk after the game centered around Lebo, whose grace under pressure resulted in a career scoring high. "My shot felt smooth," Lebo said. "I felt like whenever I took a shot, it would go in."

UNC (71) — Wolf 2-3 0-0-4, Popson 1-3 0-0-2, Daugherty 7-14 1-1-15, Hale 5-8 0-0-10, K. Smith 4-10 0-0-8, Martin 2-4 4-4-8, Hunter 0-0 0-0-0, Lebo 9-10 0-0-18, Madden 3-4 0-0-6 33-56 5-5-71.
Maryland (67) — Bias 9-20 4-2-20, Lewis 5-10 1-1-11, Long 2-3 3-5-7, Gatlin 4-13 0-1-8, Baxter 6-12 3-4-15, Johnson 0-0-2-2, Jones 2-3 0-0-4, 27-61 13-17-67.

Remember family or friends with Special Occasion, Get Well or Memorial cards.

American Heart Association
WERE FIGHTING FOR YOUR LIFE

plitt THEATRE GUIDE CAROLINA
$2.75 First Show Before 6:00
HEAD OFFICE
3:00 • 5:00 PG-13
101 DALMATIANS G
3:30 • 5:30 • 7:30 • 9:30
TRANSYLVANIA 6-5000
7:00 • 9:00 PG

CHAPEL HILL PLAZA 3
ELLIOT ROAD at E. FRANKLIN
967-4737
$250 TIL 6:00 PM EVERYDAY!

ROBERT REDFORD/MARYL STREEP
OUT OF AFRICA (PG)
3:30 • 7:45 ONLY!

MICHAEL DOUGLAS
A CHORUS LINE (PG-13)
3:00 • 5:15 • 7:30 • 9:45

IT'S NOT JUST A GAME ANYMORE!
CLUE (PG)
3:30 • 5:30 • 7:30 • 9:30
SHOW TIMES FOR TODAY ONLY!

VARSAITY 1 & 2
EAST FRANKLIN 967-8665
2 Golden Globe Award Nominations
BARYSHNIKOV HINES
WHITE NIGHTS
2 • 4:30 • 7 • 9:30 in STEREO PG-13 2:10 • 4:15 • 7:10 • 9:15 JBL HiFi

Warm Up with authentic espresso and cappuccino at Chapel Hills GELATO D'ORO, beside the Varsity!
Soon: Kurosawa's RAN, Allman's FOOL FOR LOVE

EARN up to $120<sup>00</sup>
per month

Donate plasma and study while you help others.

SERA-TEC BIOLOGICALS

Hours
8:30-5:00
109½ E. Franklin
942-0251

Campus Calendar
Wenesday
9:30 a.m. Alpha Phi Omega hosting Book Co-Op Cash Back, until 3:30 p.m., 211-213 Union.	Orientation/Resume Writing Workshop for all majors, 210 Hanes.
11:00 a.m. Student Government Publicity Committee sponsoring Campus Awareness Day in the Fast-break area, Union, until 2:00 p.m. for students interested in running for office.	4:45 p.m. Association of International Students meeting to talk on Japan, 224 Union. All members welcome.
Student Television sponsoring a table at Campus Awareness Day in the Fast-break area, Union, until 2:00 p.m. for students interested in STV.	5:00 p.m. Student Television holding an open meeting, 206 Union. Creative people interested in camera and publicity work needed.
2:00 p.m. University Career Planning and Placement Services hosting an Orientation/Resume Writing Workshop for Business Majors, 306 Hanes.	6:00 p.m. Chimera UNC's Fantasy and Science Fiction Club, holding song rehearsals in Great Hall, Union. Accompaniment provided while solos and groups rehearse.
3:30 p.m. University Career Planning and Placement Services hosting an	7:00 p.m. Student Television holding a mandatory meeting for Video Yearbook staff, South Gallery Meeting Room, Union.
	Carolina Comic Book Club meeting in Union. Check desk for room number.
	Senior Class Gift Committee meeting, 226 Union.
	University Career Planning and Placement Services hosting a presentation by Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Club Room, Carolina Inn. For interviewees only.

Dillon School, Campus Y, a state facility for troubled adjudicated youth, holding an informational meeting for all students interested in volunteering this semester, 224 Union.

UNC Scuba Club meeting to discuss Spring Break Trip, 303 Woollen Gym.

7:15 p.m. Black Student Movement holding a Candlelight Vigil and Processional to honor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., beginning in the Pit and proceeding to Memorial Hall.

7:30 p.m. East Asian Studies Curriculum showing the first of six feature films Qui Jin, of "China in Film," 101 Greenlaw.

UNC Men's Crew meeting for old and perspective new members, Union snack area.

UNC Gaming Society meeting, Union. Check desk for room #. Members please attend.

8:00 p.m. Great Commission Students presents a Rock 'n Roll Video Close-Up. Come to either Grimes Lounge or Hinton James Lounge.

Students International Health Forum holding a "Transcendental Meditation Program," introductory lecture, 218 Union.

8:30 p.m. 1986 Yackety Yack meeting, 106 Union. Mandatory for coordinators and office staff.

10:00 p.m. Anglican Student Fellowship invites all students to celebrate the Eucharist at the Chapel of the Cross.

The World's Most Celebrated Interpreter of Franz Liszt

EARL WILD

Wednesday, January 22 8:00 P.M.

Memorial Hall

Reserved Seating $12.00
Season Tickets $27.00

Available at Carolina Union Box Office

Rise to the top.

You're a nuclear-trained officer. It goes beyond special. It's elite! And your status reflects a job that demands your best. Proving your skills at the heart of today's nuclear-powered Navy.

Over half of America's nuclear reactors are in the Navy. That adds up to more years of experience with reactors than any company in the world, and it means working with the most sophisticated training and equipment anywhere.

There's no boot camp. College graduates get Officer Candidate School leadership training, and a year of graduate-level training in the Navy Nuclear Power School. The rewards are topnotch, too. Generous bonuses upon commissioning and also upon completion of nuclear training. Sign up while still in college and you could be earning $1,000 a month right now.

Be one of the most accomplished professionals in a challenging field. Lead the adventure as an officer in the Nuclear Navy. Contact your Navy Officer Recruiter or call 1-800-327-NAVY.

NAVY OFFICER.
LEAD THE ADVENTURE.

TONIGHT AT RASCALS
Don't Miss
the BRICE STREET BAND
9:00 pm (doors open at 8:00 pm)
Advance Tickets on Sale Today $3.00 Members, $4.00 Guests
Giving You The Best in Entertainment!

T-BONE'S STEAK HOUSE

Relax every Tuesday and Wednesday Evenings with delicious cooked-to-order New York Strips!

FREE appetizers with every meal, and table service with a smile!

We'll be Sizzlin every Tuesday and Wednesday from 5:00-7:00 pm
South Dining Hall of Lenoir