A SUPPLEMENT TO THE DAILY TAR HEEL

COVER: Team Sports Gambling

Sports Editor Scott Fowler investigates a darker side of athletics, where one student bookie estimates that more than $100,000 is wagered by UNC students per weekend.....4

Admissions

Annie Towe interviews Richard Cashwell, director of admissions, the man your transferring NCSU friends may want you to bribe.....3

South of the border

The new addition to the Chapel Hill restaurant scene is Chili's. According to Beth Buffington, it's worth the drive out 15-501.....6

A new music trend?

Jason Bott reviews a new album by a Rastafarian hardrock punk band. No, I'm not kidding.....6

All's fare

Clip and save this week's happenings for future reference.....7

For the Record

A feature on the UNC Glee Clubs in last Thursday's Omnibus incorrectly identified the conductor in the photo as Michael Tamte-Horan. The conductor pictured is Dr. Hugh Sanders, a choral music clinician and director at Baylor University in Texas. Sanders conducted a choral workshop on Saturday for which the mixed and Women's Glee Cub performed. The DTH regrets the error.
