COVER STORY:

4 Next faze. New Wave. Dance Craze. Any way. It's still rock 'n' roll . . . The '50s brought us be-bop. The '60s ushered in the British invasion. With the 70s came punk, hard rock and . . . (do we have to say it?) disco. And the 80s? Assistant editor Cathy McHugh explores where musical trends are headed in today's world of CDs, progressive college rock stations and expanding musical genres.

3 For all the people who want to fill the world with silly love songs, this one's for you. Arts editor Elizabeth Ellen gives a preview of WXYC's upcoming emission, the K-Tel Ronco Solid Gold Spectacular Extravaganza. Take a trip down memory lane as disc jockeys Carolyn Hochmuth and Niklaus Steiner tell about all those old favorites. Don't miss those crazy Village People, the Bee Gees and dreamboat Shaun Cassidy. Oh, the joys and the pains of those Boogie Wonderlandish days! And they're calling it culture. Not available in stores.

6 The man from Texas is still raggin' on Jim and Tammy. Get the real facts from Joe Bob's exclusive interview with Jimbo and the family. Many excuses, some sex tips and a bit of good Christian advice included. Drive-In Movie of the Week? It's "Witchboard" — a flick which combines a weeje board, a rainbow-haired punk-psychic chic and . . . well, isn't enough said? Lots of Fu action.

7 Maybe it has been Term Paper Plethora week in your life. Perhaps your main squeeze has left you and you need something to do to forget about the whole deal. Or maybe you're just tired of watching your pet Slinky sulk on the powdertable. The cure for cultural deprivation is here. See Week's Fare for all the Triangle happenings to come this week.

Before you even start reading, we want to warn you against a possible heart attack-provoking element in this issue. Due to lack of space, Graffiti, our regular column of unusual sayings, will not run this week. Hold on until next week, when Memsy Price reveals song lyric graffiti.
