

Sports

DTH/Jonathan Serenico

UNC's Jim Stone is thrown out while trying to steal in the Tar Heels' 10-6 comeback victory Sunday

Golf team rallies to capture Tar Heel Invitational again

By SCOTT GREIG
Staff Writer

The UNC men's golf team used its home course advantage and strong final round performances by sophomores Peter Brennan and Brendan Kennedy to take the team title in the Tar Heel Invitational at Finley Golf Course Sunday.

UNC, with a score of 861, topped Tennessee (868) and Duke (875) and nine other teams to repeat as tournament champions for the fifth year in a row (its sixth Tar Heel Invitational championship in seven years). Top individual honors went to Tennessee's Gibby Gilbert, who shot a final round 71 to end up at 5-under-par 211 for the tournament.

The Tar Heel Invitational was the last warm-up tournament for North Carolina's golfers before next week's Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament in Greensboro.

Kennedy, of Orlando, Fla., had his score down to 4-under-par at one point Sunday, but faltered slightly. He held his game together enough to bring in a final round of 2-under-par 70. Brennan, of Savannah, Ga., also had a 70 on Sunday to tie Kennedy for UNC's low final round after a showing that UNC coach Devon Brouse described as good, consistent golf.

"Both Peter's and Brendan's rounds were critical for us," Brouse said. "After the first two rounds, we needed good showings from both of them."

Team leaders Greg Parker and John Hughes led the Heels into the final round with scores of 5-under-par 139 and 3-under-par 141, respectively. Parker finished the tournament tied for second-place individually with Guilford's Rod Odum at 3-under-par 213 after a final round of 74. Hughes, who carded a final round 1-over-par 73, finished tied for fourth-place individually with Tulsa's Andre Bossert.

Parker, who started the day tied for the individual lead, was grabbed by the two par-3 holes on the back nine, both of which he bogied.

Playing with Brossert and Gilbert, Parker's par-3 troubles began on number 15, where he was the only member of the threesome on the green after their tee shots. Parker had a lengthy lag putt from the back part of the green to put himself in a position to par the hole, but it rolled by farther than he wanted and his ensuing par putt slid by the cup, leaving him a tap-in for bogey.

Two holes later, on the 17th hole, Parker's tee shot ran through the green and came to rest near the base of one of the surrounding bushes. His chip stopped on the back fringe of the green and he bladed a wedge to within a couple of inches of the cup. He kept the wedge in his hand and knocked in a bogey putt for the second time in three holes.

Those two lost strokes would prove to be the final margin of victory for Gilbert who, after tremendous saves from the sand traps on 15 and 17, parred both holes. Just to put a little icing on his round,

Gilbert knocked home a birdie putt on 18 under the watchful eyes of about 50 players and spectators who had gathered around the green.

Apart from Brennan and Kennedy, Brouse noted the final round play of sophomore Jim Sowerwine and newcomer Mitchell Perry, a Wake Forest transfer, as being instrumental in the Heel's victory.

"Those four guys (Kennedy, Brennan, Sowerwine and Perry) came on strong today and made up for what I guess you'd call lackluster play the first two days," Brouse said. "Everybody showed me that they're working real hard and making up for the mistakes that they make on the course, and that's what a team is all about."

Perry, of Fayetteville, had the rollercoaster round of the tournament on Sunday. Following back-to-back eagles on the inward nine, Perry ran into trouble and carded a score of 5-over-par on the last three holes after two bogeys (on 16 and 17) and a out-of-bounds-aided triple bogey on 18.

Afterwards, Brouse had good feelings about the upcoming ACC tournament.

"I feel confident about our chances to do well in Greensboro," Brouse said. "I don't know about the lineup for the tournament yet. I'm going to have to think more about that, but I'm sure we'll field a strong team, especially after the performances I saw today by our bottom four guys."

Heels (grand) slam UVa., 10-6

By JAMES SUROWIECKI
Sports Editor

There are times when sport recalls the drama in its purest form, when it recalls the drama as a forum for one actor's solitary confrontation with his antagonists. Sunday at Boshamer Stadium was such a time, as UNC's Chris Lauria was granted a surprise moment in the spotlight and responded in Homeric fashion.

Lauria was called on to pinch hit for Todd Nichols with the bases loaded and one out in the ninth inning. The score was tied. All Lauria needed was a fly ball deep enough to get the runner home from third. He ended up with something slightly more exhilarating.

The stocky junior quickly worked Virginia reliever Tommy Yevak to a 2-0 count. Forced to throw a strike, Yevak made the mistake of challenging Lauria with a high fastball, and Lauria showed him the error of his ways by crushing a grand slam deep to left-center field.

"I've been struggling as of late, so I wanted the hit bad," Lauria said. "I was looking for a fastball, because he had to give me something to hit. I really like pinch hitting and I like that situation. I love the pressure."

Lauria would have never felt that pressure had UNC not rallied from a 6-2 deficit. The Tar Heels fell behind early, as starter Dave Trautwein walked shortstop Bill Narleski, balked him to second and then yielded a run-scoring single to Kent Savedge.

A run in the first and another in the second put UNC up 2-1. But in the third, an error by second baseman Dave Arendas set the stage for Savedge, who delivered a fine soliloquy of his own in the form of a sharp two-run double. Two innings later, Trautwein lost his stuff and his place on the mound.

With a runner on first and one out, Cavalier left fielder Tim Myers singled. Narleski then sliced a ball down the right field line which Devy Bell futilely dived for and came up without. By the time Bell recovered, Narleski was comfortably on third and two runs crossed the plate. Trautwein recovered to fan Savedge, but then gave up a single to Chris Kughn that sent Narleski across the plate and UNC coach Mike Roberts to the hook.

Southpaw Doug Torborg was

Roberts' choice, albeit a surprising one in light of how many innings were left to play. Torborg pitched brilliantly, though, going 4 1/3 innings and retiring every batter he faced.

"Coach had said he would go to me first, so I wasn't too surprised when he did," Torborg said. "I felt good and my arm was pretty strong."

After he got the final out of the fifth inning, Torborg pitched the rest of the game with the score tied. That was because the Tar Heels wasted no time in evening things up. IN the bottom of the fifth, catcher Jesse Levis, who was 3-for-4 on the day, led off with a single. Jim Stone was hit by a pitch, and a fielder's choice set up Steve Mrowka's sacrifice fly.

Wunderkind shortstop Darin Campbell followed with a run-scoring double, and after Howard Freiling walked, Devy Bell laced a shot that evaded the diving left fielder for a two-run double.

Bell's double made the score 6-6, and prepared the scene for Lauria, who came through with a performance which one can only say was worthy of Olivier.

Tennis teaches Terps what 6-1 means

By LANGSTON WERTZ
Staff Writer

Rain, forfeits and cancellations all characterized a tennis lesson taught to Maryland by the UNC men's tennis team on a Sunday of baseline strokes and power serves.

The baseline strokes, which sparked the Tar Heels to the 6-1 victory, came courtesy of UNC No. 1 seed Jeff Chambers. In a hardfought 7-5, 6-7 (7-9), 6-1 victory over Carlos Clazerie, Chambers used his patient groundstrokes to overcome the fierce net-rushing onslaught of Clazerie.

In the second set, Chambers came back from a 5-2 deficit to take a 6-5 lead. On set point, a Chambers backhand landed just out of bounds, according to Clazerie. The call was argued slightly by Chambers and drew some "oohs" and "ahhs" from the crowd of 200 at the Tennis Center. The call cost Chambers the set but poised him to take a relatively easy third set, 6-1.

The power came in the form of the Lendlesque service of No. 3 Eddie Stewart. Stewart powered Jim Dearman into a match of frustration with hard volleys, beautiful groundstrokes and a cannon of a serve, 6-2, 7-5. Dearman had taken a 5-4 lead in the second set, but with the crowd urging him on, Stewart pounded out a comeback to win his 18th straight match.

UNC's only loss came at the No. 2 slot where Maryland's Valerio Boccitto simply overpowered David Pollack, 6-4, 6-1. While teammates Don Johnson and Jimmy Weilbaeher took forfeits, No. 4 seed Mark DeMatteis defeated Maryland's Kenny Roshkoff, 6-2, 6-4.

April showers caused a cancellation of the No. 1 and 2 doubles matches, while Maryland forfeited its third match of the meet in the No. 3 doubles position.

With the victory, UNC improved its season record to 21 wins and 5 losses, 5-1 in the ACC. Maryland dropped to 5-16 overall and 2-4 in the ACC.

Mize outduels Norman, wins Masters

From Associated Press reports

It took Larry Mize two holes of sudden death to do it, but he nevertheless walked away from the ninth playoff in Masters Golf Tournament history to claim the sport's most prestigious title.

Mize's first symbolic green jacket came despite some of the most difficult obstacles possible. After getting into the playoff with two of the top golfers in the world, Seve

Ballesteros and Greg Norman, he also hit his second shot so far to the right of the green on the second sudden-death hole that he turned his back while the ball was still in the air.

The Columbus, Ga., native was not to be denied on this day, however, as Ballesteros fell on the first extra hole when he three-putted on the tenth green. Mize had a chance to win it all there, but his twelve-footer stopped within inches of the cup.

The duel was now between Mize and Norman, the Australian who had beaten him in six extra holes at last year's Kemper Open. Norman seemed to have the advantage when his second shot landed on the fringe, and Mize faced a difficult wedge shot just to keep from suffering the accurately described sudden-death.

Not only did Mize avoid the dreaded "death," but he passed it to the stunned Norman, who watched the chip shot land on the right side of the green and roll straight into the cup.

The victory was only the second of Mize's six-year PGA career. His last victory came at the 1983 Memphis Classic. The victory was worth $162,000 to the man who spent most of his youth in Augusta.

Scoreboard

Lacrosse

UNC 20, Maryland-Balt. County 3
UMBC 0 2 1 0-3
GOALS: UNC - Corey Gavitt 3, Chris Hein 3, Pat Welsh 2, Tim Welsh 2, Steve Huff, Brett Davy, John Szczypinski, Ted Brown, Joey Seivold, Gary Seivold, Rich Crawford, Chris Galgano, Andy Dunkerton, Rob Breiteneker. UMBC - Ray Ignacio, Todd Canby, Craig Parks. ASSISTS: UNC - P. Welsh 3, T. Welsh, Scott Cox, G. Seivold, Szczypinski. UMBC - Rick Fried, Tim Kiselinski. SHOTS: UNC 54, UMBC 21. SAVES: UNC - Auburn 4, Olinert 3. UMBC - Peter Lowe 12, Chris Mittel 5, Steve Gimble 0. FACEOFFS: UNC 12, UMBC 14. GROUND BALLS: UNC 53, UMBC 41. PENALTIES: UNC 7, UMBC 5. EXTRA-MAN GOALS: UNC 2.
Records: UNC 6-2, UMBC 3-7

Baseball

Saturday
(First game)
UNC 9, Maryland 6
Maryland 020 020 2-6 9 0
UNC 130 311 x-9 11 2
Rich Smith, Jim Anderson (5) and Preston

Warner, Michael Hoog, Doug Torborg (7) and Paul Devlin. Leading hitters: Maryland - Warner 3-4, 2 RBI. UNC - Darin Campbell 4-4, 4 RBI, HR, Steve Mrowka 2-3, 2 RBI, HR, Devy Bell 2-4, 2B.

Softball

UNC 2, ECU 0
(First game)
Winning pitcher: Virginia Augusta (16-2-1).
Game-winning RBI: Tracey Narwid

Women's Golf

Lady Paladin Invitational
At Greenville, S.C.
Team results - 1. Furman, 887; 2. LSU, 915; 3. Fla. International, 933; 4. Georgia, 925; 5. UNC, 934; 6. Indiana, 935; 7. Auburn, 954; 8. Ohio, 965; 9. Mississippi St., 977.
Individual leaders - 1. Dottie Pepper (Furman), 214; 2. Michelle Dobek (Fla. Int.), 223; 3. Missy Parker (LSU), 224.
UNC individuals - Suzy McGuire, 228; Donna

Andrews, 228; Katie Peterson, 229; Angela Wells 251; Julie Purdy, 265.

Track

Dogwood Relays
At Knoxville, Tenn.
Men's results - Sprint medley relay - Semifinals: 3rd, UNC, 3:33.94* (Donald Colson, Brad Sullivan, Brent Walker, Clive Harriott); Finals: 7th in 3:26.41; 400 hurdles - 8th, B. Walker, 52:51; 100 - 7th, B. Sullivan, 10:85.
Women's results - 1,500 - 9th, Holly Murray, 4:32.60; 400 hurdles - 4th, Jill Izziary, 1:00.60.
* - school record

Men's Golf

Tar Heel Invitational
Team results - 1. UNC, 861; 2. Tennessee, 868; 3. Duke, 875; 4. N.C. State, 878; 5. Tulsa, 880; 6. South Florida, 881; 7. USC, 883; 8. ECU, 889; 9. Guilford, 891; 10. Maryland, 901; 11. Temple, 919; 12. East Tenn. St., 949.
Leading individuals - 1. Gibby Gilbert (Tenn.), 211; 2. Greg Parker (UNC), 213 (won card playoff); 3. Rod Odum (Guilford), 213; 4. (tie) John Hughes (UNC) and Andre Brossert (Tulsa), 214.
Other UNC individuals - Brendan Kennedy, 220; Pete Brennan, 220; Jim Sowerwine, 222; Mitchell Perry, 226.

STUDENT DISCOUNT for new move-ins

Sign a new lease for one of Rock Creek's luxury apartments and receive a special student discount.

Rock Creek is located on the J-busline just 5 minutes from campus. You can live in comfort with lighted tennis courts, outdoor pool, indoor hot tub and weight room at your convenience.

Rock Creek is an all-adult community. Call us today for more information on your special student discount.

967-2111
Smith Level Road Carrboro

$1.50 off - Expires 6/30/87 - $1.50 off
FATS' TUESDAY
Present this Coupon When Ordering
$1.50 Off ANY DINNER ENTREE
TIJUANA FATS'
GREAT MEXICAN FOOD
403 W. Rosemary St. Chapel Hill 967-1466
$1.50 off --- with coupon --- $1.50 off

TAR HEEL SPORTS SHORTS
WEDNESDAY
LACROSSE
VS
Roanoke College
3:00 PM
FETZER FIELD
Hardee's

1987 College Graduates
Congratulations!
And Best Wishes From
Roses Stores, Inc.
A Successful future starts with a Successful Company.
Roses is the largest, fastest growing, regional Mass Merchandiser in the Southeast. We have doubled our sales volume to $1 Billion within the last 5 years, and projected figures show the same rate of growth over the next 5 years to $2 Billion by 1990. Roses currently operates over 200 stores, and plans to open an additional 25 stores per year throughout the Southeast.
THAT'S SUCCESS!
Because of this dramatic growth, we are currently seeking highly motivated, success oriented, college graduates to enter our proven Management Development Program which leads to an exciting career in Retail Management.
If you are looking for a successful future with unlimited opportunities, then we are looking for you!
For immediate consideration please send a brief letter of introduction and resume to:
ROSES STORES, INC.
P.H. ROSE BUILDING
HENDERSON, NC 27536
Attention: K. S. Newmann
College Recruiting Manager
ROSES
EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER - MALE/FEMALE

AMERICA'S NEW BUSINESS CHOICE
Standard features include:
• 640 KB RAM memory
• 20 MB internal hard disk
• Five IBM compatible I/O expansion slots
• MS-DOS 3.1 and GW-BASIC programming language
• Full Twelve/36 month warranty
• Serial and parallel ports
• AT-type keyboard
EPSON Equity II Plus
Base system prices from $2095
NEW EPSON GQ-3500 LASER PRINTER
From the most trusted name in printers. Impeccable print quality, versatile, easy-to-operate, and compatible with virtually all computers. $2195
EPSON Equity II
$1595
EPSON Leasing program available - Call for details!
DATA WAY INC.
967-7499 Chapel Hill • 851-1240 Raleigh
Carr Mill Mall, Carrboro • Monday-Saturday 10-6
Epson is a registered trademark of Seiko Epson Corporation. Equity is a trademark of Epson America Inc. IBM is a registered trademark of International Business Machines Corporation.

Keep your beautiful Spring Break Tan with special savings at Mr. Franko's
15 visits for $45<sup>00</sup> - 30 days
20 visits for $50<sup>00</sup> - 40 days
30 visits for $60<sup>00</sup> - 60 days
Mr. Franko's Hairstyling
University Mall 968-0600