

A professional guide to court partying at UNC

From staff reports

It's another hot football Saturday in Kenan Stadium. There are just a few seconds left in the third quarter and many of the die-hard Tarheel fans begin to file towards the exits. The score of the game makes no difference.

Many freshmen and others not familiar with Tarheel football Saturdays often wonder why and where everyone is going. After all, the Mike Man still has time for 15 or 20 more "Let's Get Naked" cheers.

What many of the newcomers don't know is that the game is just the opening act for the big event -- the Court Party.

Many people believe that there are no night games at Kenan because stadium lights would obstruct the view of the pine trees that border the upper deck. But the real reason that the games are in the daytime is probably because it allows for plenty of time for post-game court parties.

So as flasks start to empty, the crowd begins to stagger towards See COURT PARTIES page 25

DTH file photo

Little Fraternity Court in full swing during a typical court party . . .

I'm going to CORT!

"Why are we living like this when we could furnish this place at Cort Furniture Rental? ... And we could do it one of two ways!

"We could RENT OUR FURNITURE. Cort has fantastic prices, short and long term leases, wide selection of furniture to choose from, a purchase option and immediate delivery! We even GET FREE DELIVERY. That means this place could look great in time for our Beer Bash this weekend.

"If we want to BUY OUR FURNITURE Cort's Clearance Center is just the answer. We can save 30% to 70% on everything we need to furnish this place. And we GET A FREE LAMP WITH A PURCHASE OF 75.00 DOLLARS! Now we won't have to study (while supplies last) in the dark anymore.

CORT

Furniture Rental

5400 Chapel Hill Blvd.
Durham 929-5075

*Clearance Center
1819 New Hope Church Road
Raleigh 876-7550

3901 Western Blvd.
Raleigh 859-0644