

Heels take second place in ACC

From staff reports

The UNC baseball team finished second in the 15th annual ACC Baseball Tournament held last week in Greenville, S.C.

The fifth-seeded Tar Heels lost Sunday to favored Georgia Tech 6-2, leaving the bases loaded in the top of the ninth inning. Tech pitcher Scott Erwin recorded his 13th victory of the season against no losses, and Jim Poole recorded his third save of the tournament and eighth of the season.

The leading hitter for UNC in the title game was Jesse Levis, who went three-for-three with a double and two RBI's. Leading hitters for Tech were Ty Griffin (3-4, HR and 2 RBI's), Billy Parham (1-3, HR and 1 RBI) and Pat McGuire (3-5 and 1 RBI).

Poole struck out UNC's Chris DeFranco with the bases loaded on three straight sliders after falling behind in the count 2-0 to end the game.

UNC reached the finals by splitting a double-header with top-seeded Clemson on Saturday. The Tigers won the opening game 5-4, but the Tar Heels rallied later to take the nightcap 7-6, powered by the three-hit, 3 RBI performance of DeFranco.

The Tar Heels scored three runs in the first inning of the second game, sending Clemson's starting pitcher

Brian Barnes to an early shower.

The Tar Heels pounded out 12 hits against Tiger pitching en route to their victory, leading by as much as 7-2 after DeFranco scored on a squeeze bunt by Levis in the seventh inning.

Clemson staged a four-run rally in the top of the eighth inning, but it wasn't enough.

Carolina finished the season with a record of 34-27, and placed five players on the All-ACC Tournament Team: Darin Campbell, Ron Maurer, Jesse Levis, Tom Nevin and Chris DeFranco.
