

Week's Fare

A musical revue for the benefit of Charles House, a community adult day care center, will be held Saturday, May 21, at 8 p.m. in the Morehead Banquet Hall of the Morehead Planetarium.

This musical romp through songs of the 1950s and '60s will be performed by Razz Ma Tazz, a Greensboro-based song and dance troupe.

Tax-deductible tickets are $10 and are available from Chapel Hill Service League members at the Country Store in University Mall and at the door.

"Pathways in the Sky," a program examining how man and other creatures use the stars for navigation, will be shown daily through June 13 at 8 p.m., with weekend matinees at 1 and 3 p.m., at the Morehead Planetarium.

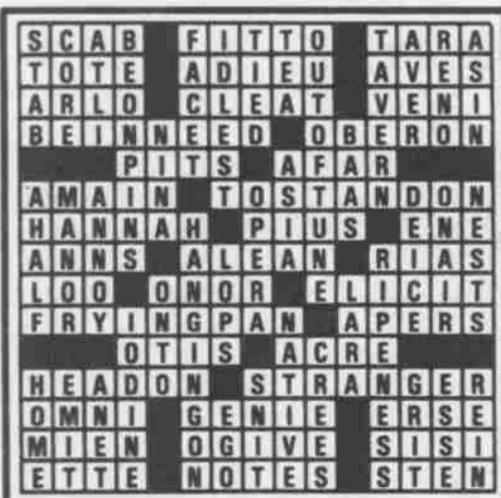

"To Fly," a film about man's attempts at flight, is shown at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday and 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. "The Great Barrier Reef," a film that examines the natural wonders of the Australian Reef, can be seen at 7 p.m. Saturday through Monday and Wednesday, and 2 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

"Sky Rambles," a live-narrated tour of the current night sky featuring visible planets and constellations with their associated myths, is presented every Friday at 7 p.m.

Admissions vary, but are about $3. Call 962-1237 for more information.

The C.G. Jung Society of the Triangle area will present Richard Underwood, Ph.D., speaking about "Jung and Western Philosophy: A Reading of Plato and Nietzsche in a Context of Jung's Depth Psychology," at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 20 and from 10 a.m. to noon May 21 at Binkley Baptist Church in Chapel Hill.
