The summer in cartoons

This is the last issue of weekly Tar Heel. The Daily Tar Heel will begin publication on Sept. 1. Letters to the editor should follow these specifications:

■ All letters and columns must be signed by the author(s), with a limit of two signatures per letter or column.

■ For ease of editing, all letters must be typed and double-spaced.

■ When submitting letters or columns, students should include name, year in school, major, phone number and home town. Other members of the University community should include similar information.

■ The DTH reserves the right to edit letters for space, clarity and vulgarity. Remember, brevity is the soul of wit.
