MOVIES AT THE UNION:

Thursday, Sept. 22 — Western Night

The Unforgiven (7 p.m.). This John Huston Western stars Audrey Hepburn as the adopted daughter of a wealthy Texas family, whom the Indians claim as one of their own. The excellent cast includes Burt Lancaster and Lillian Gish.

Ride The High Country (9:30 p.m.). From the director of "Straw Dogs" comes this beautifully made film about two gunfighters who are reunited after 20 years to ensure the safe delivery of a shipment of gold. One of the best of the Western genre. Stars Randolph Scott and Joel McCrea.

Friday, Sept. 23. — 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

Full Metal Jacket. There are two problems with this film. One, the two most interesting characters only make it through the first half of the film. Two, it was filmed in England, and it looks like it (even down to the road markings). Other than that it really is one of the most thoughtful and provocative war films ever made. Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23 and 24 — Midnight.

Monty Python and The Holy Grail. Like all of the Monty Python films, this one is funny for a total of about 10 minutes, while the rest of the film is a little trying. However, the funny parts are so much funnier and more inspired than anything else around that it is definitely worth the time.

Saturday, Sept. 24 — 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

The Trouble With Harry. This Hitchcock black comedy is about the problems that the murdered man of the title gives to an otherwise quiet New England town. Stars Dynasty's John Forsythe and, in her first film role, Shirley MaLaure.

Andrew McCarthy and Matt Dillon star in "Kansas," opening this weekend.

Sunday, Sept. 25 — 7 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

Personal Services. This is a semi-sequel to "Wish You Were Here" in two ways. Firstly it was written by David Leland (director of "Wish"), and secondly it continues the dramatization of the life of Cynthia Payne (albeit very loosely). It is perhaps a harsher film than the first; more bitter than sweet, and it concerns the setup of a brothel for older men in South London. Julie Walters ("Educating Rita") gives the performance of her career. Terry "Python" Jones directs to give the already bizarre story that extra touch.

Compiled by Richard Smith and James Dean, all by themselves.
