MOVIES AT THE UNION (all times p.m.)

Thursday, Nov. 17 — 7 and 9:30

Matewan Written and directed by John ("Eight Men Out") Sayles, this brilliant film about the 1920 "Matewan Massacre" between a group of miners and union bosses was 'one of the best' — and 'least seen' — movies of last year.

Friday, Nov. 18 — 6 and 9

The Last Emperor No doubt about it, Bertolucci put everyone to shame at last year's Oscars by winning everything in sight. It was beautiful and definitely deserved. This film about China's last Emperor, Pu Yi, is fascinating, absorbing and magnificent in a way that may never be seen again.

Friday, Nov. 18, and Saturday, Nov. 19 — Midnight

Repo Man Alex ("Sid and Nancy") Cox's totally cool film about a day in the life a repo man still looks great. Stars Emilio Estevez and Harry Dean Stanton, with music and gratuitous violence provided by The Circle Jerks.

Saturday, Nov. 19 — 7 and 9:30

To Catch a Thief This extremely entertaining — though less than suspenseful — Hitchcock jaunt stars Cary Grant as a reformed thief suspected of a jewel heist, and the incredibly beautiful Grace Kelly as his confidante.

Sunday, Nov. 20 — 7 and 9:30

Gigi This completely delightful musical about the exploits of a young woman in Paris won nine Oscars. It's got everything going for it, including great performances from Maurice Chevalier and Leslie Caron, impeccable direction by Vincente Minnelli, and a brilliant score by Lerner and Loewe.

Compiled by Richard Smith and James Dean.
