3 Turning it up a notch

In an effort to disguise weaknesses in several key areas (ball-handling, speed, etc.), Dean Smith's 28th UNC basketball team plans to shoot early and often.

12 How 'bout them Hoyas?

Georgetown's bruising lineup should cruise to Seattle, where the Hoyas will give John Thompson his second national title in five years. UNC is picked second.

15 NBA should be Hawkish

The acquisition of Moses Malone and Reggie Theus should be enough to put the Atlanta Hawks over the top this year.

16 Mr. Inside

A stress fracture will keep J.R. Reid out until early January, but once the big junior returns it should mean sheer terror for Tar Heel opponents.

By MIKE BERARDINO

17 Mr. Outside

Senior guard Jeff Lebo hopes to three-point shoot the Tar Heels to new heights in his final go-round in Chapel Hill. When it's crunch time, Lebo's usually there.

19 Bucking against a reputation

For three years now, opponents have been daring senior Steve Bucknall to shoot the basketball. This season, a "new" Bucknall plans to do just that.

20 Taking up the slack

With J.R. Reid out for the first six weeks of the season, junior Scott Williams needs to step up and assume more of the scoring burden against a tough non-conference schedule.

26 Rating the conferences

With all the talk over which league plays the best brand of basketball, here's an attempt to wade through the rhetoric and decide the question once and for all.
