Sports

Hunsaker, Ferguson help swimmers spash past Blue Devils

By MARK ANDERSON North Carolina versus Duke. OK,

 Basketball
Perdue era.
UNC looked invincible in the game's opening minutes, forcing seven Vandy turnovers and holding the Commodores to just one shot en route to a $15-0$ lead at the $16: 40$ mark. Scott Williams got things started whe contest. Lebo then followed with a steal and his first three-pointer of the night. King Rice then came up who finished off the break with a layup that made it $7-0$. Moments later, Madden worked free for a layup, drew the foul and added the free throw to give UNC a double-digit lead. A Vandy time out couldn' stem the tide, and Lebo sandwiched a free throw and a sandwiched a free throw and a backdoor layup around a Steve Bucknall breakaway gimmie. The Commodores finally scored at the $16: 30$ mark when center Frank the $16: 30$ mark when center Frank Kornet dunked behind the gambling UNC defense. But Williams scored wo more buckets, Pete Chilcutt o-back bombs from three-point land o make it $27-7$ just seven minutes into the contest.
Reserve forw
Reserve forward Morgan Wheat Vandy layup, but Williams tipped in a Lebo miss and, after a timeout, UNC's 6-3 senior guard made a steal near midcourt, dribbled to the right wing and nailed a pull-up trifecta that ran the Tar Heels' bulge to $32-9$. At that point, UNC appeared well on its way to a blowout of epic proportions.
But all good things must come to an end, even temporarily, and the Commodores gradually climbed back who finished with 16 points and eight rebounds, hit three straight hoops Wilcox swished a three-pointer UNC was still up by 16, at 42-26, points to pull within $42-37$ at the $1: 53$ mark. The teams swapped baskets ogo to the locker room with a 46The Tar Heels aided the Vandy comeback with a unusual stretch o from the UNC perspective, a shortterm philosophy which didn't sit well with Smith. "That's never been the plan; that's Loyola," Smith said "Certainly didn' expect our early onslaught to Continue against a well-coached pointed we didn't handle (the early lead) better. All of a sudden we went on our own. Even though I want quick shots, we dont want a hungry quick shots, we dont want a hungry team.
uy gosh, those four (shots) in row before I took the the timeout.

MIND WINDOWS, Inc. DON'T GET IN AN EXAM RUT...
GET A BRAIN TONE-UP!

Which Appealtothe
-Scientific - Skeptical -Spiritual Mind 25\% off memberships 2 memberships fortheprice of one!
X-MASGIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE 135E.FranklinSt. Chapelfill, $933-9900$ nesday night. Aboutnessed the UNC Natatorium witne womendominate the Blue Devils $153-$ 78. North Carolina's men followed 78. North Carelina's men followed suit, whipping Duke $152-80$. Souch Frank Comiort was impressed with the showing of both the young Tar Heel men and women Due to the domination of both team by freshmen and sophomores, only three seniors managed to scores. One of the most impressive area from page diving. For the men, sophomore achieved NCAA zone qualifying Nunzio Esposto won the one-meter scores. Nunzio Esposto won the one-meter event with 313.65 points. He was event with 13.65 points. He was followed by teammates Andy Hunter, Ted Hautua, and Chris Morris - all Ted Hautua, and Chris Morris - all four of whom had NCAA zone qualifying scores. In men's three-meter diving, Morris claimed first with 300.975 points.

Esposto and Hunter were second and Esposto and Hunter were second and third, respectively Freshman Heather Cleevely led the Tar Heel women divers, claiming the one-meter tittee with 260.175 points.
Juniors Valerie Corish and Martha Juniors Valerie Corish and Martha Williams, along with freshman Kristin Halter, claimed second through The Tar Heel men, led by freshman Eric Hunsaker and sophomore Marc Ferguson had five swimmers place in multiple events. Hunsaker, placing in three events, won both the 50 -yard three events, won both the 50 -yard freestyle (21.29) and the 100 -yard (47.50) free, in addition to being part of the winning 200 -yard medley relay of the winning 200-yard medley relay team. Ferguson, who matched his team. Ferguson, who matched his three three events, took the 10000-yard freestyle in $9: 34.16$, finished second freestyle in 9:34.16, finished second in the 50 -yard freestyle and placed fourth in the 100 -yard freestyle.

Campus Calendar

Campus Calendar

 Steve Martel and senior Chris Himebauch each placed in two events.
Davis was second in the 200 -yard Davis was second in the 200 -yard butertily and thirr in the 50 -yarr frestyle, while Martel won the 500 yard freestyle in $4: 40.52$ and finished fourth in the 200 free. Himebauch wa second in the 500 -yard free and thirc in the 200 -yard free.
Seniors Amy Pritchard and Wendy Powers led the UNC women's mul Powers led the UNC women's multiple placers with three events each Pritchard, who is also a member of the champion 200 -yard medley relay team, took second in the 200 -yard freestyle and fifth in the 400 -yard individual medley. Powers won the individual mediey.
200 -yard frestyle.
would be this way, even with J.R have some chemistry problems, but He started half-speed running yesterday, so we're looking for him to return either just after Christmas just before."

