

UNC's dance team, the High Kicking Heels, practices Tuesday afternoon in Woollen Gym

High Kicking Heels prepare for national dance contest

By CHERYL ALLEN
Staff Writer

Whether they are performing in the Pit for a few hundred people or in the Smith Center at basketball halftimes for 20,000 fans, UNC's High Kicking Heels show that hard work and dedication are taking them a long way. The group is now preparing for a national dance competition after only four years as an official organization.

The University's dance team has developed a good reputation in a relatively short period of time, according to coach and choreographer Quentin Alexander.

The national competition involves preparing an audition tape in which the High Kicking Heels are judged against dance teams from other major universities around the United States, said co-captain Anita Harrison, a senior economics major from Wilmington.

The top seven schools qualify for the competition in San Antonio, Harrison said. The dance team finished eighth last year.

The group's goal is to go to San Antonio, Alexander said, where it would be possible for them to place

Campus Group Focus

or even win the competition. "We have been working since October on this one particular dance for the competition," Harrison said. The dances must include jumps, leaps, stunts and different dance techniques, she said.

Most of the girls said commitment and a love for dancing are key elements in being a part of the 23-girl squad. But they said performing is the best part of being in the group.

"You really have to want to do it," said Cathy Sherer, a junior speech communications major from Wilmington and treasurer of the High Kicking Heels. "You have to want to give it 200 percent all the time, but it's a lot of fun."

Angie Stafford, a junior criminal justice major from Charlotte, is dancing with the Heels for the first time this year. She said being on the team is very time consuming. "I wouldn't do it if I didn't enjoy it enough to make it a part of my life," she said.

Harrison said being on the team is rough on its members sometimes. "But there is nothing like walking out into the SAC and seeing 22,000 people looking at you and hearing the crowd," she said. "I think it makes it all worth it."

The amount of prior experience varies greatly within the group. "I have been taking tap, ballet and jazz since I was three," Stafford said. "But you don't have to have that kind of training." Some of the members have had no prior experience and were just fast learners.

Tryouts for next year's squad will take place March 28. The women are judged on precision, appearance and projection, Harrison said. Next year team members must sign a document claiming the High Kicking Heels as their number one priority.

Harrison encouraged anyone interested in trying out to come watch the team prepare their audition tape in Carmichael this Sunday from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Alexander said he hopes people will come and cheer the girls on while they tape on Sunday. "It would help the girls to get support (from the student body) because it's hard to dance to a coach and a cameraman."

Former PTL head denies charges of misusing funds from ministry

From Associated Press reports

CHARLOTTE — Evangelist Jim Bakker pleaded innocent Tuesday to federal charges that he diverted millions of dollars from his PTL television audience for personal use.

Bakker's lawyer, George Davis, asked U.S. Magistrate Paul Taylor during the hearing for a gag order for all parties involved, based largely on comments by the retired federal bankruptcy judge who supervised the sale of PTL assets.

Taylor said he would consider the request, instructing attorneys from both sides to draft a consent order and present it to him by Thursday for approval. The magistrate told Davis he was concerned Bakker would go on television and talk about the case, but he issued no formal request for Bakker to keep quiet.

Bakker was silent during the hearing, but made a statement afterward.

"I am definitely not guilty of any charges in this indictment," Bakker said. "The judge asked for no conversations about this case, but I'd like to say that Tammy and I are thrilled to be back on TV."

The Bakkers began broadcasting "The Jim and Tammy Show" from their leased home near Charlotte earlier this month.

EVENT SCHEDULE Wednesday, Jan. 18

11 a.m. Martin Luther King Birthday Tribute, the Pit. Everyone is invited to join the celebration and enjoy sliced birthday cake.

12:30 p.m. Panel Discussion, Black Cultural Center. "Brotherhood and Sisterhood: Does It Still Exist?" Room 205, Carolina Union. Dr. Sonja Stone from the Curriculum in African & Afro-American Studies will be the featured speaker.

5:30 p.m.

The DTH Campus Calendar is a daily listing of University-related activities sponsored by academic departments, student services and student organizations officially recognized by the Division of Student Affairs. To appear in Campus Calendar, announcements must be submitted on the Campus Calendar form by NOON one business day before the announcement is to run. Saturday and Sunday events are printed in Friday's calendar and must be submitted on the Wednesday before the announcement is to run. Forms and a drop box are located outside the DTH office, 104 Union. Items of Interest lists ongoing events from the same campus organizations and follows the same deadline schedule as Campus Calendar. Please use the same form.

Wednesday

10 a.m. The Reference Departments of UNC Library will have a CD-ROM workshop on the public affairs information service database in the second floor conference rooms of Davis Library.

11 a.m. The Reference Departments of UNC Library will have a CD-ROM workshop on the newspaper abstracts on disc database in the second floor conference rooms of Davis Library.

2 p.m. University Career Planning and Placement Services will have a basic informational meeting for seniors and graduate students on how to use the UCPPS office in 209 Hanes.

2:45 p.m. UCPPS will have a resume writing workshop for seniors and graduate students in 209 Hanes.

4 p.m. UCPPS will have a basic informational meeting for senior business majors on how to use the UCPPS office in 209 Hanes.

Campus Calendar

11 a.m. The Reference Departments of UNC Library will have a CD-ROM workshop on the newspaper abstracts on disc database in the second floor conference rooms of Davis Library.

2 p.m. University Career Planning and Placement Services will have a basic informational meeting for seniors and graduate students on how to use the UCPPS office in 209 Hanes.

2:45 p.m. UCPPS will have a resume writing workshop for seniors and graduate students in 209 Hanes.

4 p.m. UCPPS will have a basic informational meeting for senior business majors on how to use the UCPPS office in 209 Hanes.

4:45 p.m. UCPPS will have a resume writing workshop for senior business majors in 209 Hanes.

5:30 p.m. Newman Center will have student night dinner followed by a "welcome back" social program.

6:30 p.m. UCPPS will sponsor "Careers in Sales Management," presented by General Foods, in the Black Cultural Center, Union.

7 p.m. Elections Board will meet in 209 Union.

Carolina Indian Circle will meet in the Campus Y lounge; all students are welcomed back and are encouraged to attend.

7:30 p.m. Students for the Ethical Treatment of Animals will meet in 210 Union.

Items of Interest

Yokelbells will be leaving from the Union parking lot for its weekly meeting with the Orange County inmates.

University Career Planning and Placement Services will need resumes from all students interested in summer internships with McNeil Consumer Products (Sales) or General Electrical Capital (Financial Management) by 3 p.m. Drop resumes off at 211 Hanes.

GPSF is offering information on the in-state application process. See the bulletin board outside Suite D, Union.

North Carolina Memorial Hospital Volunteer Services will be holding volunteer registration weekdays until Jan. 27 from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Call 966-4793 for more information.

Delta Sigma Pi, the professional business fraternity, is having sign-up for Spring Rush Jan. 17 through Jan. 20 beside T-2 in New Carroll.

Information Technology Consulting with Price Waterhouse

Price Waterhouse is seeking entry-level Information Technology Consultants with a minimum of 3.2 cumulative GPA and degrees in the following areas:

- COMPUTER SCIENCE or MIS
- BUSINESS
- ACCOUNTING
- LIBERAL ARTS with a STRONG QUANTITATIVE COURSE FOCUS

We offer an intensive training program designed to develop entry-level technical consulting skills. If you possess the above qualifications and seek an opportunity that offers challenge, diversity and long-term career potential please plan to attend a presentation at the

Carolina Inn on Thursday, January 19 at 7:30

Price Waterhouse
An Equal Opportunity Employer

Freshmen and Sophomores:

$20,000 SCHOLARSHIPS. A VALUABLE PROGRAM. A PERSONAL CHALLENGE.

The NROTC Scholarship Program offers you a two-year or three-year college scholarship that's worth as much as $30,000 to $45,000. It also offers you the opportunity to become a Navy officer and start a successful career. During college, the Navy pays tuition, cost of textbooks, instructional fees, and gives you an allowance of $100 a month for up to 24 months during your last three years of college. Upon graduation and completion of requirements, you'll become part of the Navy adventure as a commissioned Navy Officer.

For more information on this challenging program, call
LT BENFIELD 962-1198

NAVY ROTC You are Tomorrow.
You are the Navy.

$20,000 SCHOLARSHIPS: THE FAST TRACK TO SUCCESS

Two-year NROTC scholarships offer tuition and other financial assistance worth as much as $30,000 to qualified college sophomores.

These and other benefits are provided for one purpose: to educate and train qualified young men and women to serve as commissioned officers in the Navy.

The Navy pays for tuition, textbooks, instructional fees and gives you an allowance of $100 a month for up to 20 months during your last two years of college. Upon graduation and completion of requirements, you'll become an important part of the Navy adventure as a Navy officer.

Call your Navy representative for more information on this challenging and rewarding program.

Call: LT. BENFIELD
962-1198

NAVY ROTC You are Tomorrow
You are the Navy

Need an Easy Job this Semester?

Earn $30 this week as a new plasma donor!

SERA TEC BIOLOGICALS
109 1/2 E. FRANKLIN ST. 942-0251
(ABOVE RITE-AID)

Facilities include:
pool, gym, racquetball courts,
Universal and Nautilus
weights, sauna, steam and whirlpool.

25% OFF

ALL ANNUAL MEMBERSHIPS

Memberships available for: youth (0-15), youth (16-18), student, adult, husband-wife, family, single parent, senior citizen.

YMCA

980 Airport Rd.
Chapel Hill/Carrboro
942-5156

Effective Jan. 15-Feb. 15, 1989

The Summer of a Lifetime Awaits You

JAPAN ENGLAND SPAIN AUSTRIA ITALY
SWITZERLAND CANADA
CHINA TURKEY FRANCE THE SOVIET UNION

Summer Study Abroad Programs for undergraduate and graduate students

Travel and Study Programs for "students" of all ages and interests

For further information, please contact:

Syracuse University
Division of International Programs Abroad
Summer Programs Office - Dept. AP
119 Euclid Avenue, Syracuse, NY 13244-4170
315-443-9420/9421