Up Front:

- 6 Beam me up Scotty!
Our intrepid Edited4TV columnist Winston Lloyd delves into the goings on of "Star Trek — The Next Generation." And, as an extra treat for you Trekkers, arts editor Kelly Rhodes lets you in on how the series became an American Phenomenon.
- 3 From "Bull Durham" to "Bambi"
The Carolina Union Film Committee has chosen a sparkling selection of silver screen sizzlers. (Try saying that five times fast!)
- 3 I think, therefore I am?
This week graffiti waxes philosophic.
- 4 Going to the dogs
They're young, energetic and into skateboarding; Alison Pike introduces Doggy Style.
- 5 Mr. Briggs and a sure-fire cold remedy
Joe Bob offers to share with you dear readers his friend's "hunnerd percent effective" cold remedy. Plus, don't miss the one-star (because he felt generous) movie, "War."
- 8 So, what are you saying?
Joe Bob's "Wisdom on Parade" tells you what people who never say what they mean are really saying.
- 8 With random abandon
Resident columnist Elizabeth Ellen returns with thoughts that may be even more random than usual.
- 9 Simply beautiful pop songs
Doug Edmunds reviews Lucinda Williams' self-titled LP and urges you to do the same.
- 9 A 60s story with an 80s message
University editor Kimberly Edens reviews "Mississippi Burning," a forceful, violent film based on true story.
- 10 Pick a flick
January seems to be "This is the best movie of the year" month, so now is the time to head to the box office.
- 11 Fare Always
You're back, so it's back: Week's Fare, your guide for good times.
