Another week passes, another bunch of mediocre movies get released. What's a moviegoer to do except see all the great movies at the Union this weekend?

Meanwhile, "Rain Man" enters its 17th week (count 'em) at area theatres. The manager at the Willowdale reported takings in excess of $1300 last Saturday. Could it be the most successful film ever to win Best Picture at the Oscars?

Apologies for a slightly condensed Movie guide this week: normal service will be resumed as soon as possible. In the meantime, make a point of calling theatres ahead of time, just to make sure.

NEXT WEEK'S MOVIES (Starting Friday: all times p.m.)

MOVIES AT THE UNION

Midnight Run: Friday April 14 at 7 and 9:30.

This wonderful comedy thriller was one of the absolute high spots of last summer. Robert DeNiro plays a modern-day bounty hunter who almost takes on more than he can handle when he picks up an accountant (Charles Grodin) who once gave $10m of gang money to charity. Grodin and DeNiro are simply charming in their respective roles, and are helped by an exceptionally talented cast. It's a character movie more than anything else, and a complete pleasure at that. The bar scene is a classic. Yeah!

Purple Rain: Friday and Saturday, April 14 and 15 - midnight.

How this entertaining piece of Prince narcissism became one of the most successful movie of 1984 still seems a bit strange. But I suppose we did all go and see it, and we did all enjoy it. It's still fun, as long as you don't worry too much about the story and Apollonia's acting.

The Magnificent Seven: Saturday, April 15 at 7 and 9:30.

The last 'Remake' weekend features this extremely popular Americanization of Akira Kurosawa's "The Seven Samurai." Yul Brynner takes the lead as a gun-fighter who gathers up six men in order to come to the help of a Mexican village that is being attacked by some bandits. Well-directed and very entertaining with a cast that includes James Coburn, Charles Bronson, and Steve McQueen.

Seven Samurai: Sunday April 16 at 7 only.

This 208 minutes epic is simply one of the greatest. From the master of Japanese filmmaking, this amazing film tells the story of seven samurai warriors who get together to defend a small Japanese village from its attackers. If you've got the time, this wonder is not something to pass up on the screen.

CHAPEL HILL PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Maltese Falcon.
Tuesday, April 18 at 2:30 and Wednesday, April 19 at 7:00.

Humphrey Bogart plays private detective Sam Spade who has to discover the whereabouts of the legendary bird. The all-star cast includes Peter Lorre, Mary Astor, Sydney Greenstreet (as 'Fatso Gutman'), and Huston's own father, Walter, in the small role of the shipcaptain.
