tation of the artist's famous murals. Finally, there comes "The Cave," which looks exactly like it sounds. In this room you feel as if you are several thousand feet underground. Each brings a feeling of comfort to its occupants.

Another important room to The Rat is the bar, located to the immediate right as you walk in the door. Smith said The Rat was originally a bar and that food was not served until the mid-'50s. A pinball machine and a fish tank help decorate the bar, and a generous supply of liquor and beer rest on the shelves.

Pitchers of beer, very popular on football weekends, are $3.50 for the small and $5.75 for the large. Domestic bottled beer is $1.50 and imported bottled beer $1.95. Wine and mixed drinks are also available upon request.
