Deacons
Wake with some offensive spark.
The jumping-jack has hit double figures in four of the last five games, including 20 against Duke, 27 versus Virginia and a winning tip-in with three seconds left against Old Dominion. Carlyle has seen his scoring average dip from 13.6 as a freshman to 6.5 this year, but he is still the Deacs' main three-point shooter (16-42, 38 percent).
Senior Ralph Kitley (6-10) and sophomore Phil Medlin (6-9) are slow space-eaters. However, Kitley did have his best game of this year against UNC with six points and nine rebounds.
Although Wake's frontline remains its strength — the Deacons are the second-best rebounding team in the ACC — the Tar Heels' inside players had a field day earlier in the year. Rick Fox led the charge with 19 points, and he was backed by Kevin Madden (14), Scott Williams (12) and George Lynch (11).

Swimming
Leslie had tied the record of 105 points by hitting four technical foul shots — awarded after South Torrance failed to retake the court — but they were later nullified by a Southern Conference ruling.
