Staylor, freshman wrestlers romp; UNC wins 4 titles in season opener

From staff and wire reports
NORFOLK, Va. — North Carolina wrestling coach Bill Lam's highly-touted recruiting class lived up to its billing in its first mat appearance. Two freshmen were among four individual titlists for UNC as the 1990 season opened at the Eastern Nationals Saturday. Tar Heel freshman Jody Staylor was selected as the meet's Most Outstanding Wrestler.

Staylor, a true freshman from Virginia Beach, Va., won all five of his matches including an 11-6 victory in the finals of the 126-pound class. The three-time Virginia state high school champion was one of three UNC freshmen to earn berths in championship matches.

First-year Tar Heels Ty Moore and Brad Silimperi, who battled for the 118-pound state title last winter in Pennsylvania with Moore winning his fourth straight high school championship, met again Saturday. Moore won again, defeating his teammate in the 118 finals, 5-4.

Junior Pete Welch won the 167-pound class, and senior Jay Landolfo took the title at 190 pounds. Soph David Grant was second at 134.

Women's golf eighth in Fla.

DESTIN, Fla. — The North Carolina women's golf team shot 311 on the final day of competition Sunday in the Tiger-Tide Invitational to finish in eighth place at Seascape Resort. The Tar Heels' team total of 949 was only eight strokes behind third place Florida State.

Cristi Coats of LSU was medalist with a three-day total of 224, while Georgia took the team crown with 916.

State triumphs, earns right to face Heels

From Associated Press reports

RALEIGH — Charmaine Hooper and Jill Rutten each scored to lead 10th-ranked North Carolina State to a 2-0 victory over No. 9 William & Mary Sunday in the opening round of the NCAA women's soccer tournament.

The Wolfpack (14-6-1) will travel about 30 miles for its second-round match with North Carolina, the top-seeded team in the tournament. The two rivals will square off at 2 p.m. Sunday on Fetzer Field.

In last season's semifinals, North Carolina took a 2-0 victory over N.C. State. North Carolina defeated the Wolfpack to win the 1988 national title, and in 1985 took a 4-2 victory in a second-round game.

Hooper scored her ninth goal of the season at the 27:50 mark on an assist from Colette Cunningham.

Rutten scored her goal about two minutes into the second half, shooting in a loose ball following a penalty kick.

The victory helped N.C. State avenge a 2-1 loss to William & Mary earlier this season.

Lindsay Brecher made seven saves in goal for her sixth shutout this season.

season games left before the ACC Tournament starts on Nov. 16. What will they have to do to work themselves out of the eight-game rut?

"It basically has to do with people searching themselves and looking for the qualities it takes to win," Sagula said. "They have to really want (to get back on track) more than anything else right now. We will try to figure something out."

Sagula points to Andrews, a 5-9 sophomore who had 11 kills and 22 digs, as the model of a player who has found what it takes to win.

"Natalie Andrews was a stud tonight," he said. "If we had six Natalie Andrews out there, playing as hard as she did, we would win. She plays with her heart and her soul and her guts. This team needs more gut."

Kathy Carter had nine saves for William & Mary, whose season ends at 12-8-1.

N.C. State men win ACC

DURHAM — North Carolina State earned a spot in the NCAA men's soccer tournament Sunday as second-half goals by Dario Brose and Henry Gutierrez gave the Wolfpack a 2-1 victory over eighth-ranked Virginia.

N.C. State entered the tournament as the fourth seed, but finished with the title and six players on the all-tourney team. The 14th-ranked Wolfpack also became the fourth different winner in the four years the conference tournament has been held.

Brose scored at the 75:26 mark and Gutierrez added his goal at 84:47. Virginia was limited to two shots on goal in the second half and six overall.

Sophomore Ben Crawley gave Virginia a 1-0 lead at 26:28 of the first half with a goal from the center, 15 yards out.

The Wolfpack (16-4) fired 20 shots at the Cavaliers (10-5-6) in the second half and finally broke through on Brose's kick, a 22-yarder on a pass from Curt Johnson.

Gutierrez, the ACC player of the year and the tournament's most valuable player, scored on an assist from Tom Tanner for the clinching score.

Brose, Gutierrez, Tanner, Edwin Aguilera, Roy Lassiter and Alex Sanchez made the all-tournament team. Virginia goalkeeper Jeff Causey, who recorded two shutouts, also earned an all-tournament spot.
